

This Is The Army, Mr. Jones!

THE CHARLOTTE NEWS SPORTS

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 26, 1943 FIVE-B

At Training Camps American League Will Have Plenty Players

CHICAGO.—Current Spring training reports show that the American League will have plenty of players to start the season.

Harding Plays Last Home Game Tonight

Setting at present on the field of the Philadelphia Athletics, the Philadelphia Athletics will play their last home game tonight.

Chicago Cubs Buy Al Todd

LOS ANGELES.—Al Todd, veteran pitcher, has been bought by the Chicago Cubs.

Race Attendance Is Going Down

RAY MASON.—Track meet attendance is going down in the South.

Barney Ross, Back From War, Tells Saga

SAN DIEGO, Calif., (AP)—Barney Ross came home from Guadalcanal the way he usually left the ring—on his own two feet—and with the dramatic story of the "toughest road I ever slugged."

That night he spent in the shell hole, he said, he thought the "hell would never sound."

At Durham Tonight Blue Devils Favored To Lick Phants

Grid, Cage Stars in Track Meet

CHAPEL HILL.—The Southeastern indoor track championships, which will bring sixteen teams and almost 500 athletes to the University of North Carolina...

Despite Defeat Ray Robinson Favored Over LaMotta Tonight

DETROIT.—The straight-punching Ray Robinson spent much of his last fight in a vain attempt to knock out the more powerful...

Action Slated At the Armory

The latest big program at the Armory has become more and more exciting.

Joe Palooka

JOE PALOOKA.—The boxing champion is set to fight tonight.

Alley Aces

ALLEY ACES.—The billiard players are set to compete tonight.

Jimmie Wasdell, Klinger Sign

PITTSBURGH.—The baseball players Jimmie Wasdell and Klinger have signed with the Pirates.

Kentucky May Be Duration Champ of SE

LOUISVILLE, Ky.—(AP)—Kentucky, defending Southern Conference basketball champion...

Central Ends Season With Tourney Loss

Central's Silver Streaks were defeated in their final game of the season.

Phils Train at Hershey, Pa.

PHILADELPHIA.—The Philadelphia Athletics are training at Hershey, Pa.

Chicago Cubs Buy Al Todd

LOS ANGELES.—Al Todd, veteran pitcher, has been bought by the Chicago Cubs.

Race Attendance Is Going Down

RAY MASON.—Track meet attendance is going down in the South.

Alley Aces

ALLEY ACES.—The billiard players are set to compete tonight.

Jimmie Wasdell, Klinger Sign

PITTSBURGH.—The baseball players Jimmie Wasdell and Klinger have signed with the Pirates.

Joe Palooka

JOE PALOOKA.—The boxing champion is set to fight tonight.

FACING EACH OTHER at Durham tonight, when the White Phantoms and Duke clash on the hardwood, will be Fritz Nagy, Phant forward who is bowing out in favor of the Army after a short but brilliant career, and Garland Loftis, another bundle of Duke dynamite who performed his embryonic basketball days at Durham High School.

Central Ends Season With Tourney Loss

Central's Silver Streaks were defeated in their final game of the season.

Phils Train at Hershey, Pa.

PHILADELPHIA.—The Philadelphia Athletics are training at Hershey, Pa.

Chicago Cubs Buy Al Todd

LOS ANGELES.—Al Todd, veteran pitcher, has been bought by the Chicago Cubs.

Race Attendance Is Going Down

RAY MASON.—Track meet attendance is going down in the South.

Alley Aces

ALLEY ACES.—The billiard players are set to compete tonight.

Jimmie Wasdell, Klinger Sign

PITTSBURGH.—The baseball players Jimmie Wasdell and Klinger have signed with the Pirates.

A NEW UNIFORM, TOO, has Buckley Harris, newly-chosen pilot of the Philadelphia Phils, and his isn't khaki. The one-time "Boy Wonder," who at 27 managed Washington to a World Series title, is shown talking to William D. Cox, right, new owner of the lowly National Leagueers.