

Central High's Wildcats, after a disappointing road trip to Greensboro, held and fought, rebounded back last week to top the team of the week. Sports Editor Ray Howe writes column today to the rejuvenated Cats. Turn to the sports section.

ESTABLISHED 1888

Livest Newspaper In The Carolinas

CHARLOTTE, NORTH CAROLINA, TUESDAY, OCTOBER 15, 1946

20 Pages—Price Five Cents

11 Nazi Ring Leaders Await Meeting With The Hangman

BEEF GOING TO MARKET stopped by the Harvey Morris stockyards today for a record-breaking auction sale. Here's a pen filled to overflowing with steers and heifers brought in from the Western countries.

just a portion of the 1,500 expected to be sold in the first post-OPA rush. (News Photo by Don Martin, Tom Franklin Studio.)

Last Supper Eaten By Germans At Nuernberg

All Bearing Up Well Under Strain By THOMAS A. REEDY NUERNBERG, Germany.—(AP)—The eleven condemned Nazis, with only hours to live before they meet the hangman, ate their last supper at 5:30 P. M. tonight, a slim meal of cooked porridge, bread and coffee.

Meat Going Up Livestock Bidding Presages Sharp Jump In Prices

By ASSOCIATED PRESS. The speed of meat's return to the nation's dinner tables remained uncertain today with industry estimates ranging from two weeks to a year. Meanwhile early livestock bidding established the certainty of a sharp price increase.

Controls On Meat Go Off As Truman Gives Order

WASHINGTON — (AP)—Carrying out President Truman's orders, the OPA today officially ended price controls on livestock, meat and food and feed products made from them, effective at 12:01 A. M. (EST) today.

The End of Meat Controls

Harvey Morris livestock center near Hawkins has been the liveliest place in the world these past OPA weeks, in fact some of the liveliest animals in these parts were the dozen or so pigs that have been brought to the stockyards for sale since last June.

Farmers Come A-Running With Cattle

By TOM FESPERMAN Charlotte News Staff Writer Up in the hills last night, a farmer got the word. He said, "Well, it's dangerous," jumped out of his chair, called the boys, loaded up his truck with 48 head of cattle, started down the mountain and he ended up at the stockyards this morning, saying, "Let 'em go, let 'em go, cowboy come town on a foe."

Slav Relief Okay Given

BELOGRADE, Yugoslavia.—(AP)—A special three-man UNRRA investigation committee reported today it had found no evidence of diversion of large quantities of the war organization's supplies for the use of Army Marshal Tito's Yugoslav Army.

Yugoslavia Withdraws Peace Conference Closed At Paris

PARIS.—(AP)—The Paris Peace Conference ended officially at 5:28 P. M. (11:28 A. M., EST) today after Yugoslavians, in a last minute dramatization of her dissatisfaction with its decisions, formally withdrew from the 21-nation deliberations.

Subsidies Abolished

WASHINGTON.—(AP)—The Treasury stands to save well over $100,000,000 through President Truman's action in ending subsidies of meat and price controls.

Rule Laid Down

WASHINGTON.—(AP)—OPA Administrator Paul Porter laid down the rule that "important" commodities and services until supply catches up with demand.

Controls To Stay On Scarce Things

WASHINGTON.—(AP)—OPA Administrator Paul Porter laid down the rule that "important" commodities and services until supply catches up with demand.

Bullet Cuts Off Power

PITTSBURGH.—(AP)—A rifle bullet fired into a 66,000 volt transformer today crippled electrical service to the strike-wreacked Pittsburgh area.

Baby Panda On Way To America

SHANGHAI.—(AP)—A baby panda destined for the New York Zoological garden was shipped to Chungking after an overnight stay in Yunnan.

Not Withdrawing Resignations

WASHINGTON.—(AP)—A Colman Barrett, industrial member of the Wage Stabilization Board, said today that resigning employees would not stay on, if he wanted to see what President Truman means by an orderly celebration program of lifting wage controls.

Industry Members of WSB Wait Outcome of Truman's Promise

WASHINGTON.—(AP)—A Colman Barrett, industrial member of the Wage Stabilization Board, said today that resigning employees would not stay on, if he wanted to see what President Truman means by an orderly celebration program of lifting wage controls.

Stocks Low

STOCKS LOW The Institute said, are at a low level and the distribution pipeline are completely empty.

AFL Political Policy Stated

WASHINGTON.—(AP)—The American Federation of Labor today to a Congressional committee today that its political activities are designed to "reward our friends and beat our enemies."

English Schools Take Steps To Save Fuel

LONDON.—(AP)—In order to save coal London's council schools the English equivalent of American public schools have been ordered to close at 10 o'clock.

