WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 26, 1945

Joe Ervin

tee Fredn's strange untimely death in Washington yesterday lent tragic accent to Christmas for thousands of North inians who knew and respected

The Congressman at the beginning of a career in national politics after two decades devoted to the practice of law and to public service in Chariotic, had acquitted, himself well during his first term, so well he seemed virtually assured of reelection without serious opposition next Summer.

position next summer.

His tireless devotion to the affairs, of this constituents, and his earnest approach to national problems, had earned him the respect of his colleagues. Joe's the hardest-working young fellow we've got up here." Representative Doughton, each of the North Carolina delegation, and. No freshman Congressman attracts most of his fellow first-termers.

The spectacular manner of his death is likely to becloud the fact that his passing is a real tragedy for Mecklenburg. His services to this county, as ettizen, attorney and minor office-holder, were many and varied. And after he was elevated to the Congress he remained as available as ever; it was his practice to establish a sort of open court when visiting Charlotte and to hear every constituent who cared to talk about his troubles. about his troubles.

Congress as a most promising one, and had looked forward to its fruiful development. Now we can only hope that he found the peace he sought, and express here our deep appreciation for his past services.

A Lonely Christmas

All through this holder we have been haunted by a vision of little Jimmy Byrnes in Moscow, far from his own hearth at Christmas time and weighed down with the heavy responsibility that took him away from Carolina at this sentimental season.

There is a striking parallel between the three Foreign Ministers and the three Wise Men; they all came seeking as better word, and it Messas. Byrnes, Molotov and Bevin can arrive at hope for peace they will have done almost as well as those who came to Bethlehem.

We have had little news of the con-ference; about all the correspondents could get through the veil of Russian emosorship was an intimation of their own optimism. We do know, however, that several urgent matters were on the roster—the atom, control of Germany, settlement of a good many of the tender territorial differences in Central Europe.

passagers do, giving filzy cocktain parties for upper-crust old ladies and other has-beens. Our diplomats have got to go out and talk to the real folks that make up the backbone of the country.

This is not had a theory far deeper.

Jimmy Byrnes has an opportunity to bring home with him the finest Christmas present his country ever had—agreements that will serve as the beginning of a real Big Three accord. And it would, of course, also be a Christmas present for all the world for there can be no peace, nor any hope of peace, until the Big Three regain the unity that brought them so recently to victory.

can't make war on you. The people won't let 'em.

Take, for Instance, the case of Joe Stafin in 1982 and 'Garciane we didn't start a second front, he kept hinting second front, he kept hinting second front, he kept hinting peace with Germany. U. S. advisers were worried about this, But Churchill waan't. Be kept telling Roosevet the kept telling Roosevet the world that Stalin would make world that Stalin would make world that Stalin would make wouldn't let him. It would would be the separate peace with Germany because the Russian people wouldn't let him. It would make the second of office overnight.

he kicked out of office overnight.

Take some other cases nearer home. We and our Pan-American home of the control of the control
her to the control
her to the world partiy
because we have a free press and can mold public opinion. Several times within the last decade. On home or twee their armies actually started to march. But their neighbors all sat round the ring, held on to their coat-tails, and fanned public opinion into a hot fame against time foolishness of war. In erals, who were the only ones who
erals, who were the only ones who take a back seat.

SHRT-SLEEVE DIPLOMACY

all, they mobilized public opinion against wai. Another size which General Another size of the first size of the s nasat oeen any trouble since.

In other words, if the people of one couuntry like and understand the people of another, no Government or dictator or clique of generals can push them into war.

SOVIET FEARS DEMOCRACY

SOVER FEARS DEMOCRACY
That brings us back to the allthe street of the street of the

Christ Pointed The Way To A Lasting Peace

COME people. If they have read Christiantic into the Christiantic into the Ave concluded from the question of peace. Perhaps they are right. In that connection to a religious group, the control of a religious group, the control of the control of the doctrine of peace.

With wars'

With the wars'

With the war a Man who went out and worked at His religion. He didn't stay in one place. He didn't the His candlestick under h bushed of peace on earth, good will toward men that eventually He sacrificed His life. He had what He thought was and hight trying to sell.

