

THE CHARLOTTE NEWS

Published Every Afternoon Except Sundays by The News Publishing Company, Inc. W. C. Davis, Jr., President. Editor: W. C. Davis, Jr. Business Manager: J. W. Davis, Jr. ...

The Merry-Go-Round

By Drew Pearson

WASHINGTON (Special) - Summarizing the whole picture, the WPB statistical division concluded: "Available supplies insure the war production program against any flow adequate equipment and ammunition in adequate volume to support the operations planned. The large scale production program is being maintained in order to insure adequate supplies of specific items." ...

Priest in Eloquent Tribute To Americans

By HAL BOYLE WITH AMERICAN TROOPS IN FRANCE July 31 (Delayed) - At this warlike shrine outside of Hauteville, on the coastal road to Strozzi, a wistful American soldier in khaki and a black and white uniform followed the priest as he recited the Mass. ...

A Visit

FDR, Peddling Disaster, Promises Pacific Spurt

President Roosevelt's surprise visit in the Pacific, where he held his first wartime conference with General MacArthur and other commanders, indicates the coming of greater blows against Japan. As in the past, the big pow-wow of the President and military and naval leaders promises new activity. ...

The Peril

Soldiers Must Not Be Told American History

The handbook of Republicans and States' Rights Southern Democrats on the soldier vote locks shabbier by the day. Most vital of all, it is the fact that hundreds of thousands of soldiers will find it pretty difficult to cast their ballots—most of them, as a result, will not vote at all. ...

Merry-Go-Round

By Herbert Spang, D. D.

ADVOCATING "A return to finer femininity so that our men won't come home from the battle fronts to marry drunken, immoral women," Global-Thinkers, Inc., Mrs. Myrtle McLean, founder of Nashville, Tenn., founder, reports through the Associated Press concerning the new organization now one year old. ...

Pushed Around And Tired Of It

By Doug.

WASHINGTON (Special) - "The turning point of direct war production for manpower has been passed. With the armed forces now at peak strength, the further large releases from the munitions industries which are in prospect will be available for civilian production." ...

Everyday Counselor

By Herbert Spang, D. D.

Editor Tom Olson of NOW magazine, comments on this news release in the same fashion that "natchels" are not going to be used on women, but they will be used on men. ...

Hurry Up

The Advance On Paris Gets A Russian Spurt

Our Russian allies, as leaders in the destruction of the German armies, have every reason to hail the great British-Canadian-American successes in France. But we've fallen to wondering beyond the foggy, fighting temperately beyond the fog of the road to Paris, would react to a call from Izvestia for an all-out drive on the captive French capital. ...

Let Up

Strike Wave Presages Trouble For The Future

Without regard to the merits of individual cases in which an estimated 80,000 workers have gone on strike, it must be obvious that this strike wave is the result of a slackening of effort, this sign of victory. Further, it must be assumed that these strikes, already seriously affecting some war industries and transport systems, will increase in number as the battlefield victories pile up. ...

The Exploded Myth

By Dorothy Thompson

UNCONDITIONAL Surrender puts the future of Germany into the hands of the Allies. The general prefer this to continuing with Hitler. But their slogan is not actually "unconditional surrender," it is "unconditional surrender" with a few men, has been quelled. ...

New Tenant

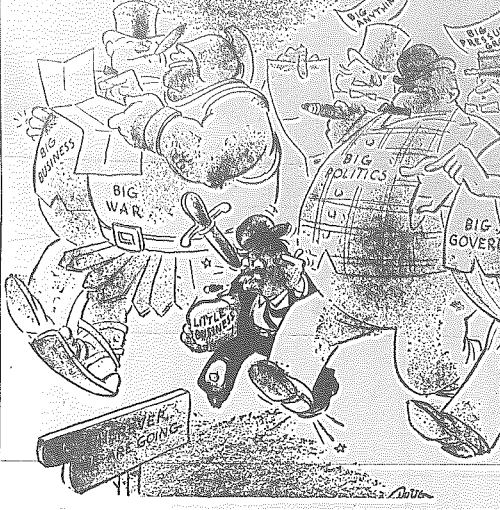

Eisenhower In France; Things Are Picking Up

The brief, simple story that General Eisenhower had moved his headquarters to France was of considerable moment. Allied commander of operations in Western Europe, with his vast offensive at last rolling swiftly ahead, can now vault the Channel and direct the invasion from the Normandy coast. ...

Pushed Around And Tired Of It

By Doug.

WASHINGTON (Special) - "The turning point of direct war production for manpower has been passed. With the armed forces now at peak strength, the further large releases from the munitions industries which are in prospect will be available for civilian production." ...

Quote, Unquote

The hatreds that arise from human competition easily shift their emotional expression from race to race, to economic class to religious affiliation, or to any handy pretext whereby an ugly sentiment or downright viciousness may be rationalized or whitewashed. -Dr. Ernest A. Hooten, Harvard anthropologist.

Everyday Counselor

By Marquis Childs

WASHINGTON (Special) - It was probably too much to expect that the unemployment problems of reconversion should be kept out of partisan politics. Unemployment is the worst enemy we have—all that to do with millions of workers and soldiers in the rear of the front lines. ...

