Raleigh Observers See Umstead As Next Senator

By LYNN NISBET
RALEIGH—Out of a mass of local gossip and a flood of telegrams and telephone calls there is crystallizing opinion that William B. Umstead of Durham will be tendered and will accept appointment to the United States Senate.
Last Spring when Senator Bailey suffered a stomach attack and was seriously ill, it was assumed as certain that in event of a Senate vacancy Umstead would get the nod. During the past few days there had developed sentiment that he might feel he had gone too far in his unofficial campaign for Governor to withdraw gracefully. Today this sentiment is rapidly fading. Large majority opinion is that he will go to Washington.

Senator Bailey Taken By Death

RALEIGH — (AP) — North Carolina today mourned their late senior Senator, Josiah William Bailey, as speculation mounted over his possible successor.
Bailey, a veteran of sixteen years in the Senate, died yesterday at his home here of a cerebral hemorrhage. He was 72 years old.
Funeral services were to be held this afternoon at 3:30 at Raleigh's First Baptist Church.
Governor R. Gregg Cherry said he would name a successor for the remaining two years of Bailey's term sometime this week.
Speculation was that National Democratic Committee member W. Horton of Pittsburgh would be the Governor's choice.
Former Governor J. M. Broughton, State Treasurer Charles M. Johnson, Edith, his daughter, and W. B. Umstead who recently resigned as chairman of the State Executive Committee — were considered good possibilities by political observers here.
Bailey became ill suddenly Saturday afternoon and lapsed into a coma. He had suffered a serious heart illness about eight months ago, but was recovering.
Earlier Saturday, relatives said, he had been unusually cheerful and had made plans for a business conference.
Classed as a liberal in his early political life, Bailey became known as a conservative shortly after entering the Senate. On occasion he fought as strenuously against New Deal proposals that he was attacked by some quarters as a reaction-ary.
He was one of the most vigorous opponents of President Roosevelt's plan to enlarge the Supreme Court but supported such liberal measures as the TVA, the Social Security Act and reciprocal trade treaties.

SUPPORTED ROOSEVELT
Bailey supported Roosevelt for President in 1932 and each time he came up for re-election.
The Senator is survived by his widow, Mrs. Edith P. Bailey; three daughters, Mrs. William Primm Jr. of Washington, Edith, his daughter, and W. B. Umstead who recently resigned as chairman of the State Executive Committee — were considered good possibilities by political observers here.
