Savage Aerial Blows Lash Routed German Armies In Palatinate

By JAMES M. LONG

PARIS—(AP)—An estimated 80,000 Germans ran for the Rhine today in desperate daylight retreat under perfect strafing weather which turned the northern half of the Bavarian Palatinate into a slaughter ground and the rich Saarland into a death trap.

Swift tank and infantry columns of the Third and Soventh Armies surged within 15 miles of each other between St. Wendel and the Zweibruecken areas of the Saarland and within 42 miles of a junction farther east in the
