On Sharing The Atom

erve certain temporary advantages the nations that created the first for the nations that the essential for-fission. In offering to share the essential for-mulas that enabled us to harness atomic energy that a substantial expension of the results who have warned from the spenning that they couldn't be kept se-cret, and our energeity was get bridged by our stated intention to keep server the manufacturing precesses, without which the formulas are of little imme-diate value.

The Joint statement issued systerday by President Truman and Prime Ministers Attlee and MacKenzie Kine will not lay the grimacing phost of the spitiation, but it gives rise to hope that we stom, but it gives rise to hope that we stom, but it gives rise to hope that we stom, but it gives rise to hope that we may be stome the statement of the statement as disappeared. The three statement man disappeared. The three statement man disappeared. The three statement as eat forth a policy that could, if rathfully followed, eventually make the atomic bomb an instrument of peace. The Russians, we suspect, will not recard the statement too kindly. They are already suspicious, and, without a bomb to their name, uneasy, and they will look askance upon those provisions which reserve certain temporary advantages.

thich the formulas are of hitle imme-late value.

But this time the door to the future that it was made in the right direc-

A Note Of Appreciation

d. onductor could afford to be pre-satisfied.

No conductor could afford to be pretentious in the strange surroundings of the Armor, a structure endoaced with all the acoustical properties of a bowling alley, and Guy Hutchins was not deluded by the flapping of his ital coat around his knees. He is a man of considerable vipor, who moves among his musicians after the manner of a football ceach at the half, and veteran concert-goers found that his energy had worked a minor miracle.

Mr. Hutchins has no respect for the traditions of his profession; there is no traditions of his profession; there is no grandeur about him, no inaccessible and grandeur about him. no inaccession and superior-solution: he creates no yawning gulf between the podium and the audience. When there was a considerable delay at the start of the concert he did not leave the music lovers wondering if a stagethand had failen through the kettledrum—he announced that he was waiting for a tardy minister who was waiting for a tardy minister who was scheduled to open the proceedings

Our muste critic has provided timely comment on the season's openine performance of the Charlette Symphony Orchestra, and we have no intention of infringing upon her esoteric domain. But the concert impressed us as a ration. But the concert impressed us as a ration. There were, we suppose, certain technical imperfections in the performance, but there was an informality and a warmth about the proceedings that more than offset them. Everybody who attended, whether score-holding longhair or rejuctant husband, came away satisfied.

No conductor could afford to be pre-abriptly and the defended of the state over."

It may be, when Charlotte's great new auditorium is at last a fact, that the musicians will be able to seat them-selves high above the audience while Mr. Hutchiabs over the audience while high the state of the state of long as its existence depends solely upon the artistic inclination of its members. The community has been niggardly in support of the Charlotte Symphony, but despite all its handicaps. financial and otherwise, the orchestra keeps its stangards high. The musicians will continue to play, we suppose, even if nody comes to listen, but it seems a shame that so few turn out to hear their excellent music, and to render the appliance they so richly deserve.

Esitaph For The Sixth Army

fighting unit is the order to disband, official acknowledgement that its job is done. This is the only tribute being paid to the deactivated Sixth United States

The final accolate for an American ighting unit is the order to dishand, oficial acknowledgement that its job is one. This is the only tribute being paid on the deactivated Sixth United States from; nobody, so far as we know, has aused to shed a teror or lol a drum. The Sixth has carned a more fitting bituary, for the men who served in its rote a great chapter in the history of unrelican arms. They are the men who ame early and stayed late, the inex-presenced Guardsmen and draftees with heir leavening of resulars who came their leavening of resulars who came inder the command of Walter Krueers, tight-faced, old soldier's soldier who have a handed the war's toughest assistance, the first and the histories But the men of the Sixth will not be able to forget the long, heart-breaking road they rever satisfaction derives from the knowly ever satisfaction derives from the knowly as a supplied to the profile a ratin and the heat, and the war's results of the sixth will not be able to forget the long. Heart-breaking road they rever satisfaction derives from the knowly as a supplied to the sixth will not be able to forget the long. Heart-breaking road they rever satisfaction derives from the knowly as the supplied to the sixth will not be able to forget the long. Heart-breaking road they rever satisfaction derives from the knowly as the supplied to the sixth will not be able to forget the long. Heart-breaking road they rever satisfaction derives from the knowly as the supplied to the sixth will not be able to forget the long. Heart-breaking road they rever such as the supplied to the sixth will not be able to forget the late of the sixth will not be able to forget the late of the sixth will not be able to forget the late of the sixth will not be able to forget the late of the sixth will not be able to forget the late of the sixth will not be able to forget the late of the sixth will not be able to forget the late of the sixth will not be able to forget the late of the sixth will not be able to forget the late of the six to the deactivated Sixth United States Army; nobody, so far as we know, has paused to shed a tear or roll a drum. The Sixth has earned a more fitting obituary, for the men who served in it wrote a great chapter in the history of American arms. They are the men who came early and stayed late, the inexperienced Ouardsmen and drafters with their leavening of resulars who came under the command of Waiter Krueser, a tight-faced, old soldier's soldier who was handed the war's tounhest assignment. He led his troops step by step across the chain of Southwest Pacific Islands; the Sixth became the eternal spearhead, claims its way across the broad beaches and paying with its blood for the little, Individually unimportant atolls that had to fall before General MacArthur's master plan could take MacArthur's master plan could take shape.

