

Behavior Of Yanks In Berlin Improves

BERLIN.—(AP)—The Irish combat soldier who bores the American nation in this Allied occupation considers relations between the four powers in Berlin "very satisfactory."

Major General Frank A. Keating said today that the Army's strict discipline is producing results.

"The general rate in Berlin is gradually dropping and is near average level. Our misdeemeanor and felony rate has dropped to a very low level."

Keating said there was no question in the Army's mind that the discipline is producing results.

"The general rate in Berlin is gradually dropping and is near average level. Our misdeemeanor and felony rate has dropped to a very low level."

Buyers' Strikes Gain Momentum Over Nation

Kidnap-Killing Confession Denied

Soldier Says Heirens Was Near Scene Of Degan Crime

CHICAGO.—(AP)—State Attorney William Tuohy said today that George Subrowak, a soldier, had identified William Heirens as a man he saw carrying a paper bag a block from the Degan home shortly after Susanna Degan was kidnaped from her bed and her body cut to pieces last Jan. 27.

Tuohy said the soldier told him he saw Heirens in Chicago. Police said the girl was taken from her bed around midnight.

"Heirens said the soldier identified Heirens in the courtroom today when the seventeen-year-old University of Chicago student was granted a 30-day continuance for arraignment on 29 charges of robbery, burglary and assault.

Tuohy said the soldier was questioned extensively by Assistant State Attorney Richard B. Austin and insisted he recognized Heirens.

OPA's Death Wheeler Gets Test

Montana Senate Struggle Sparks Day's Primaries

Wheeler's campaign manager predicting he would win Democratic nomination by a close margin.

Primary elections also were being held in Wyoming, Arizona and Arkansas. Georgian vote tomorrow in a boiling contest marked by a "white supremacy" cry.

President Truman wrote Wheeler a letter which he said he hoped would sway the campaign chairman against Burt Wheeler. The Senator's opponent is Left Erickson, former Montana Supreme Court Justice, who drew the support of James Roosevelt, son of the late President.

With a moderately heavy vote of about 125,000 forecast, Wheeler's campaign chairman Halley Storts, predicted victory by about 15,000 votes.

An Erickson victory by 29,000 votes was the forecast from Erickson's camp.

In Wyoming, the principal contest was to choose a Republican nominee to oppose Gov. Lester C. Hunt, who was not challenged for reelection.

The Republican contenders are former Gov. Nels H. Smith and State Treasurer Earl Wright. Democrat O'Mahoney, Democrat, and Re-

Committee Will Make Attempt At Compromise

Vote Is Victory For President

WASHINGTON.—(AP)—By a vote of 211 to 64, the House today rejected the Senate OPA bill and sent it to a House-Senate conference committee for a new effort to write a compromise price control measure that President Truman will sign.

The vote was a victory for the President in this round of the weeks-long struggle over OPA, but Administration leaders conceded that nobody could guess what OPA will look like. If indeed it survives at all, when it finally runs the gamut of the legislative process.

HOUSE MEMBERS

Speaker Rayburn, Democrat, Texas, immediately after the House vote, appointed these House members to deal with the Senate in the effort to compromise the troublesome OPA issue:

Chairman Spencer, Democrat, Kentucky; the Banking Committee's Administration leaders in trying to write a compromise price control measure that President Truman will sign.

Peace Gains Made

43 Germans Get Death

BERLIN.—(AP)—The Russians handed over a missing American warrant officer and his petite wife today and soon afterward the Americans announced they were releasing three Russian espionage suspects from the Red Army.

The civilian-born Russians, two of whom claimed to be Red Army members, had been arrested in the Soviet Union two weeks ago, it was announced.

The Americans, warrant officer and Mrs. Samuel L. Harrison of San Antonio, Tex., disappeared fourteen days ago when they ventured 500 yards into the Russian occupation zone to see a pet show dog kennel. Harrison said he was held two days in virtually a dungeon; his wife said she was questioned repeatedly and at one time cried during an interrogation.

Headed For Moscow

Russians Leave Canada Hurriedly

OTTAWA.—(AP)—Two high members of the Russian Embassy staff accused of directing undercover espionage work in Canada hurriedly following publication of the Government report on the Soviet espionage network, it was learned today.

The two were understood to be heading back to Moscow, presumably by way of the United States. They are Bitali G. Pavlov, second secretary of the Embassy, who was accused of directing an NKVD (Soviet secret police) espionage network, and Ivan I. Krotov, commercial attaché.

Both men were charged by a Royal Commission with operating espionage networks secretly in their official positions.

The departure of the two followed knowledge of such exits beginning last December.

DETAILS GIVEN

The Royal Commission report, published yesterday, told of operations in Canada by NKVD officials. The report stated specifically that Ambassador Gromyko was not involved in the Soviet espionage network.

Pavlov and Krotov were among NKVD Embassy officials and employees named "at one time or another since the establishment of the embassy in 1942; directing in Canada espionage operations."

The NKVD network, allegedly headed by Pavlov, was one of "several parallel systems" which the royal commissioners said had been set up in Canada.

