YANKS ARE HILLTOP TO ROME

Eighth Army Picks Way Up Coast

British Troops Back From Raid
By RICHARD G. MASSOCK
ALLIED HEADQUARTERS,
ALGIERES. (AP)—
American troops of the Fifth Army seized three heights overlooking the Cassino highway, the most important road to Rome, and the Eighth Army is picking its way through minefields at a mile-a-day pace up the Adriatic coast toward Pescara on the eastern shore, Allied Headquarters' announcements said today.

NICE, NIECE, KNOX—Now it's the "waller" girl-subject of a photo small enough to be carried in an admiral's pocket. The photo showed a young woman, Jacqueline White, above, center, across the front of the ship. The photo was taken by a photographer who was on the ship. The photo