Now we in this country have a great form of Government and a great basic concept of getting along we went out as Christ did and tried to sell our American religion.

SELLING THE IBES.

SELLING THE IDEA
We can't sit passive in big, ornate houses as most of our Ambassadors do, giving ritzy cocktail

This is not just a theory. It works out in practice that when the people of a country are behind you, and don't have to worry about their Government, their Government, even an out-and-out dictatorablp, can't make war on you. The people won't let 'em.

SHIRT-SLEEVE DIPLOMACY
This took a lot of hard, skillful work. The men who did it—so the state of the state

ward their neighbors.

Of course, I may be crazy and a chronic liar but anyway this is my small Christmas contribution to the goal of a warless world which I am convinced is quite possible of attainment.

Along About 1975

Dorothy Thompson

The Star Was An Atomic Bomb

Will to all men."

But:
"Here night descends. Everywhere starvation, disease, experience of the control of the

The simple people among whom He was born and grew up thought the fulfillment of Isaiah was at hand.

the fulfillment of Issiah was at hand.

For unto us a Child is born, Unto us a Son is given, India to the John Market of the Land His mane shall be railed Wonderful Counsellor, the Mighty God, the Everlasting Pather. The Prince of Peace. Men disputed about the story, and the Land of the Land o THE GREAT COLLAPSE

THE GREAT COLLAPSE
When the great collapse came,
the greatest ever until now, the despised Christians saved what there was to save and when the dark lifted the age of Christendom came.
There were no nations, there was Christendom, and the early and

There were no nations, there was Christendom, and the early and middle part of the age was great—and middle part of the age was great—perhaps the greatest—multi corruption stole in, and war and the Black Death corroled the social fabric and the architecture was the control of the social fabric and the properties of the social fabric and the architecture were many sorts of Christimas.

But the story persisted and the control of the social fabric was the social fabric and the social fabric was the social fabric and the social fabric was the socia

WE HAVE celebrated a spendwith the control of the SECULÁR THEOCRATS were burned and people butchered, more was needed than a material cred. All material things were lost, all suffering was equal.

Then it the Image were an Then it the Image were an Then it the Image were an Followship path. It was, and is, the Formise.

On the birthday of seasons there were not stables and caver, of mothers who had nowhere to lay their heads, and there was no one in the air or start in the sky. And turned our faces from it. We bought out all the stores; we lightness of the stables and the season of the control of the stable and the goale of jove.

STRANGE CHRISTMAS

SECULAR THEOCRATS
Strong rulers, the secular theocrats, were ever afraid of that Image. When Hitler put up gas chambers he had to indoctrinate routins actively to ascorn the Image as the second of the Image as the Image

From The Saturday Review:

To Fit The Crime

HOW GREAT a poet was Ezra

Pound is open to question.

Some of his poems belong to the permanent literature of the United States—a country which for many years he has attacked ignorantly and with contempt. Yet the false scholarship, the excessive eccentricity, and the confused thought and emotion of much of his poelical work show something less tions creations. As a tentilician and prophet, he foresaw in the cart injectes hundred the confused thought are the confused thought
and prophet, he foresaw in the cart injectes. As a tentilician,
and prophet, he foresaw in the cart injectes hundred the trutter in
and prophet, he foresaw in the
cart injectes hundreds the trutter in
and problet, he foresaw in the
cart injectes hundreds the trutter in what was then the future. Unquestionable he was powerful in what was then the future. Unquestionable he was powerful in powerful in pounds punishment should for HOW GREAT a poet was Erra Pound is open to question. Some of his poems belong to the permanent literature of the United States—a country which for many years he has attacked ignorantly and with contempt. Yet the false scholarship, the excessive eccentricity, and the confused thought and with contempt. Yet the false scholarship, the excessive eccentricity, and the confused thought and with contempt. As a fetchinician, he was superb. As literary ploneer and prophet, he foresaw in the results of the false of the property of the false o a world order in which Mussolinis and Exra Pounds could satisfy their send Exra Pounds could satisfy their send Exra Pounds of the Send Exra Pound of the broadcasts, the prose pamber of the Pounds of the Proadcasts, the prose pambidle and mediocre mind, easily deluded by childish fallacies in sovernment and ecoponics. And specially from wishful thinking, He was, as many unpublished documents, and some published ones, without discrimination, obseene, without discrimination, obseene, and mendadous in his language to a degree that in a less scientific country to the sending the send only the send of the send only the send only the send only the send of the send only the send of the se

not the right punish-muddled mind whose

Old School Tie

Margule Childs

In The G.O.P.