Reds Free Americans

Other Yanks Missing

WASHINGTON.—(AP)—President Truman today announced that he had signed a bill to release the missing men were Capt. Harold Cobin, of Newark, N. J., and Lt. George Wyatt, of Chatham, N. C., who were last seen July 4 boarding a train for Orléans, 30 miles north of Berlin.

The missing men were Capt. Harold Cobin, of Newark, N. J., and Lt. George Wyatt, of Chatham, N. C., who were last seen July 4 boarding a train for Orléans, 30 miles north of Berlin.

Erie Official Admits Gifts

Peace Gains Made

43 Germans Get Death

BERLIN.—(AP)—The Russians handed over a missing American warrant officer and his petite wife today and soon afterward the Americans announced they were releasing three Russian espionage suspects from the Red Army.

The civilian-born Russians, two of whom claimed to be Red Army members, had been arrested in the Soviet Union two weeks ago, it was announced.

The Americans, warrant officer and Mrs. Samuel L. Harrison of San Antonio, Tex., disappeared fourteen days ago when they ventured 500 yards into the Russian occupation zone to see a pet show dog kennel. Harrison said he was held two days in virtually a dungeon; his wife said she was questioned repeatedly and at one time cried during an interrogation.

Asks For World Security

Famed Scientist Warns U. S. That No Defense Yet Against A-Bomb

WASHINGTON.—(AP)—Declaring there is "no foreseeable defense in science against the atomic bomb," the German physicist Albert Einstein today called for an international development and control authority.

"America must quit kidding itself about defenses," he said. "It must choose between a world co-operative security or drastic efforts to maintain the paucity of our atomic war."

Binghinn, in a speech prepared for a meeting of the Inter-Atomic Energy Commission, said that in four years other nations will be able to produce atomic bombs, and added that the United States must choose between a world co-operative security or drastic efforts to maintain the paucity of our atomic war."

War Dept Opposes Bill Signed By President

War Dept Opposes Bill Signed By President

WASHINGTON.—(AP)—President Truman today signed a bill authorizing the War Department to spend $100 million for the development of a new type of atomic bomb.

The bill, which was introduced by Representative Clegg, of Ohio, authorizes the War Department to spend $100 million for the development of a new type of atomic bomb.

Old Marks Fall

Cattle, Hogs Hit New Tops At Chicago

CHICAGO.—(AP)—Price records continued to topple at Union Stockyards today as cattle reached $12.50 and hogs $11.50. Sheep hit $20, and lamb sold at $21 for Spring lambs and $11 for fall lambs.

Slackening receipts came nowhere near satisfying urgent demands, and fed steers reacted sharply everything as far back as 1945. The price boost on hogs is the steepest and sharpest in history.

Ten days ago the top price was $12.50 and under CPA price controls, the ceiling was $14.85. In 1945 the all-time high was set at $23.50 for a year-old ram in 1932 at $13.50 hundred pounds.

Girl And Escort Shot To Death

Police Sergeant William Miller said today that a man got out and started shooting at the girl and her escort. The man was shot as he attempted to run for help.

Police Chief John Tomkins said that the man who shot the girl and her escort was identified as Kenneth W. Hanley, 25, of Morrisville, a former Marine who recently was a patient at Coatsville Hospital.

Peace Gains Made

43 Germans Get Death

BERLIN.—(AP)—The Russians handed over a missing American warrant officer and his petite wife today and soon afterward the Americans announced they were releasing three Russian espionage suspects from the Red Army.

The civilian-born Russians, two of whom claimed to be Red Army members, had been arrested in the Soviet Union two weeks ago, it was announced.

The Americans, warrant officer and Mrs. Samuel L. Harrison of San Antonio, Tex., disappeared fourteen days ago when they ventured 500 yards into the Russian occupation zone to see a pet show dog kennel. Harrison said he was held two days in virtually a dungeon; his wife said she was questioned repeatedly and at one time cried during an interrogation.

War Dept Opposes Bill Signed By President

War Dept Opposes Bill Signed By President

WASHINGTON.—(AP)—President Truman today signed a bill authorizing the War Department to spend $100 million for the development of a new type of atomic bomb.

The bill, which was introduced by Representative Clegg, of Ohio, authorizes the War Department to spend $100 million for the development of a new type of atomic bomb.

Girl And Escort Shot To Death

Police Sergeant William Miller said today that a man got out and started shooting at the girl and her escort. The man was shot as he attempted to run for help.

Police Chief John Tomkins said that the man who shot the girl and her escort was identified as Kenneth W. Hanley, 25, of Morrisville, a former Marine who recently was a patient at Coatsville Hospital.

War Dept Opposes Bill Signed By President

War Dept Opposes Bill Signed By President

WASHINGTON.—(AP)—President Truman today signed a bill authorizing the War Department to spend $100 million for the development of a new type of atomic bomb.

The bill, which was introduced by Representative Clegg, of Ohio, authorizes the War Department to spend $100 million for the development of a new type of atomic bomb.

War Dept Opposes Bill Signed By President

War Dept Opposes Bill Signed By President

WASHINGTON.—(AP)—President Truman today signed a bill authorizing the War Department to spend $100 million for the development of a new type of atomic bomb.

The bill, which was introduced by Representative Clegg, of Ohio, authorizes the War Department to spend $100 million for the development of a new type of atomic bomb.