

Misused Talents

By Raymond Clapper

WASHINGTON (Special)—I HOPE Westbrook Pegler will come down here and do his justly celebrated scathing job on the Office of Civilian Defense...

Most of the remaining trouble would be caused if the erratic and trashy activities of Major La Guardia were removed from the scene...

But this is public business, and very important public business. The work of the Office of Civilian Defense concerns the salvation of the nation...

It is incredible that President Roosevelt will allow this situation to continue month after month. It has become a public scandal...

How can you have any kind of morale with a situation like this? The President of the United States, fitting in and out between lecture engagements to tow a few more pots into the job?

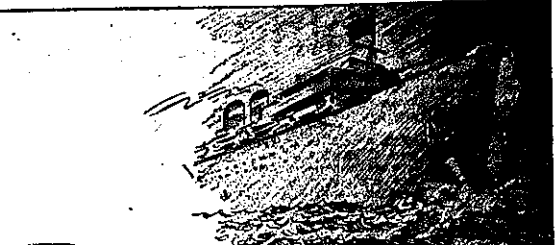

On the other side of the civilian defense work, where the children's rhythmic dancing comes in, a whole clutter of stuff has grown up largely through Mrs. Roosevelt's hands...

But the executive order means almost nothing in the United States. The same kind of shuffling that war production had the other day...

What were we afraid of? Is that there will have to be a World Series after the manner in which certain members of the ten AEPAs won the war.

Today's Bible Thought

If you love God utterly and follow him you can ask what you will of Him: Ask and it shall be given you, seek and ye shall find, knock and it shall be opened to you.—Luke 11:9.
