Three Features Today
The first of a series of features on the Washington-Mexico-Go-Round is the Sea-Bees. The second is the tropical roads. The third is the mud miracles.

Censorship
Army Oversteps Bounds at East Carolina Wreck
Laymen are in no position to attempt to lay blame of any kind for the tragic train wreck in Eastern Carolina which has already taken a toll of 70 lives and injured more than 500 persons. It is simply good sense to warn the fearful rail accidents of history, and saddens the nation. It is to be remembered that the railroad, in common with others throughout the world, has been forced to the utter limit of speed and traffic over its lines, and fights a bitter battle against shortages and depreciating equipment in wartime.

Washington
WHEN U. S. troops landed on Guadalcanal, they found what the Japs did not find two years before. When they landed at Guadalcanal, they found what the Japs did not find two years before. When they landed at Guadalcanal, they found what the Japs did not find two years before.

Cherry Chides Public Complaints
Governatorial Candidate Gregg Cherry, speaking in Fairmont, was a great deal easier on the North Carolina public than he might have been. He emphasized that the State has done remarkably little growing at war controls, and has fallen to its task of furnishing men and materials with which to fight the war. He also pointed out that the State has done remarkably little growing at war controls, and has fallen to its task of furnishing men and materials with which to fight the war.

Clapper Sees Dixie's Railroads as Realists
There will be men who will read today's column by Raymond Clapper in the newspapers of the nation and grow angry that this man is a hide-bound reactionary. Men outside the South and not a few within it, will be sure to say that Mr. Clapper is a man who is not a realist.

Mud Miracles
Though, in its early stages, Camp Peary was described by the Navy as "hell's work," today it is a real, orderly stretch of "nutments" (orders) stretching as far as the eye can see. Many thousands are now located there, all training for construction work in the Pacific, Burma or on the Western front.

The Leader
Churchill's Illness
Magnifies His Worth
The prayers of the Allied world are with Winston Churchill this week as the aging leader of free men fights his second battle against pneumonia within the year. At some undisclosed spot in the Middle East the man who has become a symbol of resistance to the men of evil seeks to throw off a dangerous foe, and there is a sudden grave calm in England, an apprehension in America.

Dixie Railroads & The Negro
By Raymond Clapper
ONLY mischievous, dainty and further irritation of race relations can come from the public and every other state. Major Cherry's theory that this kind of public selfishness makes possible continual assaults on our economy by pressure groups is sound. The present situation is not a matter of public selfishness, but of a lack of public spirit.

Fire Destroys Schoolhouse
WINSTON-SALEM, N. C. (AP)—A fire of undetermined origin destroyed the Winston-Salem High School gymnasium last night. The building had been utilized as the central school for displaced persons since the evacuation of Japanese-Americans from the West Coast. The school was built in 1928 and cost $200,000. It was insured by the State.

Treatment For Syphilis
South, then we should display it on a clean sheet. I am laying the blame of the Negro's condition on the hands of our country. Instead of petty laws such as Jaywalking and the like we should have a law that would clean our own house first.

The Vampires
By Samuel Crafton
NEW YORK
THE strange single piece of wartime inflation is the elevation of Mr. Alf M. Landon to the role of "Mr. Landon" in the community. Mr. Landon, who drew eight electoral votes seven years ago, is now being hailed as a hero.

The People Or The Government?
Editors, The News:
I think it is high time we the people of the United States act in a more dignified and manly way. Instead of pouring our billions of dollars into Latin America, we should clean our own house first.

Everyday Counselor
By Rev. Herbert Spangh
THE effect of our spiritual and mental attitudes upon our physical being is far more than most of us think. Each of us has created a body, mind and spirit. The three must be kept in so-called, the one checking and balancing the other.

The People Or The Government?
I am of the opinion that nothing is a more important matter for the population of Charlotte and the best and quickest cure for the present situation. Please don't put up any silly arguments that it can't be done. If a person comes to the Police Department and pay a buck or two for walking across the street, why should we not pay a doctor when the health and life of Charlotte is at stake.
