Keynoters Throw Two Challenges Long-Heralded

Fight Is On

By REED SARRATT Charlette News Staff Writer ASHEVILLE — Keynote peakers at the opening session here today of the American Federation of Labor's hird biennial Southern labor federate opened a bitter epeatedly threw two chal-engos before the 2,000 delesatile LSTs, workhorses of the U. S. Navy, are now being used to relieve fam-ine conditions in Central China. Since lack of rail communications hampers swift movement of food and medical supplies to critical areas, shallow-draft landing craft are sailing up the Yangtze they unload their vital cargo. This LST passes. Anking, capital of Anhwei Province, getting a good view of the city's famed 800-year-old pagoda, one of the oldest in China. (Photo by Harlow M. Church, Aeme Correspondent.)
