What is the spirit that moves men to seek our salvation in attacks on those footbal indui-gences? What, one wonders, can come of such a movement? Do you suspect that this formula of the Washington ministers is to be applied to every American activity that tends to exclude the public—or appeal to apparently low intellect? If so, how will the light movies fare? Where will Sinatra end? Who and what is safe, before such a judgment? A fig for such business! If juvenile delinquency goes no deeper than gal rassling shows and walkathons, we deserve to suffer from it. nomination, saying that it would be his end.
