

THE CHARLOTTE NEWS

And Evening Chronicle

Published Seven Days a Week... W. C. Dowd, 1885-1937

MEMBER ASSOCIATED PRESS AND AP FEATURES... Subscription Rates

New Arms? Russia Will For Rupture With Japan

One of the most momentous developments of this war... against stubborn Argentina. The cards are stacked against her.

Cashing In AFL Man Suggests A Quitting Time

The source from which you would least expect to hear complaints of "growing governmental regulation of labor relations" is Labor itself.

Fill'er Up!

It is not believed that Hitler was seriously injured by last July's attempted assassination... "Fill'er Up!"

Forward! FDR Has Two New Bits Of A Program Ready

At the first session of his Cabinet after elections, as Drew Pearson reports, Franklin Roosevelt made it clear that at least two important pieces of domestic legislation would be thrown to Congress at the opening of the January session.

Maverick Argentina Gets The Cold Shoulder

Nobody knows what to do about Argentina, that proud and pro-Axis disturber of American unity who is apparently on the road to a career of aggressive militarism.

We Must Have No Fear

It should not be necessary to argue at length with respect to the right (?) of one body of Americans to permit us to refuse to permit another body of Americans to work at their trade.

Isolation Takes The Count

THIS is Senator Ball's home town when the young Republican Senator from Minnesota is in town.

They Were'n Paratroopers

It is a rather amusing thing just occurred which called for immediate attention in the form of a letter to the editor.

The Merry-Go-Round

By Drew Pearson

WASHINGTON ALLED Intelligence has done its job... Commander-in-Chief

Merry-Go-Round

Britons are now organizing "Fan Clubs" for Bing Crosby, Glenn Miller and Dinah Shore.

Fill'er Up!

It is not believed that Hitler was seriously injured by last July's attempted assassination.

Forward!

Maverick

We Must Have No Fear

Isolation Takes The Count

They Were'n Paratroopers

Hasn't Tarheel Better Men?

Hasn't Tarheel Better Men?

Hasn't Tarheel Better Men?

Hasn't Tarheel Better Men?

Hasn't Tarheel Better Men?

Hasn't Tarheel Better Men?

Hasn't Tarheel Better Men?

Hasn't Tarheel Better Men?

Hasn't Tarheel Better Men?

Hasn't Tarheel Better Men?

Hasn't Tarheel Better Men?

Hasn't Tarheel Better Men?

Hasn't Tarheel Better Men?

Hasn't Tarheel Better Men?

Hasn't Tarheel Better Men?

Hasn't Tarheel Better Men?

SIDE GLANCES

By Galbraith

"I had a good chance today to get enough gas to drive to 'I work if my wife wasn't on the ration board!'"

Everyday Counselor

By Herbert Spaugh, D. D.

With this love, and guide us to our home above. Amen.

MORNING PRAYERS

"Father, we thank Thee for the night, and for the pleasant morning light for health and friends and loving care, and all that makes this world so fair.

EVENING PRAYERS

"Now I lay me down to sleep, I pray Thee, Lord, my soul to keep, and if I should die before I wake, I pray Thee, Lord, my soul to save.

PRAYERS BEFORE MEALS

"Come Lord Jesus our Gifts to be, and bless these Gifts to us, and us to Thee, Thy servant, through Jesus Christ, our Lord, Amen."

PRAYERS AFTER MEALS

"We thank Thee for all that daily bread, and all Thy mercies on us, as usual. We pray Thee, fill us with Thy Holy Spirit."

Kill The Closed Shop

Editor: The News: In your Saturday issue you published a letter with respect to the closed shop.

It should not be necessary to argue at length with respect to the right (?) of one body of Americans to permit us to refuse to permit another body of Americans to work at their trade.

But isn't it important to look at the motives behind the exclusion of "closed shop" workers?

Here is business statecraft of the first rank. It is the kind of leadership we must have if we are to move into a new era of prosperity.

The objective at this moment is to suppress and take of reconversion and post-war planning. The point is that such talk, along with the latter reconversion which has taken place, is seriously retarding the war effort.

That is planning for confidence. With a little assurance for the future, Americans will stay on their war jobs.

Do News readers agree with Mr. Hamilton? Florida and Arkansas have suffered from a closed shop by constitutional amendment, and this vital question is being raised by other southern States.

They Were'n Paratroopers

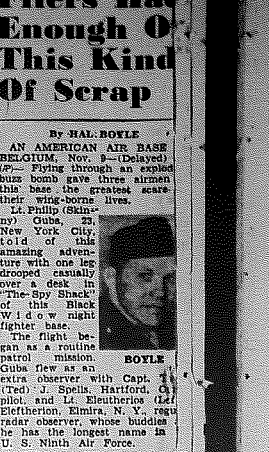

It is a rather amusing thing just occurred which called for immediate attention in the form of a letter to the editor.

Hasn't Tarheel Better Men?

Hasn't Tarheel Better Men?

Hasn't Tarheel Better Men?

By HAL BOYLE

"I had a good chance today to get enough gas to drive to 'I work if my wife wasn't on the ration board!'"

Everyday Counselor

By Herbert Spaugh, D. D.

With this love, and guide us to our home above. Amen.

MORNING PRAYERS

"Father, we thank Thee for the night, and for the pleasant morning light for health and friends and loving care, and all that makes this world so fair.

EVENING PRAYERS

"Now I lay me down to sleep, I pray Thee, Lord, my soul to keep, and if I should die before I wake, I pray Thee, Lord, my soul to save.

PRAYERS BEFORE MEALS

"Come Lord Jesus our Gifts to be, and bless these Gifts to us, and us to Thee, Thy servant, through Jesus Christ, our Lord, Amen."

PRAYERS AFTER MEALS

"We thank Thee for all that daily bread, and all Thy mercies on us, as usual. We pray Thee, fill us with Thy Holy Spirit."

Kill The Closed Shop

Editor: The News: In your Saturday issue you published a letter with respect to the closed shop.

It should not be necessary to argue at length with respect to the right (?) of one body of Americans to permit us to refuse to permit another body of Americans to work at their trade.

But isn't it important to look at the motives behind the exclusion of "closed shop" workers?

Here is business statecraft of the first rank. It is the kind of leadership we must have if we are to move into a new era of prosperity.

The objective at this moment is to suppress and take of reconversion and post-war planning. The point is that such talk, along with the latter reconversion which has taken place, is seriously retarding the war effort.

That is planning for confidence. With a little assurance for the future, Americans will stay on their war jobs.

Do News readers agree with Mr. Hamilton? Florida and Arkansas have suffered from a closed shop by constitutional amendment, and this vital question is being raised by other southern States.

They Were'n Paratroopers

It is a rather amusing thing just occurred which called for immediate attention in the form of a letter to the editor.

Hasn't Tarheel Better Men?

Hasn't Tarheel Better Men?

Hasn't Tarheel Better Men?