

COAL STRIKE RESULTS TO FIGHT RAIL SPEEDY TRIAL OF LEWIS PLANNED AS COAL SUPPLY EBBS

Government Pins Strike Peace Hopes Upon Actions Friday Session Will Be Sought

By STERLING F. GREEN WASHINGTON (AP)—The Government, racing against factory shutdowns and emptying coal bins, aimed today for swift trial of John L. Lewis and clamped down sharp new curbs to save the nation's fast-ebbing supplies of fuel.

United Mine Workers Face Heavy Work

United Mine Workers, FACE HEAVY WORK. The Government is putting Lewis in jail, as could be done if he is found guilty of conspiracy.

More Than 60,000 Idle

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Unemployment in industries depending on coal for fuel soared today to more than 60,000, some schools and colleges prepared for extended Thanksgiving vacations, and large corporations sought means of stretching their supplies through the shutdown of the country's bituminous coal.

May Seize Pipelines

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Interior Department today it is "seriously considering" Government operation of the 81,000,000-watt Big Inch and Little Tick pipelines for transmission of gas to relieve some effects of the coal strike in the West.

Guards Put On German Trains

BERLIN (AP)—Headquarters of the German Reich Railway announced today it was placing arm guards on trains in sections of the Russian occupation zone following a series of train robberies.

Five Year Terms For Russian Universities

MOSCOW (AP)—Russian universities will start five year terms instead of the current four at the beginning of the second semester this year, Minister of Higher Education V. Katynin said today.

COMPROMISE PLAN — Members of the City Council, unable to obtain a majority for either the Hawthorne Lane or High-Fox St. leg of the crossroad boulevard, were slated to approve the Crescent Ave. approach at this afternoon's session.

Conciliant at an informal dinner last night. The road would leave the present Monroe highway just west of the Seaboard underpass, pass through undeveloped territory to the eastern end of Crescent Ave. extension, follow Crescent Ave. and 4th Sts. to Lillington, bend sharply to the left and follow Lillington and Babb.

Road bend sharply to the right and follow E. Morehead to the intersection of S. Boulevard and E. Morehead. There it would turn left to join the No. 2 proposal of the master street plan, which follows S. Boulevard, crossed the railroad, and follows W. Trenton toward Wilkinson Blvd.

Disarmament Talk Notice Given

Russia Will Seek Atomic Weapon Data

LAKE SUCCESS, N. Y. (AP)—Soviet Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov gave notice today that Russia would ask members of the United Nations for full information on all types of arms including atomic and rocket-powered weapons when disarmament discussions begin.

To Stand By NCEA Plan

WILMINGTON (AP)—New Hanover County teachers will give their support to the legislative program of the North Carolina Educational Association asking for a 20 per cent increase in pay.

Nine Hospitalized After Fire At Newark

NEWARK, N. J. (AP)—Nine persons, including two firemen, were hospitalized early today after the rescue of twelve families from a smoke and flame-filled five story building.

Mock Funeral

WASHINGTON (AP)—An unusual demonstration of the OPA's last rites' held at Capital.

Chicagoan Is Indicted

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Justice Department announced today the indictment of Douglas MacCollum Stewart of Chicago, Ill., on charges of perjury himself while testifying before special grand jury here in 1943 and 1944.

Mock Funeral

WASHINGTON (AP)—An unusual demonstration of the OPA's last rites' held at Capital.

OPA 'Last Rites' Held At Capital

WASHINGTON (AP)—An unusual demonstration of the OPA's last rites' held at Capital.

Mock Funeral

WASHINGTON (AP)—An unusual demonstration of the OPA's last rites' held at Capital.

Mock Funeral

WASHINGTON (AP)—An unusual demonstration of the OPA's last rites' held at Capital.

Mock Funeral

WASHINGTON (AP)—An unusual demonstration of the OPA's last rites' held at Capital.

Mock Funeral

WASHINGTON (AP)—An unusual demonstration of the OPA's last rites' held at Capital.

Mock Funeral

WASHINGTON (AP)—An unusual demonstration of the OPA's last rites' held at Capital.

Mock Funeral

WASHINGTON (AP)—An unusual demonstration of the OPA's last rites' held at Capital.

Mock Funeral

WASHINGTON (AP)—An unusual demonstration of the OPA's last rites' held at Capital.

Vigorous Boulevard Protest Is Scheduled

Easter Citizen Will Join Fight

By DICK YOUNG Charles News Service Editor A verbal barrage, coming from another direction, was scheduled to be directed toward the City Council this afternoon as residents of Crescent Ave. made ready to protest the selection of the street as the route for the proposed crossroad boulevard.

A large delegation of residents along the proposed route, reinforced by protesters from near Eastover, was expected to appear before the City Council this afternoon to protest the scheduled time in order to get the citizens an opportunity to be heard.

Attorney J. M. Scarborough was expected to be retained as counsel for the group which is coming to the City Hall with a demand that the City Council be notified to change its decision.

The protesters were taking the position that they should be notified before the City Council was giving them a hearing. They declared that they had actually been heard.

The Crescent Ave. East route was chosen by Council two weeks ago. A verbal barrage, coming from another direction, was scheduled to be directed toward the City Council this afternoon as residents of Crescent Ave. made ready to protest the selection of the street as the route for the proposed crossroad boulevard.

A large delegation of residents along the proposed route, reinforced by protesters from near Eastover, was expected to appear before the City Council this afternoon to protest the scheduled time in order to get the citizens an opportunity to be heard.

Attorney J. M. Scarborough was expected to be retained as counsel for the group which is coming to the City Hall with a demand that the City Council be notified to change its decision.

The protesters were taking the position that they should be notified before the City Council was giving them a hearing. They declared that they had actually been heard.

The Crescent Ave. East route was chosen by Council two weeks ago. A verbal barrage, coming from another direction, was scheduled to be directed toward the City Council this afternoon as residents of Crescent Ave. made ready to protest the selection of the street as the route for the proposed crossroad boulevard.

A large delegation of residents along the proposed route, reinforced by protesters from near Eastover, was expected to appear before the City Council this afternoon to protest the scheduled time in order to get the citizens an opportunity to be heard.

Attorney J. M. Scarborough was expected to be retained as counsel for the group which is coming to the City Hall with a demand that the City Council be notified to change its decision.

The protesters were taking the position that they should be notified before the City Council was giving them a hearing. They declared that they had actually been heard.

The Crescent Ave. East route was chosen by Council two weeks ago. A verbal barrage, coming from another direction, was scheduled to be directed toward the City Council this afternoon as residents of Crescent Ave. made ready to protest the selection of the street as the route for the proposed crossroad boulevard.