Reds Wiping Out Nazis In Cherkassy Trap

LONDON—(AP)—Crashing through possibly the strongest German fortifications on the eastern front, Red Army forces have captured the rail center of Shepetovka and lightened their nose around the Cherkassy death trap 200 miles to the east where nearly 100,000 Nazi troops are being liquidated.

Shepetovka, main distribution point for German troops and supplies on the Ukrainian front for the past two years, is the hub of a network of rail lines: first into Poland, Rumania and Hungary. Its capture by Gen. Nikolai Vatutin's First Ukrainian Army of the Red Army was one of his new offensives toward Odessa and Warsaw, Moscow dispatches.
