

THE CHARLOTTE NEWS

ESTABLISHED 1888

CHARLOTTE, NORTH CAROLINA, SATURDAY, OCTOBER 2, 1943

30 Pages—Price Five Cents

ALLIES HEAD FOR ROME FROM NA

DEADLOCK BATTLE CONTINUES IN KEY AREA

Strike From Africa Bases At Germany

Fortresses Attack Munich While Liberators Raid Near Vienna

Emden Attacked By Flying Fortresses

Follows Night Assault By Allied Planes On Ruhr City Of Hagen

Girl Escapes From Maniac

Was Held Prisoner For 29 Hours

Queens Die Proudly

The grizzled and battle-scarred stood on the runway...

Red Airmen Attack Rail Centers In White Russia

Planned To Soften Nazi Defenses

Jap Ships In Flight

Large Surrance Force Runs In Solomons

Prison-Dr In Bucharest Hamed

Prison-Dr In Bucharest Hamed

Prison-Dr In Bucharest Hamed

Prison-Dr In Bucharest Hamed

Pursue Enemy To North After Port's Capture

"The Road To Rome Is Open," Allied Military Spokesman Says

Japs Pounded In Central Solomons

About To Be Pushed Off Vella Lavella—New Perils For Enemy On Guinea

Rumor Mill Grinds Fast

Talk Of Russian-German Moves

Damage To Naples Appears Much Less Serious Than Was Expected

By RELMAN MORIN

Orders Nazi 'Blood Wall'

Hitler Tells Marshals To Hold In Italy

Waterfront In Ruins

Buildings Guttered

Craft Stunk At Dismantling

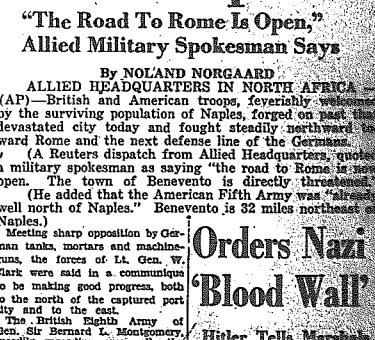

Claim British Landing

Craft Stunk At Dismantling

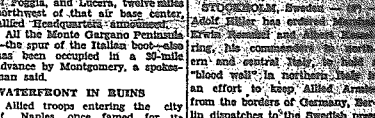

People who lacked flags spread beautiful multi-colored broadsides from their windows and doors.

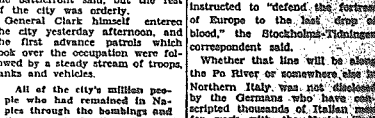

SOLDIER STARES AT BURNING SHIP—A soldier, turns to stare at a burning ship on the horizon during landing operations of the American forces at Salerno where they encountered heavy opposition from Nazi land batteries and planes overhead. (Newspool photo.)

Buildings Guttered

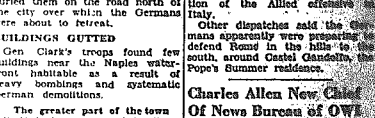

Craft Stunk At Dismantling

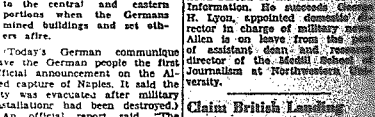

Claim British Landing

Craft Stunk At Dismantling

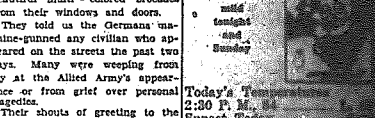

Claim British Landing

Craft Stunk At Dismantling

Claim British Landing

Craft Stunk At Dismantling

Claim British Landing

WEATHER section with forecast for the day and night, including temperature and wind conditions.