No Christmas gift could mean more to the ration than a new and coursecous leadership for the Republican Party. In the nation than a new and coursecous leadership for the Republican Party. In the national stocking that The two-party system is vital to our political well the could worry sines we could worry sines with the striking difference of those famous twine. Tweedledum and Twee of entode lands with the deep control of the contro GOOD MATERIAL

What makes this seem even sadder is that there is akeed the seem even sadder is that there is a seem even sadder is the there is a seem even sadder in the seem even seem to see the seem of a revolt within the Repulsian Party has a man who could lead that revolt. Under former Governor and former Cape. Havoid many the seem of the

who are determined to keep any program within narrow bounds.

TASSENOPPORTUNITY

This is the opportunity for a young leader like Stassen who is not handleaped by prelike Stassen who is not handleaped by prethe stassen who is not handleaped by the state of the state of

Samuel Grafton

Preparing To Miss A Bus

IT looks as if one of the roughest and wildrest debates this country has ever seen is happing up for along about next April of set. for an emergency, we are preparing a predicament for ourselves. Free all of the gowers the Preall of the gowers the Predefined against improvident use of coppiration out for at least to guite clear that Congress intends to all the statustion out for at least to guite clear that Congress intends to a fact the statustion out for at least
to guite clear that Congress intends to a fact the statustion out for at least
to guite clear that Congress intends to a fact the statustion out for at least
to guite clear that Congress intends to a fact the statustion out for at least to guite clear that Congress intends to take the Issues up
only at the eleventh hour, when a fumble
poses to take the Issues up
only at the eleventh hour, when a fumble
to guite the predefined the prestatustion out for at least to guite the prestat

ANOTHER DEADLINE

entirely until the question were resolved.

ANOTHER DEADLINE

Along with price control, the President's general priorities powers are scheduled to die on June 30. They were originally set to end on Dec. 31 or this year and have been to the past lew days, one more indication of how past lew days; one more indication of how past lew days; one more indication of how congress favors the last minute, or skin-of-your-teeth approach to those basic questions. The Administration had asked for a year's additional time, but Senator Taft led the fight to make it is xin nonths, and won with the hip portion of the senator that the process of the property of the property of the process of the property of the process of the process say, but while it is all very well for Congress to, say it will watch business trend, and be guided accordingly, the truth of the guided accordingly witches Congress and is guided accordingly.

If builders, for example, feel that Congress is notifie to the priorities powers which the into lower-cost homes) they may spend the next four months arguing against priorities, instead of building; whereas if the priorities maked of building; whereas if the priorities maked of building; whereas if the strength of the months arguing against priorities, instead of building; whereas if the strength of the priorities of the strength of the str they'll have some new cars on the road in '46-everybody drivin' so slow and careful, can't make a livin' no more!"

"Goering told Mussolini that the Luft-waffe would crush England." Little by little, one comes to understand what made the late Duce's eyes bulge.

From this precedent the Governor-ex-much attention in Washington, but Joe Ervin had done as well or better than most of his fellow first-termers.

tween Russia on one side and the United States and Britain on the other. But if, sitting down together at Christmastime, the Foreign Ministers can work out so-lutions to the surface problems that All through this holiday we have been lutions to the surface problems that have divided us, there will be reason to hope that we are on our way to dis-solving those basic differences that lic

We have had little news of the con-

Even if the Foreign Ministers agree all the way down the line, there will still remain a great area of disagreement be-

Out Of The Groves The atom apparently started it. At any tion throughout the state and whipping The atom apparently started it. At any rate scientists are bursting out of their ivery towers and smelly laboratories the length and the breadth of the land, saking speeches, organizing committees, testifying before Congressional investigators, writing letters to the editor, even buttonholing strangers in bars. up support for a separation of Game and Fisheries. That, according to the Association's President Page, was what he was hired for, and what the College understood he would do.

far deeper.

