

Compromise Forgotten

ONE of the newly elected Senators came to Washington the other day to say the coal strike... compromise forgotten...

OPERATORS ADAMANT The operators' attitude at the conference... position of the Southern operators...

OUT OF FRUSTRATION The nation is today in mortal peril... the drift is toward something...

As a compromise it was proposed that the mines be operated under the supervision of the Government...

GOOD IDEAS SUBMITTED Reasonable bids for the transmission of power... the committee has submitted last summer...

Mr. Pettrillo Provides a Portent

THE return of the coal miners to the pits this morning is more conclusive evidence than any brief article that Old John Lewis has lost out in a great test of Federal labor laws...

This is a sign and portent if we ever saw one, and we commend a study of the Lea Bill to all those members of the 80th Congress...

It was a simple matter for Pettrillo to arrange a test case by demanding that a record be made of the minutes of the union 'record librarians'...

What Makes a Secret Top? LAST week Drew Pearson published portions of what purported to be 'Top Secret' information...

It was this, we suppose, that North Carolina Representative Durham had in mind when he sent an unclassified message to the Chairman of the House Military Affairs Committee...

This is a great source for investigations, and should be kept in mind when the Congressional press should also turn their attention to the War Department's use or misuse of its classification privilege.

The Adventures of John H. Rupnick

THE thing that happened to John H. Rupnick served as the basis for innumerable B-Grade movies, radio skits, short stories and comic strips...

John Rupnick, a railway engineer, lives quiet and unobtrusive in his home in his wife went down to the International Livestock Exposition to see the sights...

Another Voice Mr. Bevin Learns About An Institution OUR distinguished visitor, Mr. Ernest Bevin, has learned something about the great American institution of the Bronx cheer...

People's Platform 'The Dying New Deal' Aristocracy

THEY LEWIS, dean of the University of Virginia, is born in North Carolina, says his forebears for generations...

At the game in Charlottesville last Saturday he and Mrs. Lewis were seated among North Carolinians. He saw some old friends, but since he had been away from the state about 40 years...

The late Bishop Cannon of Virginia was a strict Prohibitionist. He had battled against it for a large number of years...

There was no doubt but that The Real Max Gardner will dispense genuine Southern hospitality. He arrives in London at the Court of St. James.

Dr. E. W. Schnitzer, who has been in the news for some time, is reported to be in the city...

THE War Department and General MacArthur are supposed to be a part of the same Army team, but apparently they do not believe in letting 'the right hand see what the left hand doeth'...

More Bilbo Scandals LATER this week, the Senate Kilgore Committee begins its probe of the ramified and variegated war contract activities of Senator Bilbo...

Standard Drink

There was no difference of opinion as to 'The Real Max Gardner' who has been in the news for some time...

There was some difference of opinion as to what could be called the standard drink of North Carolina. There was no such water, not too much water.
