L. V. Wells Joins Iveys

Appointment of L. V. Wells, widely known in Carolina financial and commercial affairs, as director of publicity and information for the Iveys store organization and his position as executive secretary of the Charlotte Merchants Association were announced today. Mr. Wells recently submitted resignation, and the board of the association's directors has accepted of Mr. Wells' resignation. He will remain in his present position until the association's next meeting, after which he will be familiarized with the duties.

Details of the plans the Iveys organization has developed for activity by Mr. Wells will be made public soon, according to a report obtained by telephone from George M. Iveys, secretary and treasurer of this widely operating department store organization, and W. T. Bulice, general manager, who were in Greenville, S.C. Mr. Wells' duties are operated by the Iveys interests in Charlotte, Asheville, Greenville, Spartanburg, and other South Carolina cities.

Fateful War Week

Death Of FDR Veils Near End Of Nazism

By J. A. DALY
Charlotte News Staff Writer

Washington, London and Moscow officially predicted that World War II in Europe will end a few days hence and, as the week ended, America mourned the sudden death of President Roosevelt on the eve of the United Nations conference at Dumbarton Oaks.

'Y' Board In Meeting

The board of directors of the Charlotte YMCA met last night at the home of President Frank Dowd to appoint committee chairman for the coming year, and to discuss the 1943 membership campaign which begins the middle of May.

Committee chairman, appointed to serve the next year, are as follows:

O. D. Aiken, physical education; Dr. Smith, boys work; E. R. Hester, budget; Mr. Barnard, finance; Dr. Hart, health club; Mr. Everett, membership; Mr. Hester, Francis O. Clarkson, building; L. L. Jones, education; George Patterson, public affairs; Frank Sharp, religious; Edwin L. Jones, chairman, and Frank Matthews, co-chairman. Mr. Dowd will serve as chairman of the executive committee.
