

Congressman's Charge Throws Hearing Into Upward Spiral

Agriculture Department Accused Of Falsehoods

Farm Living Level Disputed

WASHINGTON (AP)—Rep. Gross (R-Pa.) threw a joint session of the House and Senate Agriculture Committees into an uproar today as he accused the Agriculture Department of "deliberate falsehoods and bright lies" in its description of the plight of the average American farmer.

BEULAH AND BUD FREED—Eighteen-year-old Beulah Overell (left) looks the other way as a juror kisses her fellow-defendant and former sweetheart, George "Bud" Gollum (right), in a court at Santa Ana, Calif., after their acquittal of murder charges for the death of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Overell. Beulah and Bud parted without speaking. She said their romance has ended, and she's through with Bud. (AP Wirephoto).

WASHINGTON (AP)—Rep. Gross (R-Pa.) threw a joint session of the House and Senate Agriculture Committees into an uproar today as he accused the Agriculture Department of "deliberate falsehoods and bright lies" in its description of the plight of the average American farmer.

London Papers Speculate

Several Members Of British Cabinet Ousted In Shake-Up

LONDON (AP)—The London Star reported late today that Prime Minister Attlee had removed five Ministers. Emanuel Shinwell, the chairman of the Labor Party, from his job which does not carry Cabinet rank and puts him under the immediate supervision of the Defense Minister, The Star said.

Parole Head Raps Illinois Officer

WASHINGTON (AP)—Daniel M. Lyons, chairman of the Federal Parole Board, accused an Illinois Public Safety officer today of "backing out" on an offer to serve as parole supervisor for a former Chicago gangster. He called it a "despicable thing."

Will Fight Any Action Wife Takes

LEEDS, England (AP)—Mrs. Vincent said today her husband had informed her by letter received this morning that he did not intend to return to Britain. She said she was seeking advice on legal steps to regain the child.

NC Man Brings Son Home

LEEDS, England (AP)—Mrs. Vincent said today her husband had informed her by letter received this morning that he did not intend to return to Britain. She said she was seeking advice on legal steps to regain the child.

Margins For Grain Marts Set Higher

Meatless Days Washed In

WASHINGTON (AP)—A hike in margins on the nation's big grain exchanges at the insistence of the Government today ushered in the first of President Truman's "Meatless Tuesdays" to save food for Europe.

Union Forces Mayor, Councilmen To Quit

DALTON, Ga. (AP)—The Mayor and two Councilmen resigned today following the election of City Council last night in which sympathizers of the Communist Party forced their reinstatement by forcing exits from the chamber.

Pakistan Delegate Speaks

Partitioning Plan Objections Voiced

LAKE SUCCESS (AP)—The New Moslem Dominion of Pakistan joined the Arab countries today in demanding rejection of proposals for partitioning and urging an immediate end to Jewish immigration into the Holy Land.

ANPA Files ITU Charges

CINCINNATI (AP)—The American Newspaper Publishers Association today charged the International Typographical Union with violation of the Labor-Management Relations Act of 1947.

Holiday Ruling

WASHINGTON (AP)—Christmas Eve will be a federal holiday on Thanksgiving, Army and Navy's although three holidays will not be observed and postoffice hours will be reduced.

No Meat Today

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Chairman Charles Luckman of the Citizens Food Council has asked news services to distribute the following statement: "The tremendous support our nation's newspapers are giving to the Citizens Food Committee program is greatly appreciated."

Raleigh Interview

RALEIGH (AP)—"I am opposed to capital punishment," Hugh Wilson, warden of the State Central Prison, said here today.

N. C. Warden Opposes Capital Punishment

RALEIGH (AP)—"I am opposed to capital punishment," Hugh Wilson, warden of the State Central Prison, said here today.

Big Four Ministers Will Meet In London

LONDON (AP)—The British Foreign Office announced today that Russia had agreed to a Big Four Foreign Ministers Council Nov. 25 for a second attempt to write a German peace treaty, which may be a crucial test of world co-operation.

New Comintern Seen By Britain

LONDON (AP)—The British Foreign Office announced today that Russia had agreed to a Big Four Foreign Ministers Council Nov. 25 for a second attempt to write a German peace treaty, which may be a crucial test of world co-operation.

McGill University Honors Marshall

MONTREAL (AP)—McGill University awarded Secretary of State George C. Marshall an honorary degree today in a ceremony held in the city.

Ministers Oppose

RALEIGH (AP)—"I am opposed to capital punishment," Hugh Wilson, warden of the State Central Prison, said here today.

Capital Punishment

RALEIGH (AP)—"I am opposed to capital punishment," Hugh Wilson, warden of the State Central Prison, said here today.

Weather

Mostly cloudy with light rain today and occasional light rain today and occasional light rain today and occasional light rain today.

Agribusiness

Washington

WASHINGTON (AP)—Rep. Gross (R-Pa.) threw a joint session of the House and Senate Agriculture Committees into an uproar today as he accused the Agriculture Department of "deliberate falsehoods and bright lies" in its description of the plight of the average American farmer.

Parole Board

WASHINGTON (AP)—Daniel M. Lyons, chairman of the Federal Parole Board, accused an Illinois Public Safety officer today of "backing out" on an offer to serve as parole supervisor for a former Chicago gangster. He called it a "despicable thing."

ANPA Files ITU Charges

CINCINNATI (AP)—The American Newspaper Publishers Association today charged the International Typographical Union with violation of the Labor-Management Relations Act of 1947.

Holiday Ruling

WASHINGTON (AP)—Christmas Eve will be a federal holiday on Thanksgiving, Army and Navy's although three holidays will not be observed and postoffice hours will be reduced.

No Meat Today

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Chairman Charles Luckman of the Citizens Food Council has asked news services to distribute the following statement: "The tremendous support our nation's newspapers are giving to the Citizens Food Committee program is greatly appreciated."

Raleigh Interview

RALEIGH (AP)—"I am opposed to capital punishment," Hugh Wilson, warden of the State Central Prison, said here today.

N. C. Warden Opposes Capital Punishment

RALEIGH (AP)—"I am opposed to capital punishment," Hugh Wilson, warden of the State Central Prison, said here today.

Weather

Mostly cloudy with light rain today and occasional light rain today and occasional light rain today and occasional light rain today.

McGill University Honors Marshall

MONTREAL (AP)—McGill University awarded Secretary of State George C. Marshall an honorary degree today in a ceremony held in the city.

Ministers Oppose

RALEIGH (AP)—"I am opposed to capital punishment," Hugh Wilson, warden of the State Central Prison, said here today.

Capital Punishment

RALEIGH (AP)—"I am opposed to capital punishment," Hugh Wilson, warden of the State Central Prison, said here today.

Weather

Mostly cloudy with light rain today and occasional light rain today and occasional light rain today and occasional light rain today.

McGill University Honors Marshall

MONTREAL (AP)—McGill University awarded Secretary of State George C. Marshall an honorary degree today in a ceremony held in the city.