

Pipe Dreams

The unhappiest feature of the past year was the program the Planning Board has recommended to the city council...

John M. Scott

There was a time of confusion and confusion about John M. Scott, who died Saturday...

Diplomacy

We wondered the other day what steps this country would finally take regarding the action of the British and Dutch...

$64 Question

The House of Representatives Committee, carrying on in the business manner made famous by Martin Dies...

Statesmen At Work

REPRESENTATIVE RICH of Pennsylvania was speaking in support of an amendment to the House appropriations bill...

By Drew Pearson

HESTER BOWLES, the OPA chief, left quite a big cat out of the bag in his testimony before the Senate Banking and Currency Committee...

Congressmen in Moscow

When the House Foreign Relations Subcommittee was in Moscow...

Wilson and High Wages

Exactly one year ago, Charles E. Wilson, head of General Electric, made a speech which had national repercussions...

Speaking Of Reconversion

NATURALLY WE MUST KEEP A VIGILANT EYE ON HIS EVERY MOVEMENT...

The Bitterness Of Economic Warfare

By Marquis Childs

The Truman administration is still wrestling with the issue of how to resolve the current industrial and get production started...

Unions Are Adamant

The stand of the unions is just as adamant. The United Steel Workers of America, headed by Philip Murray...

Job of Persuasion

The job of persuasion must be done by the President himself. It will take a very hard-boiled demand plus an appeal to public opinion...

An Obvious Leak

There is a certain humor in their indignation and surprise to hear of a member of the Advisory Board...

Washington

The United Electrical Workers in Fort Wayne, Ind., have been negotiating with Wilson for months to secure a minimum rate of 72 cents an hour...

In Erie, Pa., he has already started making peace-time refrigerators, but, contrary to Wilson's speech...

Note—United Electrical Workers have one of the best records of workers who have been granted by Secretary of War Patterson...

The White House is quietly passing the word around to newsmen not to pack their bags...

Exactly one year ago, Charles E. Wilson, head of General Electric, made a speech which had national repercussions...

AND IT WILL BE A GOOD IDEA TO KEEP THE SOCIAL WATER TIGHTER HELD DOWN...

AND PERHAPS BLOW UP HIS WAR PLANTS...

AND TURN THE MILLIONS OF SOLDIERS INTO FARMERS...

BUT THE REAL THREAT OF FUTURE AGGRESSION IS HERE...

WHAT IF ANYTHING CAN WE DO ABOUT IT?

GERMAN THINKING

NEW METROPS OF WAGING WARS

"Yeah—it would be nice if we could get out and home while we were still heroes."

Out Of Proportion

By Samuel Crafton

THE trouble with holding a great national debate on universal military training at this time...

Some of the same papers which used to make gloomily that Mr. Truman was leaving the box in the Army...

THE SIMPLE DAYS

Yet there is probably no help for it. The months ahead will be a struggle of positions...

ISOLATIONISTS APPROVE

It is not for nothing that the remnants of the isolationist press have fallen upon the prospect...

PROPER SCALE

Could it make well and desirable also but the warning must be offered that there is nothing in it which can provide a cooling...

People's Platform

By F. D. Patterson

The impetuosity of widespread mechanization in cotton production...

The Dog-Lovers And The Jap-Haters Deserted Us

By J. M. Shields

As a rule I check the "Platform" daily, and my astonishment...

Dr. McCarty Considers

By G. S. McCarty

"The Merry-Go-Round" by Drew Pearson in the Aug. 23 issue...

Quote, Unquote

THE wheels of the new world will spin and speak with the back of full 100 per cent...

The efforts of live and live in stride in this country despite...

NOTE: The column referred to consists of a number of the strange conduct of high-ranking...

NOTE: The column referred to consists of a number of the strange conduct of high-ranking...