

Seamen Press Strike, AFL Men Cross Picket Line

Longshore Workers Go Through At New York

NMU Assailed As 'Commy Group'

By ASSOCIATED PRESS
CIO seamen today shouldered the prolonged shipping strike but in one instance AFL longshoremen, who had supported the longshoremen's strike until their walkout was ended yesterday, crossed CIO picket lines.

REFUSE TO WORK

About 30 members of the International Longshoremen's Association went through the New York City pier. There was no picketing.

Board Stands Firm

There is no need here for a picket line, said Joseph P. Ryan, president of the board. Ryan termed the NMU a "CIO Commy group," and said that they were trying to get the same rates.

Labor In Attacks On Wage Controls

By HAROLD W. WARD
WASHINGTON (AP)—The White House decision in the seamen's wage dispute spurred a fresh drive by some labor unions today for relaxation or scrapping of wage controls.

Boy Held In Death Probe

YUBA CITY, Calif.—A thirteen-year-old boy who vanished with two neighbor children was in custody today as officers tried to unravel the mystery of his parents' disappearance from their home in Yuba City, Calif., last week.

FORGERY CHARGED

The boy was picked up yesterday at Barstow, in Southern California, about 400 miles southeast of Yuba City, on a warrant charging forgery, and was quoted by authorities as saying he knew nothing of his parents' disappearance.

Soviet Plan For Austria Blocker

VIENNA—An American-Russian plan to curtail the economic effect for the next ten years was blocked in the Allied Control Council today by the U. S., Britain and France. The plan would, in effect, have placed the nation back into the category of a communist rather than a liberated country.

Church Takes Divorce Stand

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—The House of Bishops of the 55th triennial general convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church today unanimously approved a liberalization canon on the remarriage of divorced persons.

More School Spending Urged

WASHINGTON (AP)—A bumper baby crop during war years means the United States will have to spend more money, a committee of the National Education Association concluded today.

Photographer Is Attacked

MEMPHIS, Tenn.—(AP)—Associated Press photographer W. Eugene Smith was beaten and his $350 camera was smashed last night by a group of Army officers when he was photographing the city's war effort.

When A Melon Is Not A Melon

DALLAS, Texas.—(AP)—If a 160-pound watermelon was to be sold in Texas, it's not a watermelon, despite any contrary claims coming from Arkansas.

RAF For Greatest Air Victory

LONDON.—(AP)—Thousands of grateful Britons gave skyward today and with glinting eyes watched a mass fly-past of 300 RAF fighter planes commemorating the sixtieth anniversary of the decisive Battle of Britain.

So Many Owe So Much To So Few

JOHN E. STURGEON, president of the National Federation of Cooperatives, said today that the construction of a new type of house for the war years was "part of a research program for heating homes with energy from solar energy."

Bulgar Leader Defies Greeks

SOFIA.—(AP)—Vassil Kolarov, who tomorrow will take over the provisional Presidency of the new Bulgarian Republic, arrived in a radio speech on the Paris Peace Conference today that "Greek troops will not be allowed to cross an inch of Bulgarian land toward which they have stretched their robbery hands."

Railroader Whitney 'Still Sore At The President'

PHILADELPHIA.—(AP)—F. Whitney, president of the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen and former President Truman, arrived here today to open the six-weeks National Convention and asserted that he was "still sore at the President."

U. S. Ship Is Aground In English Channel

DEAL, Eng.—(AP)—Salvage tugs pulling at the American freighter Albatross in the English Channel today in pulling the bow through a 90-degree turn "put the heavy-duty tug in a precarious position on the English Channel's treacherous Goodwin Sands."

Fares Vote On Liberty

COPENHAGEN.—(AP)—Residents of the splendid dining of the turn-of-the-century Danes today voted to continue under centuries-old Danish sovereignty.

Faroes Vote On Liberty

COPENHAGEN.—(AP)—Residents of the splendid dining of the turn-of-the-century Danes today voted to continue under centuries-old Danish sovereignty.

Weather

Fair tonight and tomorrow. Slightly warmer tomorrow. High 74, low 54. Wind light and variable.

OPA Chief Scores Meat Famine Talk

Described As Irresponsible

WASHINGTON (AP)—OPA Chief Paul Porter today told housewives today to quit worrying about a "meat famine later on this Fall and Winter."

Truck Fight Board Named

NEW YORK.—Mayor William O'Dwyer entrusted to a six-man board of business men today the task of unearthing negotiations in the paralyzing strike of AFL truck drivers to act as the Mayor's Advisory Board.

Labor In Attacks On Wage Controls

By HAROLD W. WARD
WASHINGTON (AP)—The White House decision in the seamen's wage dispute spurred a fresh drive by some labor unions today for relaxation or scrapping of wage controls.

OPA Chief Scores Meat Famine Talk

WASHINGTON (AP)—OPA Chief Paul Porter today told housewives today to quit worrying about a "meat famine later on this Fall and Winter."

Truck Fight Board Named

NEW YORK.—Mayor William O'Dwyer entrusted to a six-man board of business men today the task of unearthing negotiations in the paralyzing strike of AFL truck drivers to act as the Mayor's Advisory Board.

