

QUARTERLY MARKET CONTROLS Zoning And Boulevard supported By C. Of C. Directors

Civic Group Takes Action On Major Local Issues Council Urged To Approve

By J. A. DALY Charlotte News Staff Writer The Charlotte Chamber of Commerce directors today formally endorsed in principle the City Government's proposals for municipal zoning and for construction of a traffic-unbottling, cross-town highway...

Says Agreements Broken Churchill Scores Russian Policies In Commons Talk

LONDON—(AP)—Winston Churchill today denounced Russian policies in what he called the "communized Balkan bloc" and accused the Soviet Union of departing from many of the Big Three agreements reached at Yalta and elsewhere. Both he and Prime Minister Attlee agreed that major powers had limited their veto authority in the United Nations Security Council...

New York Welcomes Assembly Truman Speech U. N. Highlight

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER NEW YORK — (AP)—The United Nations Assembly was formally welcomed to New York today in a subdued demonstration along Manhattan streets and at City Hall prior to President Truman's opening session speech later in the afternoon. Former Sen. Warren R. Austin, chief American delegate to the United Nations, told the City Hall crowd...

Chevrolet, explaining his special hand clutch to E. O. Anderson Jr., president of the Pyramid Chevrolet Co. (News Staff Photo by Bill Sumner, Tom Franklin Studio)

FIRST AMPUTEE TO GET CAR—Edwin C. Queen, who has been established as the first veteran amputee in Charlotte, and possibly the Carolinas, to get a new Government-issued car. Here he is seen under the wheel of his new Chevrolet...

WASHINGTON — (AP)—OPA virtually ended wartime price controls over food as beverages today. The agency removed price B from all foods and beverages except sugar, syrup and rice, effective at one minute past midnight tonight. The agency removed price B from all foods and beverages except sugar, syrup and rice, effective at one minute past midnight tonight.

Chicago Accident 240 To 270 Hurt In 'EL' Wreck

CHICAGO — (AP)—Between 240 and 270 people bound for work were injured today, about ten seriously, when an elevated express train ramed the rear of another during heavy fog. The crash occurred during the morning rush hour at 47th St. station on the South Side. Both trains were derailed but were in no danger of falling onto the street...

Lewis Steps Up Tempo

WASHINGTON — John L. Lewis stepped up the tempo of his attack for fresh wage concessions from the Federally organized soft coal industry today, whipping out a sharp new ultimatum to Secretary of Interior A. C. Krug. In typically crisp sentences, Lewis told Krug to meet him in Washington on Nov. 1—and no later—without a 10-day deadline set previously.

Draft Evader Gets 3 Years

DETROIT — (AP)—Lloyd Chavis who was sentenced to three years in prison for evading the draft. Sentence was imposed by Federal Judge Theodore Levin after Chavis pleaded guilty to violation of the Selective Training and Service Act.

First In Charlotte Veteran Who Lost His Leg Gets Present Of Automobile

By MARTHA AZER Charlotte News Staff Writer Edwin C. Queen, 500 Greene St. answered the telephone this morning, and his face broke into an incredibly happy grin. "No fooling," he asked, as though he couldn't believe it. "You mean my new car has come? ... I'll be right down."

Estonians Must Get Out

MIAMI, Fla.—(AP)—Estonian refugees who sailed 600 miles from their homes in Europe to this country last year, were told today they had twenty-four hours in which to decide where they were going to live. The refugees were told they had to leave their homes in Europe by the end of the month.

Farmers Urged To Hold Cotton

WASHINGTON — (AP)—Declaring that "every statistical fact argues for a higher price for cotton," the National Cotton Producers Association today urged farmers to hold their cotton until the market opens up.

'Butcher' Of Lidice Hanged At Prague

PRAGUE, Czechoslovakia — (AP)—Gen. Kurt Daluege, the "Butcher of Lidice," was hanged today in the courtyard of the Prague prison three hours after he was convicted of war crimes charged by a Czechoslovak people's court. Daluege, Hitler's last "Protector of Bohemia and Moravia," was executed for the murder of the children of a dozen families sent to him.

'Protector' Is Dead

Gen. Kurt Daluege, the "Butcher of Lidice," was hanged today in the courtyard of the Prague prison three hours after he was convicted of war crimes charged by a Czechoslovak people's court. Daluege, Hitler's last "Protector of Bohemia and Moravia," was executed for the murder of the children of a dozen families sent to him.

Murchison's Opinion Textile Position Is Termed Sound

NEW YORK — (AP)—Dr. Claudius T. Murchison, president of the Cotton Textile Institute, today said cotton goods industry is entering a stage of normal competition and consumer behavior. "From now on production will be determined by the choices of the consumer," Murchison said at the twentieth annual meeting of the institute.

Russians Are Accused

WASHINGTON — (AP)—The United States accused Russia today of forcing the "suppression of American protest concerning elections" to be held in Bulgaria. The protest was held in New York and was denounced by the United States State Department press attaché. He made the accusation in a letter to the Bulgarian representative in Sofia, Bulgaria.

Farmers Urged To Hold Cotton

WASHINGTON — (AP)—Declaring that "every statistical fact argues for a higher price for cotton," the National Cotton Producers Association today urged farmers to hold their cotton until the market opens up.

Seton, Wildlife Writer, Dies

SANTA FE, N. M.—(AP)—Ernest Thompson Seton, 82, world-famed author and authority on Indian lore and wildlife, died this morning at his home in Seton Village, ten miles south of Santa Fe. Still active despite his years, Seton once wrote a book and had made plans for a 10,000-mile lecture tour. He also helped place a new roof on his 30,000-volume library recently.

Ship Peace Outlook Dark

NEW YORK — (AP)—A spokesman for striking members of the Maritime Union of America (MUA) today said it negotiations with the union conference with East and Gulf ports will be very difficult. He said the union is looking for a settlement of the 23-day-old strike of deck officers.

Voñ Papan Leaves Nuerberg Jail

NUERBERG, Germany — (AP)—The German Communist leader, Walter Voñ Papan, today left the jail in which he had been confined since his arrest in the city of Nuerberg last week. Papan had been in the city for several weeks.

Ship Peace Outlook Dark

NEW YORK — (AP)—A spokesman for striking members of the Maritime Union of America (MUA) today said it negotiations with the union conference with East and Gulf ports will be very difficult. He said the union is looking for a settlement of the 23-day-old strike of deck officers.

WEATHER Generally fair and mild through Friday. Slightly warmer and less hazy on Saturday afternoon and Thursday afternoon. Temperature at 2:30 today 70 High and low last 24 hours 71-50 Forecast tomorrow 71-50

See SATS TEXTILE on page 11-A