Yank Shot By Jealous German

FRANKFURT, Germany.—(AP)—An American infantryman was shot and killed in Stuttgart yesterday by a jealous German husband whose estranged wife was fraternizing with the soldier, the U. S. Third Army announced today.

Wheat, rice, corn, barley gain

WASHINGTON.—(AP)—A Colman Barrett, industrial member of the Wage Stabilization Board, said today that resigning employees would not stay on, if he wanted to see what President Truman means by an orderly celebration program of lifting wage controls.

Wheat, rice, corn, barley gain

WASHINGTON.—(AP)—A Colman Barrett, industrial member of the Wage Stabilization Board, said today that resigning employees would not stay on, if he wanted to see what President Truman means by an orderly celebration program of lifting wage controls.

Pork Chops Sell For $1 A Pound In Washington

WASHINGTON.—(AP)—Pork chops sold for $1 a pound in Washington today if you could find them.

English Schools Take Steps To Save Fuel

LONDON.—(AP)—In order to save coal London's council schools the English equivalent of American public schools have been ordered to close at 10 o'clock.

Wheat, rice, corn, barley gain

WASHINGTON.—(AP)—A Colman Barrett, industrial member of the Wage Stabilization Board, said today that resigning employees would not stay on, if he wanted to see what President Truman means by an orderly celebration program of lifting wage controls.

Wheat, rice, corn, barley gain

WASHINGTON.—(AP)—A Colman Barrett, industrial member of the Wage Stabilization Board, said today that resigning employees would not stay on, if he wanted to see what President Truman means by an orderly celebration program of lifting wage controls.

Wheat, rice, corn, barley gain

WASHINGTON.—(AP)—A Colman Barrett, industrial member of the Wage Stabilization Board, said today that resigning employees would not stay on, if he wanted to see what President Truman means by an orderly celebration program of lifting wage controls.

Wheat, rice, corn, barley gain

WASHINGTON.—(AP)—A Colman Barrett, industrial member of the Wage Stabilization Board, said today that resigning employees would not stay on, if he wanted to see what President Truman means by an orderly celebration program of lifting wage controls.

Wheat, rice, corn, barley gain

WASHINGTON.—(AP)—A Colman Barrett, industrial member of the Wage Stabilization Board, said today that resigning employees would not stay on, if he wanted to see what President Truman means by an orderly celebration program of lifting wage controls.

Wheat, rice, corn, barley gain

WASHINGTON.—(AP)—A Colman Barrett, industrial member of the Wage Stabilization Board, said today that resigning employees would not stay on, if he wanted to see what President Truman means by an orderly celebration program of lifting wage controls.

Wheat, rice, corn, barley gain

WASHINGTON.—(AP)—A Colman Barrett, industrial member of the Wage Stabilization Board, said today that resigning employees would not stay on, if he wanted to see what President Truman means by an orderly celebration program of lifting wage controls.

Wheat, rice, corn, barley gain

WASHINGTON.—(AP)—A Colman Barrett, industrial member of the Wage Stabilization Board, said today that resigning employees would not stay on, if he wanted to see what President Truman means by an orderly celebration program of lifting wage controls.

Wheat, rice, corn, barley gain

WASHINGTON.—(AP)—A Colman Barrett, industrial member of the Wage Stabilization Board, said today that resigning employees would not stay on, if he wanted to see what President Truman means by an orderly celebration program of lifting wage controls.

Wheat, rice, corn, barley gain

WASHINGTON.—(AP)—A Colman Barrett, industrial member of the Wage Stabilization Board, said today that resigning employees would not stay on, if he wanted to see what President Truman means by an orderly celebration program of lifting wage controls.

Wheat, rice, corn, barley gain

WASHINGTON.—(AP)—A Colman Barrett, industrial member of the Wage Stabilization Board, said today that resigning employees would not stay on, if he wanted to see what President Truman means by an orderly celebration program of lifting wage controls.

Wheat, rice, corn, barley gain

WASHINGTON.—(AP)—A Colman Barrett, industrial member of the Wage Stabilization Board, said today that resigning employees would not stay on, if he wanted to see what President Truman means by an orderly celebration program of lifting wage controls.

Wheat, rice, corn, barley gain

WASHINGTON.—(AP)—A Colman Barrett, industrial member of the Wage Stabilization Board, said today that resigning employees would not stay on, if he wanted to see what President Truman means by an orderly celebration program of lifting wage controls.

Wheat, rice, corn, barley gain

WASHINGTON.—(AP)—A Colman Barrett, industrial member of the Wage Stabilization Board, said today that resigning employees would not stay on, if he wanted to see what President Truman means by an orderly celebration program of lifting wage controls.

Wheat, rice, corn, barley gain

WASHINGTON.—(AP)—A Colman Barrett, industrial member of the Wage Stabilization Board, said today that resigning employees would not stay on, if he wanted to see what President Truman means by an orderly celebration program of lifting wage controls.

