

Vital Price Vote Ahead

By WILLIAM T. PEACOCK
WASHINGTON (AP)—Administration forces today count the return of absent Senators for a vital vote Monday on price controls. They claimed the vote-declaring a proposed price-fixing bill. The bill would give the administrator Chester Bowles said would bring inflation. Nevertheless they back for the test.

On The Markets

Cotton Extends Gain; Stock Trends Mixed
NEW YORK—Cotton futures led over a slightly irregular day in today's market with scattered gains of one-half to one cent. Many traders did little or nothing. Mild bidding still was based on hopes of a long-time prosperity and the belief that recovery plans would be less than most anticipated. Selling persisted, however, because of apprehension over possible Washington moves to stem speculation and confusion regarding international affairs which, it was felt, could have market repercussions.

Grains Nervous

CHICAGO—Grain markets were firm to strong today, but during the last half hour wheat prices dropped from one to two cents a bushel since harvest index selling and profit taking. Offerings were heavy in most other markets and late moves were not seriously affected by the break in wheat.

Trial Draft Plan Urged

WASHINGTON (AP)—The House today urged a trial draft plan for the administration. The plan would require a one-year extension without change of the present system of raising the number of men to be drafted to 300,000.

Bond Drive

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Treasury today announced a bond drive to raise $100 million for the war effort.

Reshuffling

WASHINGTON (AP)—The State Department today announced a reshuffling of its personnel.

United Nations Session Open To Public & Press

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—The United Nations General Assembly today opened its session to the public and the press.

April Accidents Claim 23 Lives

WASHINGTON (AP)—A total of 23 lives were claimed in April by accidents involving motor vehicles.

Yanceyville OPA Office Robbed

YANCEYVILLE, N.C. (AP)—An office of the Office of Price Administration was robbed today.

Over Half Of Marines On Okinawa Buy Bonds

WASHINGTON (AP)—Over half of the Marines on Okinawa have bought war bonds.