Dangerous Politics

By Marquis Childs

WASHINGTON (Special) - It was probably too much to expect that the unemployment problems of reconversion should be kept out of partisan politics. Unemployment is the worst enemy we have—all that to do with millions of workers and soldiers in the rear of the front lines. ...

Pushed Around And Tired Of It

By Doug.

WASHINGTON (Special) - "The turning point of direct war production for manpower has been passed. With the armed forces now at peak strength, the further large releases from the munitions industries which are in prospect will be available for civilian production." ...

Everyday Counselor

By Marquis Childs

WASHINGTON (Special) - It was probably too much to expect that the unemployment problems of reconversion should be kept out of partisan politics. Unemployment is the worst enemy we have—all that to do with millions of workers and soldiers in the rear of the front lines. ...

Pushed Around And Tired Of It

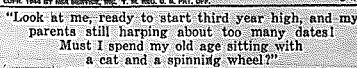

By Doug.

WASHINGTON (Special) - "The turning point of direct war production for manpower has been passed. With the armed forces now at peak strength, the further large releases from the munitions industries which are in prospect will be available for civilian production." ...

Everyday Counselor

By Marquis Childs

WASHINGTON (Special) - It was probably too much to expect that the unemployment problems of reconversion should be kept out of partisan politics. Unemployment is the worst enemy we have—all that to do with millions of workers and soldiers in the rear of the front lines. ...

"Look at me, ray to get third year high, and my parents still harping about too many dates! Must I spend my old age sitting with a cat and a spinning wheel?"

Everyday Counselor

By Herbert Spang, D. D.

ADVOCATING "A return to finer femininity so that our men won't come home from the battle fronts to marry drunken, immoral women," Global-Thinkers, Inc., Mrs. Myrtle McLean, founder of Nashville, Tenn., founder, reports through the Associated Press concerning the new organization now one year old. ...

Dangerous Politics

By Marquis Childs

WASHINGTON (Special) - It was probably too much to expect that the unemployment problems of reconversion should be kept out of partisan politics. Unemployment is the worst enemy we have—all that to do with millions of workers and soldiers in the rear of the front lines. ...

Quote, Unquote

The hatreds that arise from human competition easily shift their emotional expression from race to race, to economic class to religious affiliation, or to any handy pretext whereby an ugly sentiment or downright viciousness may be rationalized or whitewashed. -Dr. Ernest A. Hooten, Harvard anthropologist.

Everyday Counselor

By Marquis Childs

WASHINGTON (Special) - It was probably too much to expect that the unemployment problems of reconversion should be kept out of partisan politics. Unemployment is the worst enemy we have—all that to do with millions of workers and soldiers in the rear of the front lines. ...

Pushed Around And Tired Of It

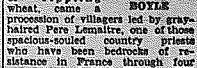

By Doug.

WASHINGTON (Special) - "The turning point of direct war production for manpower has been passed. With the armed forces now at peak strength, the further large releases from the munitions industries which are in prospect will be available for civilian production." ...

Everyday Counselor

By Marquis Childs

WASHINGTON (Special) - It was probably too much to expect that the unemployment problems of reconversion should be kept out of partisan politics. Unemployment is the worst enemy we have—all that to do with millions of workers and soldiers in the rear of the front lines. ...

"Look at me, ray to get third year high, and my parents still harping about too many dates! Must I spend my old age sitting with a cat and a spinning wheel?"

Everyday Counselor

By Herbert Spang, D. D.

ADVOCATING "A return to finer femininity so that our men won't come home from the battle fronts to marry drunken, immoral women," Global-Thinkers, Inc., Mrs. Myrtle McLean, founder of Nashville, Tenn., founder, reports through the Associated Press concerning the new organization now one year old. ...

Dangerous Politics

By Marquis Childs

WASHINGTON (Special) - It was probably too much to expect that the unemployment problems of reconversion should be kept out of partisan politics. Unemployment is the worst enemy we have—all that to do with millions of workers and soldiers in the rear of the front lines. ...

Quote, Unquote

The hatreds that arise from human competition easily shift their emotional expression from race to race, to economic class to religious affiliation, or to any handy pretext whereby an ugly sentiment or downright viciousness may be rationalized or whitewashed. -Dr. Ernest A. Hooten, Harvard anthropologist.

Everyday Counselor

By Marquis Childs

WASHINGTON (Special) - It was probably too much to expect that the unemployment problems of reconversion should be kept out of partisan politics. Unemployment is the worst enemy we have—all that to do with millions of workers and soldiers in the rear of the front lines. ...

Pushed Around And Tired Of It

By Doug.

WASHINGTON (Special) - "The turning point of direct war production for manpower has been passed. With the armed forces now at peak strength, the further large releases from the munitions industries which are in prospect will be available for civilian production." ...

Everyday Counselor

By Marquis Childs

WASHINGTON (Special) - It was probably too much to expect that the unemployment problems of reconversion should be kept out of partisan politics. Unemployment is the worst enemy we have—all that to do with millions of workers and soldiers in the rear of the front lines. ...