After the mid-point of the Pacific The Sixth Army has earned the peace war, when the Navy had gained control of oblivion, and our eternal gratitude.

smell of death. And they will have whatever satisfaction derives from the knowledge that their remote war called for the last measure of fortitude, for they fought in the face of imminent defeat, without the buoyant certainty of eventual victory, and their outmoded weapons would have seemed primitive to great armies that won the victory in Europe.

The Sixth Army the second of the second con-

From The Washington Post:

The Elephantine Outlook

The current issue of the Republican News, official organ of the national committee, is just to hand, and under the caption, "It's Fun to Berseident," we note a front-pase article set in parallel columns titled "Truman's My Day," on the one hand and "A Citizen's Diary" on the one hand and "A Citizen's Diary" on the one hand and "A Citizen's Diary" on the other the publication endeavors to show—we suppose—that Mr. Truman is frittering away his time while the Nation burns.

Morally, this is, perhaps, per above the party's recent efforts to prove that the late Powerful Hollers table in the Party of the Powerful Hollers table in the Party is recent efforts to prove that the late Powerful Hollers table in the Party is recent efforts to prove that the late Powerful Hollers table in the province of the province ation burns. .

This is meant to be comical, so we'll tutions, marriage, county fairs and poker.

Morally, this is, perhaps, peg above the party's recent efforts to prove that the late President Roosevelt deliberately invited the Japanese to destroy the United States Navy at Pearl Harbor. Bul, politically, it, is unlikely to prove any more effective for the simple reason that it is equally nonsensical. Whatever Mr. Truman's shortcomings, he has shown no lack of conscientiousness about his job.
The GOP is likely to be no more 'successful in the future than it has been throughout the past decade if it per-This is meant to be comical, so we'll give you a sample in order to let you ahare in the elephantine mith. The GOP version of the President's diary for Saturday, October 6, starts off as follows: "Motored to Berryville, Va. for Bennett Clark's marriage to Actress Viole Hemming, Took part as best man. Back to Capital where three Government planes formed air party for a Missouri week-end-to-see Caruthersville County Fair." Smooth trip: slept and played poker: "Since Caruthersville County Fair." Smooth trip: slept and played poker: "Since the imaginary citizen whose diary for the same day appears contiguously is coherened exclusively with

The Merry-Go-Round

Within Admiral Dewy returned triumphant from espations of the philippines in the Spanish-American War, newsmen asked the conquering hero whether he was a Democrate or a Republican. The Admiral waspi quite sure which. That ended the Dewy soom for Bendeent, perhaps the greatest all-round commander this country has seen in two decades, has returned and may be put in the same position as Admiral Dewey, being the perhaps the greatest all-round commander this country has seen in two decades, has returned and may be put in the same position as Admiral Dewey, blood for 1948. GOP leaders are convinced that, given a candidate who can win labor votes yet not alienate with the same position of the 1948. GOP leaders are convinced that, given a candidate who can win labor votes yet not alienate with the same position of the 1948. GOP leaders, which was a position of the 1949. Gop Senton Joseph P. Bristow. And nobody in those days could get anywhere in Kansas unless he was a Republican. But the same yet has been to GOP leaders. Dwight Elsenhower put himself on record early in life as a Democrat. Furthermore, he was an energetic William Jennings Bryan Democrate, and in November 1969 made a speech at the annual Democratic banques held in decade and the same position of the same position of the same position of the same position of the position of the position of the same position of the sa

Ike's Old Friend

I am indebted for this information to J. W. Howe of Emporia, Kaus. Howe not only published the Ablene News, but was a member of the school board and knew young Dwight better than anyone outside his own family.

youne Delight better han anyone outside his own family.

