Programs Far Ahead Of Schedule
Must Continue To Hold Line
WASHINGTON—(AP)—President Truman said today that the Administration has not been asleep on the job of reconversion...

Hold The Line
The President made this comment at a news conference, in releasing a formal statement dealing with the first hundred days of reconversion progress.

While the President in his statement spoke cheerfully of what has been accomplished, he declared that "inflationary pressures are still great, and danger still points to a further building up through winter and spring of the rise of real estate, wholesale and raw material prices."

Truman's interim report on reconversion was in sharp contrast with the general pessimism in the capital that the Labor-Management Conference would produce major results in the direction of reconversion program enters its second year.

Summarizing the situation in Germany in October, before he left to become Chief of Staff of the U. S. Army, Eisenhower cited the "potential dangers of unrest and disease this winter."

The Indianapolis Tragedy
Skipper Of Lost Cruiser Faces Navy Trial Monday
By MORRIE LANDSBERG
TOKYO—(AP)—What caused the sinking of the heavy cruiser Indianapolis with the loss of 880 lives from the crew of 1,198 men?

WEST DOWN EAST
The Indianapolis sank down in fifteen nightmarish minutes, her short, slender skipper told me Aug. 3, their fourth day adrift—and then by a plane not looking for them—obviously contributed to the heavy death toll.