Wheat, rice, corn, barley gain

WASHINGTON.—(AP)—A Colman Barrett, industrial member of the Wage Stabilization Board, said today that resigning employees would not stay on, if he wanted to see what President Truman means by an orderly celebration program of lifting wage controls.

Wheat, rice, corn, barley gain

WASHINGTON.—(AP)—A Colman Barrett, industrial member of the Wage Stabilization Board, said today that resigning employees would not stay on, if he wanted to see what President Truman means by an orderly celebration program of lifting wage controls.

Wheat, rice, corn, barley gain

WASHINGTON.—(AP)—A Colman Barrett, industrial member of the Wage Stabilization Board, said today that resigning employees would not stay on, if he wanted to see what President Truman means by an orderly celebration program of lifting wage controls.

Wheat, rice, corn, barley gain

WASHINGTON.—(AP)—A Colman Barrett, industrial member of the Wage Stabilization Board, said today that resigning employees would not stay on, if he wanted to see what President Truman means by an orderly celebration program of lifting wage controls.

Wheat, rice, corn, barley gain

WASHINGTON.—(AP)—A Colman Barrett, industrial member of the Wage Stabilization Board, said today that resigning employees would not stay on, if he wanted to see what President Truman means by an orderly celebration program of lifting wage controls.

Wheat, rice, corn, barley gain

WASHINGTON.—(AP)—A Colman Barrett, industrial member of the Wage Stabilization Board, said today that resigning employees would not stay on, if he wanted to see what President Truman means by an orderly celebration program of lifting wage controls.

Wheat, rice, corn, barley gain

WASHINGTON.—(AP)—A Colman Barrett, industrial member of the Wage Stabilization Board, said today that resigning employees would not stay on, if he wanted to see what President Truman means by an orderly celebration program of lifting wage controls.

Wheat, rice, corn, barley gain

WASHINGTON.—(AP)—A Colman Barrett, industrial member of the Wage Stabilization Board, said today that resigning employees would not stay on, if he wanted to see what President Truman means by an orderly celebration program of lifting wage controls.

Wheat, rice, corn, barley gain

WASHINGTON.—(AP)—A Colman Barrett, industrial member of the Wage Stabilization Board, said today that resigning employees would not stay on, if he wanted to see what President Truman means by an orderly celebration program of lifting wage controls.

Wheat, rice, corn, barley gain

WASHINGTON.—(AP)—A Colman Barrett, industrial member of the Wage Stabilization Board, said today that resigning employees would not stay on, if he wanted to see what President Truman means by an orderly celebration program of lifting wage controls.

Wheat, rice, corn, barley gain

WASHINGTON.—(AP)—A Colman Barrett, industrial member of the Wage Stabilization Board, said today that resigning employees would not stay on, if he wanted to see what President Truman means by an orderly celebration program of lifting wage controls.

Wheat, rice, corn, barley gain

WASHINGTON.—(AP)—A Colman Barrett, industrial member of the Wage Stabilization Board, said today that resigning employees would not stay on, if he wanted to see what President Truman means by an orderly celebration program of lifting wage controls.

Wheat, rice, corn, barley gain

WASHINGTON.—(AP)—A Colman Barrett, industrial member of the Wage Stabilization Board, said today that resigning employees would not stay on, if he wanted to see what President Truman means by an orderly celebration program of lifting wage controls.

Wheat, rice, corn, barley gain

WASHINGTON.—(AP)—A Colman Barrett, industrial member of the Wage Stabilization Board, said today that resigning employees would not stay on, if he wanted to see what President Truman means by an orderly celebration program of lifting wage controls.

Wheat, rice, corn, barley gain

WASHINGTON.—(AP)—A Colman Barrett, industrial member of the Wage Stabilization Board, said today that resigning employees would not stay on, if he wanted to see what President Truman means by an orderly celebration program of lifting wage controls.

Wheat, rice, corn, barley gain

WASHINGTON.—(AP)—A Colman Barrett, industrial member of the Wage Stabilization Board, said today that resigning employees would not stay on, if he wanted to see what President Truman means by an orderly celebration program of lifting wage controls.

Wheat, rice, corn, barley gain

WASHINGTON.—(AP)—A Colman Barrett, industrial member of the Wage Stabilization Board, said today that resigning employees would not stay on, if he wanted to see what President Truman means by an orderly celebration program of lifting wage controls.

Wheat, rice, corn, barley gain

WASHINGTON.—(AP)—A Colman Barrett, industrial member of the Wage Stabilization Board, said today that resigning employees would not stay on, if he wanted to see what President Truman means by an orderly celebration program of lifting wage controls.

WEATHER

Fair and continued over the afternoon and slightly warmer tomorrow. High and low 55 degrees. Temperature at 2:30 today High and low 55 degrees.