Well, it's a quite a little controversy, certain to involve the question of Mr. Stevens' academic freedom before it's over. Who is to draw the line? Certainly This is a slightly shocking spectacle, of course, for Americans have long been taught that the professors are dreamy fellows, capable of splitting an atom, perhaps, but certain to get lost if allowed to go downtown alone. University executives are not prepared to cope with this strange and frightening predelication for public debate, and some, at least, are looking upon their released charges with horror. Stevens' academic literance.

over, Who is to draw the line? Certainly Mr. Stevens would enter without hesiation into a learned debate with his colleagues over the ancestry of the redpreasted littee and no Chancellor living would dare question his right to do so,
Is it, then, out of his province to work
for what seems to him a better system
of protecting the state's widdlife?

It seems such a simple problem when

It seems such a simple problem when it is set down in words, and yet It is so terribly difficult. for agreement involves the mutual yielding of that sowerightly which nations have always cherished. We doubt if this has been a merry Christmas for Jimmy Byrnes. for he must have heard the words of the old carol: "The hopes and fears of all the years are met in thee tonight..."

We don't know, and we'd hate to have to hand down a final opinion. But we-are certain that there will be more and more professorial controversies as time more professorial controversies as time goes on. It inn't very logical to lock away on a campus the men who have devoted their lives to gathering information on subjects that turn up at the center of raging public debates. On the other hand, it is important to keep the professors free of political pressure, and, when they step outside their cells they are immediately subjected to it.

are immediately subjected to it.

The matter, we think, will finally be solved by the scientists themselves. Already they show a marked apitude for controversy, and a good many of them seem to enjoy it. We doubt if they will ever be cornered and locked away on the-hill again, and we are delighted to see them coming down to breathe the tainted, controversial air that prevails down here in the bottomland.

It seems, however, that Mr. Stevens has spent his time organizing chapters of the North Carolina Wildlife Associa-

It has nothing to do with the atom, of course, but a North Carolina professor seems to have talked himself into the bad graces of his college administration. Ross Steven, a North Carolina State biologist on leave, has been ordered by State's Chancellor, J. H. Harrelson, to State's Chancellor, J. H. Harreison, to cease and desist from participation in the controversy centering around a pro-posal to remove the Division of Game and Inland Fisheries from the Depart-ment of Conservation and Development.

In a rather hurt tone, the Chancellor remarked: "Stevens was given a leave of absence to assist with the game program in North Carolina. It was our understanding he would serve in the capacity of biologist."

From The Asheville Citizen: A Child And Society

Governor Cherry assumes full responsibility for the case of Ernest Brooks in the light of my best judgment.

In that inercital judgment, we think for Larolling will fully concur. Ernest was 13 days less than 15 years old when he committed a crime particularly heinals in the mores of this State. He was convicted and sentenced to die. The Governor's timely intercession commutes the death sentence to life imprisonment.

stern in larger aspects than the indict-ment which society first brought against Ernest Brooks. The State cannot execute a child, but it must imprison him for life. What can it do in enlightened best judgment to salvage the other Ernests whom crime may beckon and destroy? This Negro boy from New Hanover County is truly a case study in the record of one of society's failings. The rapist and burglar gets short shrift from the laws which govern the conduct of men. But when a child stumbles into waywardness, where is the blame?

A couple of atoms were discussing a third who had dropped out of sight. "I wonder," one suggested, "if he's gone fission." waywarnness, where is the blame?

Last April Governor Cherry comsuited the death sentence of an Alexinder County white youth of tender se who had shot and killed a law ensection of the county of the county to the time: "I do not feel that the State North Cavolina should execute a siled, we cannot hold him to the same signes of responsibility to which we cole an adult." A voice on the bus: "For Christmas I always buy him a necktie like the one he has on, and in 25 years have had no complaints."