The Abliene News office was headquarters for a group of high school how who came there to discuss a form of the school how the school has a whole there to discuss and do edd Jobs for the paper. It w. Howe any of the school has been been supported to the school of the paper. It were the school of the school of the paper. It were the school of the sch

Dwight Got to West Point The Eisenhower family had no political pull-on contrary, Dwight's father was listed as a Demo-crai, hough he took little part in politics. Dwight himcrai, hough he took with the part in politics. Dwight himcrai, hough the pearson with the pearson of the control of the control republican fight helped him., Editor Howe, the towns chief Democrate leader, advised Dwight to go get the solid Democrate leader, advised Dwight to go get the solid pearson of the editor of the Abliene

Pearson

Chronicle and spotesman for the editor of the Abliene
Chronicle and spotesman for the editor of the Abliene
Chronicle and spotesman for the editor of the Abliene
Since young Estenberg was not allied with either faction. Heath and Harger were very friendly, and gladly gave him their support. Thus, he was able to obtain not only the endorsement of the Democrats but standing in the community.

Eisenhower's first and only venture into politics occurred while he was taking post-graduate work at the Abliene High School, preparatory to West Point, Chief Addges, later Governor of Kanasa. Dwight's subject was "The Student in Politics."

Ike's First Speech

Ike's First Speech

Two themes ran through the speech of the nineteenyear-old future commander of the Allied armies in Burope-preparedness shad helping the under-dog.

"There is an old prover," the young orator told his audience of Democrats, "that says is the twig is inclined, so the tree is bent." A man ster voting the straight ticket for several elections seldom changes from one side to the other.

How the other of the other of the other of the other, now going on in the Republican Party. One known is selded the "square-dealers, insurgents, and reformers."

Although these men are loud in their denunciation of Cannon, Aldrich, and a few others who are hide-bound party men, set they reture to join any other party and at obetion vote the Republican ticker.

"But nowthstanging such reasoning as an admira-tion of fair play, the parental vote and the like, a man's first vote generally is cast correctly. He has arrived at an age of great self-confidence and has acquired a feel-ing of self-importance, for he figures that he will be about one-fifteenth of a millionth part of the vote of

"Sometimes I Wish I'd Never Discovered It!"

U. S. Delay Adds To Europe's Miseries

It is gambling that Europe will not lapse into sanchy or totalltarianism. Altogether, it is the most shocking example of the dilatory indifference to Lace the crisis of our time.

The United States own SUNRRA, an international organization, $536-000,000 which UNRRA had counted on for use in the early Winter. The House took an unconscionable time thouse took an unconscionable time by slow motion, it is proceeding through the Senale Appropriations Committee.

For lack of funds. UNRRA has canceled $50,000,000 in rehabilitation supplies that had already been arrown to the control of the c

Canceled Purchases

WASHINGTON that renow on a pasine basis. France. Belgium, Holland and Norway are busine tood and supplies to a storage of the dilute of Congress to appropriate funds already authorized.

The Army Helps
The countries dependent on UNRRA—Inly, Greece, Albania, Polinies for a mother to the state of the dilute of

And Further Delays

Grin And Bear It

"—And in view of the difficulties of getting a bill to satisfy either side, I propose a resolution to change the subject!"

Why Not A Referendum?

AN EMPTY AGREEMENT

Control of a world governs
A NEGATIVE MATTER
That matter was negative San Francisco. It is negatived in Panagement

By Lichty

The People's Platform

The Negro Veterans

By THOMAS E. WOOD SR.

Research Director, National Council of Negro Veterans, We have now Birmuncham. Also We have now Birmuncham. Also We have now Birmuncham. Also Negro Est-Service and and State of the Negro Est-Service and Council of Negro Est-Service and Council of Negro Veterans Inc.

The personnel of the mranization is commoned of Negro menuscoled of Negro menuscoled Negro March 1 and truest sense that the word implies as fishers of yester-very builders of today and guardians of the future.

If we are in for a great era of industrial prosperity, we may be sure that men will not hang around the grocery store on a mere $20 to $25 weekly (in unemployment compensation),—Li.-Gov. Wilbert Snow of Connecticut.