

Republican-Sponsored Tax Bill Wins First House Test

Bill To Control Picketing Introduced In Assembly

Amendments Barred As Debate On Plan Opens

Truman Voices Opposition

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Republican-backed $3,840,000,000 tax-cutting bill won its first test today when the House voted to consider this measure on a take-it-or-leave-it basis.

International Incident Row Over Paulette's Hair-Do Stops Movie

LONDON—(AP)—An unauthorized strike over Paulette Goddard's hair-do paralyzed the production of a $2,000,000 movie today.

PAULETTE GODDARD

Proposed Bill Would Ban Interference Solons Pressing For Adjustment

RALEIGH (AP)—A bill to control picketing in North Carolina was introduced in the Legislature today by Senator Johnson of Duplin.

Moscow Foreign Colony Worn Out Greek Reception And Soviet Ballet Provide Full Evening

MOSCOW (AP)—The principal delegates to the Council of Foreign Ministers and most of Moscow's foreign colony struggled wearily today to throw off the effects of last night's strange mixture of champagne, vodka, Greek hospitality and Russian ballet.

Old Timers Agree Coal Miners Don't Have Chance

By TOM MADDOX CENTRALIA, Ill. (AP)—Hope of life for the last of 122 men entombed by a coal mine explosion near here Tuesday afternoon all but flickered out today, but cheerless rescue workers kept digging away nevertheless in a gaseous, clogged-up passage 545 feet underground.

Asheville To Be Host To Teachers

ASHEVILLE—Teachers from every corner of the state will come here tomorrow for the 63rd annual convention of the North Carolina Educational Association—a meeting expected to attract attention by its unprecedented contest for the presidency and what some see as the possibility of fireworks in the quarterly election.

NCEA Convention

Association director for North Carolina said the convention will be held in the Municipal Auditorium.

County Pay Raise Bill Introduced

Representative Frank K. Sims today introduced a bill in the Legislature to increase the salaries of principal department heads of the County Government.

Early Aid Action Urged

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Truman expressed hope today that Congress will approve his $400,000,000 Greek-Turkish aid program before March 31—the deadline for British withdrawal of aid to Greece.

Help Comes Fast

The night shift stood around yesterday afternoon when they had their turn to go to work, a rumbling roar of air came up from the shaft and after it came a column of milky gray smoke.

Ferguson To Vote Against Lillenthal

WASHINGTON (AP)—Senator Ferguson, Republican, Michigan, announced today he will vote against confirming DAVID E. Lillenthal as chairman of the Atomic Energy Commission.

Warning To Business President Concerned Over Rising Prices

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Truman expressed concern today over rising prices generally and asked the business industry to cooperate to reduce them.

38 Delegates Attend Convention

Thirty-eight delegates from the Charlotte Teachers Association will attend the three-day convention of the North Carolina Educational Association which opens tomorrow in Asheville.

Russia Ignores Trustee Session

LAKE SUCCESS, N. Y. (AP)—Soviet Russia ignored the opening session today of the United Nations Trusteeship Council whose original mission is to look after the interests of the world's non-self-governing people.

Supplies Evidence To Ruin Her Own Case

LOS ANGELES (AP)—After providing evidence in the Arthur Brisbane case, a Superior Court jury decided they looked all right.