

The Merry-Go-Round

By Drew Pearson

WHEN Tom Clark was called to the White House and told by President Truman that he was to be the next attorney general...

by demanding that Negro attorneys be admitted to membership. Politicians Lick Chops

Long Line of Lawyers Of the four Cabinet appointments Truman has made public attention unquestionably has focused more on this than any other.

Boodie Hopes Hong High "On May 23, 1945 President Truman appointed the Honorable Tom Clark of Texas as Attorney General of the United States."

Mean Is Right Strikes us that the Weather Man has been somewhat of a favorite of his followers this Spring. It was only a few weeks after Christmas that he blanketed us with a whole flock of bright, happy days.

What Is This "Road to Serfdom"? DURING the era of the New Deal, big business men cherished a hurt feeling that no one appreciated them perhaps so fully as they have taken up with such enthusiasm an article which seems to champion them.

Statesmen At Work SEN. LANGER (R-D) Mr. President it seems to me that this is again as good a time as any to bring to the attention of the Senate the question of the American Indian.

Quote, Unquote WE'VE found that both the big Wall Street market operators and the small speculators have been a little nervous about the market situation.

Who's Protected? In all the high-faloot and fine-spin arguments of reciprocal trade agreements even as the House gets the approval to the program, we have not heard one, which gets down to brass tacks.
