One Last Bite Northern Nazis

Labor Board Heard the President the First Time... This week a panel of the War Labor Board handed down a long and added opinion in the Little Steel wage case...

Northern Nazis

Finland Begs for Lesson in International Morals... It seems quite high that we should be the only European German-owned and operated nation that does not worship American heroes...

The substance of this recommendation hardly squares with the President's declared policy on wages. On April 27, 1942, he told Congress to keep the roof of living from spiraling upward, we must stabilize the remuneration received by individuals for their work.

The Flinn is a true and an awkward fact when we consider the amount and through their hosts. But submission to the Nazis to regain hands not to Russia through aggression is, we hold, inexcusable on the part of any nation hoping to take a decent stand in a post-war world.

In my opinion, the War Labor Board is about to take the bit in its teeth and formulate its own wage policies? We do not think so. We think, to the contrary, that the warranted deductions are two and which of the two is the more probable the little reader may determine for himself.

Finland cannot live in security with the Moscow Pact. Finland has the right to ask the cancellation to the Atlantic Charter. Finland is in this document in harmony with the terms of the Moscow Peace which binds England and America in a death compact to us.

Glad Farewell

That Which June Brought Little Joy to Our Side... Went June the 30-day wonder luncheon, reductive queen of the calendar. The poets could not have recognized her as the maiden her way down the ramp.

Thrice Welcome

City Follows County's Lead in Reducing Tax Rate... Take a fiscal administration, add increased valuations, better collections, a through-going program of expenditure and a decrease of some $1,000,000 in debt service, and you have, in spite of salary raises, the prospect of a substantial reduction in the City tax rate for 1942-43.

June's reign brought us only bad news and golden promises. Our victories were hollow. Our triumphs were only a triumph of Hitler's. The United States was told and told again. Congress passed the pay of soldiers and sailors. Britain and Russia signed a treaty year past, a second front for 1942 was pledged. U. S. flies buzzed in Libya and in Turkey; the scrap rubber drive opened; Esau and Brehen were levied by bombs; Mussolini's navy was pounded in a Mediterranean melee.

It would be welcome in any time. In three times of sky-high and news-poor, the green life came rushing in at Savannah. Bremer, captured on the Atlantic coast, suddenly picked off. Tunisia and turned into Egypt, almost a hundred new ship bottoms stacked into the Atlantic graveyard. Against the avalanche of evil, June offered but little good.

We Could Pin One Defeat

On Our Guests From The Submarines

WASHINGTON (This column has maintained for a long time that the attempt to deal with Nazi activities in this country chiefly by a long watch on enemy agents would miss the mark and that the most effective way is to make among American citizens of German and other extraction.)

By Dorothy Thompson... One of the proofs of the program they brought with them. That is too much for eight men. It is for a large and well-organized crew. A saboteur with a personal task is always advised to make contacts even with his best political friends.

sabotage have occurred until now is no reason for over-optimism, for the tactic of the Nazis is to retain their reserves for an enormous blow at the most critical moment. The plans for Hitler's withdrawal in America cannot be followed wholly by Government agents.

Who's The General?

WASHINGTON PARAGRAPH: Since here has been creeping into the press, according to the Canadian General Andrew George Latta, it might be chosen to lead the British and the American American Invasion Europe.
