

Best Newspaper In The Carolinas

THE CHALLENGE

FINANCIAL

YANKS CAPTURE 3 MORE TOWNS

REDS LAUNCH GREAT NEW DRIVE

London Sends Children Off Due To Robots

Churchill Paints A Grim Picture; 2,752 Killed And 3,000 Hospitalized

Other Red Forces Move Near Wilno

Threaten Pinsk & Brest-Litovsk

AMERICAN FORCES IN FRANCE, pull the lanyard of a 'Long Tom' 155mm. gun at command of the Fourth of July with a night barrage on German positions in Normandy.

Troops Drive On Both Sides Of La Haye

Americans Who Entered Town's Railway Station Withdrawn

Japanese On Saipan Facing Slaughter

U. S. PACIFIC FLEET HEADQUARTERS, Pearl Harbor—(AP)—Imminent slaughter of Japanese, massed today to body for a last ditch stand on Saipan, and the swift capture of a second enemy airfield 800 miles southeast of the Philippine island.

Rundstedt Booted Out

1,000 American Bombers Attack

VON KLUGE

Frenchmen Aid Allies

Arkansas Democrats Consider Vote Plan

Yanks Battle To Trap Germans In La Haye

WEEKLY WEATHER

Salute For De Gaulle

WASHINGTON—(AP)—A French salute was paid to the late Marshal de Gaulle today by the National Committee on the Atlantic.

Strangles Her Two Children

PATRIOT—(AP)—A woman, 35, was charged today with the murder of her two children, a boy and a girl, both 2 years old.

Harry Hopkins Returns to Job

WASHINGTON—(AP)—Harry Hopkins returned today to his job as director of the Federal Emergency Administration.

Canton Raided By Liberators

CHONGKING—(AP)—American forces today raided Canton, a strategic point in the Japanese-occupied territory of China.

Casualties Heaviest In The Mediterranean

WASHINGTON—(AP)—The heaviest casualties in the Mediterranean theater were reported today by the United States Army.

Buy Bonds Now—Cheer The U. S. Fleet—Speed The Invasion—Protect Your Future

Large advertisement at the bottom of the page with multiple columns of text and a central graphic.