Labor In Attacks On Wage Controls

By HAROLD W. WARD
WASHINGTON (AP)—The White House decision in the seamen's wage dispute spurred a fresh drive by some labor unions today for relaxation or scrapping of wage controls.

OPA Chief Scores Meat Famine Talk

WASHINGTON (AP)—OPA Chief Paul Porter today told housewives today to quit worrying about a "meat famine later on this Fall and Winter."

Truck Fight Board Named

NEW YORK.—Mayor William O'Dwyer entrusted to a six-man board of business men today the task of unearthing negotiations in the paralyzing strike of AFL truck drivers to act as the Mayor's Advisory Board.

Labor In Attacks On Wage Controls

By HAROLD W. WARD
WASHINGTON (AP)—The White House decision in the seamen's wage dispute spurred a fresh drive by some labor unions today for relaxation or scrapping of wage controls.

If Peace Wanted Molotov Warns Conference Not To Ignore Russia

Described As Irresponsible

PARIS.—(AP)—V. M. Molotov warned the Paris Peace Conference today "it would be dangerous to ignore the Soviet Union" if peace was wanted.

Tail-End Of Hurricane Storm Headed For New England Area

BOSTON.—(AP)—New England was in for a north-east gale tonight, the Weather Bureau warned, tail-end of a tropical hurricane that is spending itself at sea.

One Dead In Hotel Fire

HOT SPRINGS, Ark.—(AP)—One man was fatally injured and nine others were injured critically early today in a spectacular fire that destroyed the 75-room Great Northern Hotel.

Solar Experiment Approved By CPA

BOSTON.—(AP)—The regional office of the Civilian Production Administration said today it has authorized Massachusetts Institute of Technology to build an experimental solar house for research in heating homes with energy from solar energy.

Bulgar Leader Defies Greeks

SOFIA.—(AP)—Vassil Kolarov, who tomorrow will take over the provisional Presidency of the new Bulgarian Republic, arrived in a radio speech on the Paris Peace Conference today that "Greek troops will not be allowed to cross an inch of Bulgarian land toward which they have stretched their robbery hands."

Railroader Whitney 'Still Sore At The President'

PHILADELPHIA.—(AP)—F. Whitney, president of the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen and former President Truman, arrived here today to open the six-weeks National Convention and asserted that he was "still sore at the President."

U. S. Ship Is Aground In English Channel

DEAL, Eng.—(AP)—Salvage tugs pulling at the American freighter Albatross in the English Channel today in pulling the bow through a 90-degree turn "put the heavy-duty tug in a precarious position on the English Channel's treacherous Goodwin Sands."

Fares Vote On Liberty

COPENHAGEN.—(AP)—Residents of the splendid dining of the turn-of-the-century Danes today voted to continue under centuries-old Danish sovereignty.

Faroes Vote On Liberty

COPENHAGEN.—(AP)—Residents of the splendid dining of the turn-of-the-century Danes today voted to continue under centuries-old Danish sovereignty.

Weather

Fair tonight and tomorrow. Slightly warmer tomorrow. High 74, low 54. Wind light and variable.

Didn't Mean To Approve Wallace's N.Y. Speech

Okayed 'Right' To Make Address

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Truman said today there had been a "natural misunderstanding" of his endorsement of Secretary Wallace's foreign policy speech.

Tail-End Of Hurricane Storm Headed For New England Area

BOSTON.—(AP)—New England was in for a north-east gale tonight, the Weather Bureau warned, tail-end of a tropical hurricane that is spending itself at sea.

One Dead In Hotel Fire

HOT SPRINGS, Ark.—(AP)—One man was fatally injured and nine others were injured critically early today in a spectacular fire that destroyed the 75-room Great Northern Hotel.

Solar Experiment Approved By CPA

BOSTON.—(AP)—The regional office of the Civilian Production Administration said today it has authorized Massachusetts Institute of Technology to build an experimental solar house for research in heating homes with energy from solar energy.

Bulgar Leader Defies Greeks

SOFIA.—(AP)—Vassil Kolarov, who tomorrow will take over the provisional Presidency of the new Bulgarian Republic, arrived in a radio speech on the Paris Peace Conference today that "Greek troops will not be allowed to cross an inch of Bulgarian land toward which they have stretched their robbery hands."

Railroader Whitney 'Still Sore At The President'

PHILADELPHIA.—(AP)—F. Whitney, president of the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen and former President Truman, arrived here today to open the six-weeks National Convention and asserted that he was "still sore at the President."

U. S. Ship Is Aground In English Channel

DEAL, Eng.—(AP)—Salvage tugs pulling at the American freighter Albatross in the English Channel today in pulling the bow through a 90-degree turn "put the heavy-duty tug in a precarious position on the English Channel's treacherous Goodwin Sands."

Fares Vote On Liberty

COPENHAGEN.—(AP)—Residents of the splendid dining of the turn-of-the-century Danes today voted to continue under centuries-old Danish sovereignty.

Faroes Vote On Liberty

COPENHAGEN.—(AP)—Residents of the splendid dining of the turn-of-the-century Danes today voted to continue under centuries-old Danish sovereignty.

Weather

Fair tonight and tomorrow. Slightly warmer tomorrow. High 74, low 54. Wind light and variable.