

A Start

Anybody who expects slum-elimination to come about overnight, or even next week, because of the writing of new ordinances...

Same Old Georgia

Georgia, despite all the nice things that Governor Eli Arnall has had to say about it...

Not long ago the State drew up and submitted to the people, all under Governor Arnall's sponsorship, a new constitution...

It was a Negro, to be sure, and the election was a democratic primary...

It is to be called a Great Day when a community rises up on its hind legs and declares that it will no longer allow...

The intent to do away with slums is, we believe, of even greater importance than the actual means into which it is translated...

The Army Way

It would be most unfortunate if the question of discharging men from the services should become a political issue...

It was noticeable, surely, that President Truman, in his message to Congress last week, did not address himself to the question...

In civilian life, business is transacted and can be transacted only by the deliberate action of individuals...

Statesmen At Work

SOME House Democrats were attacking Rep. Marcantonio's N. Y. for his voting record on war agencies when Rep. Colmer...

The Way Out

The kind of unofficial report in which we can rejoice is that of Saturday from the Allied War Crimes Commission...

It was noticable, surely, that President Truman, in his message to Congress last week, did not address himself to the question...

We don't like the spectacle of executing hundreds of thousands of Germans any more than Franklin Roosevelt did...

The Merry-Go-Round

By Draw Pearson

WASHINGTON The Army is determined that returned European war veterans shall no longer appeal to Congressmen or newspaper men to hasten their discharge from the Army...

Severe secret orders have just been issued by the War Department over the alerting of Brig. Gen. A. M. Gurney, Chief of Staff for Lt. Gen. Lloyd R. Fredendall, commander of the Second Army...

OPA Crackdowns

Just before V-J day, the Justice Department announced an important drive to crack down on black marketers and violators of OPA ceilings...

These OPA prosecutions will come largely under the new Assistant Attorney General in charge of the Criminal Division, Theron Lamar Caudle...

Mr. Caudle is a charming, likeable gentleman from Wadeboro, N. C. who was U. S. Attorney for Western North Carolina...

Last November, the Cox Lumber Co. in Caudle's home town of Wadeboro was prosecuted by the OPA for violating price regulations...

However, the Cox Lumber Co. retained very distinguished counsel, Clyde Hovey, former Governor of North Carolina, now U. S. Senator...

Seems Silly to Ride a Good Thing to Death

WASHINGTON The British are in a tighter pinch for food than they were during the war...

It is only here that the end of war has meant gasoline and whipped cream and anything plotted on a perfect chart...

We have been staring at our own sports shortages so hard that they have become a remarkable thing which has happened in the world...

Symbol Of Hope In Japan

By Marquis Childs

WASHINGTON A MASTER of this business of column writing was the late Howard Brown...

While on a visit in London, he had received word of the assassination of the man with whom he had worked most closely...

Like one returning from the dead, the 68-year-old Ozaki appeared the other day at the opening session of the Diet...

Suddenly the criminal case against Betty's clients, the Cox Lumber Co., was dropped. There is no evidence that Caudle had anything to do with this...

Note—OPA attorneys say the civil case against the Cox Lumber Co. has not yet gone to trial...

Hoarding Army Manpower

Here is one illustration of how the discharge of high-point veterans is being held back in the Army...

Col. Kight is 22 years old and an excellent pilot. And apparently he liked the Army—which, considering his age and rank, certainly has treated him well...

Many men at Morrison Field, who had not done one real day's work a week, were funneled into Kight's supposed to repair planes brought back from India...

Capitol Chaff

When radio station WOL, Washington, advertised for a new radio personality to broadcast a news program to be known as "The Voice of Washington"...

WASHINGTON The British are in a tighter pinch for food than they were during the war...

SIDE GLANCES By Galbraith

"I found out what that smell was in the cellar, dear—the dog probably has been watching you and he's hoarding some dead mice in the coal pile!"

Dizzy Eminence

By Samuel Croffton

THE United States has come out of the war fatter than the rest of the world. It is not just a little better off...

As an American, I rejoice as a resident of the planet, I wonder, we find ourselves in the unenviable position of being the rich family in a busted town...

These facts take out of the realm of charity the problem of getting some food, fuel, and some food and transport to France...

It is only here that the end of war has meant gasoline and whipped cream and anything plotted on a perfect chart...

We have been staring at our own sports shortages so hard that they have become a remarkable thing which has happened in the world...

People's Platform Family Men Want Out

By PVT. ORVILLE K. HAGER

Inclosed you will find a letter which was submitted to Senators Taft, Clegg and Donnell of Michigan, bearing the signatures of soldiers from Fort Belvoir...

WE the undersigned members of the United States Army, who have been discharged at the earliest possible date, regardless of time in service...

One-Front Service Should Be Enough By WELLBORN C. PHILLIPS

It appears that many veterans of the European War who served in combat are now being sent to the Pacific Theater...

Quote, Unquote WE have this international organization called United Nations Charter...
