Senate Scrap

The scrap to elect a Senate GOP leader to succeed Senator McNary has developed international and post-war ramifications.

Military Intelligence

At long last the Army is studying a thorough overhaul of Military Intelligence. The study began shortly after recent disclosures in this column of intelligence inefficiency and the fact that G-2 has been overstaffed with bloodhounds.

Mrs. W. & Mrs. W.

One little incident in the Willie Witt visit Governor Earl Warren of California never leaked out. After the Witts and the Warrens had lunched together in Sacramento, Mrs. Warren took Mrs. Wittkie upstairs while the two men remained below to talk.

Everyday Counselor

Why walk about in doubt and uncertainty when it is not necessary? Why walk in darkness when we can walk in the light?

The Muddled Soldiers

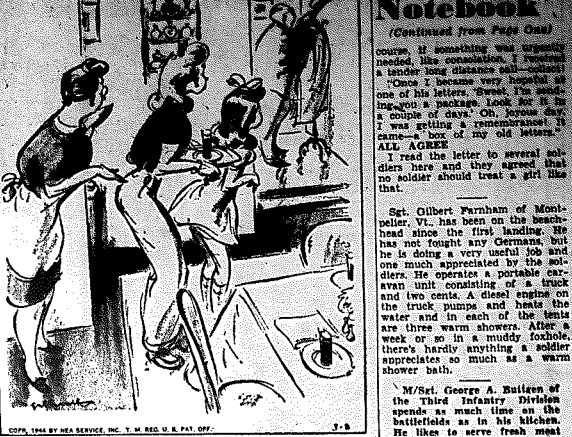

A NUMBER of observers have reported that our fighting men are confused as to what the war is all about, and Mr. Hanson W. Baldwin, military columnist of the New York Times, has just written on the subject.
