

Galloway Elected State American Legion Commander

Young Vets Named To 3 Division Offices

Kirby Named To National Board

By TOM WATKINS Charlotte News Staff Writer CAROLINA BEACH—Ray Galloway of Wilmington was elected North Carolina Department commander of the American Legion today at its 1947 convention here. He got 609 votes to 564 for Carlyle Shepard of Chapel Hill.

Measure Goes To Senate

House Accepts Rent Bill Terms

WASHINGTON—(AP)—The House accepted today a joint Congressional committee's recommendations on the terms of a measure to extend rent control until Feb. 29, 1948.

Lynching Trial

Greenville Case May Be Reopened

WASHINGTON—(AP)—Justice Department officials said today they are considering Federal prosecution of persons connected with mob violence during which Willie Earle, Greenville, S. C., Negro, lost his life in February.

Cultural Service Probe Considered

WASHINGTON—(AP)—Senator Vandenberg, Republican, Michigan, said today a proposal by Senator Rife, Democrat, New Mexico, for an investigation of the operations of the Cultural Service is being given serious consideration by the Senate Foreign Relations Committee.

Iowa Area Hit By Hail Storm

FORT DODGE, Ia.—(AP)—A 45-minute hail storm hit this northern Iowa section early today and drove two high winds reported to have blocked roads in some places.

Prompted By Recent Disasters Five Experts Hand-Picked By Truman Begin Air Safety Study

By JAMES J. STREIB Associated Press Aviation Reporter WASHINGTON—(AP)—Five experts hand-picked by President Truman today begin an air safety study prompted by 146 deaths on commercial airlines since May 29.

Weather

Partly cloudy; little change in temperature today and tonight; slightly warmer Wednesday.

Ship Freight Embargo In Prospect

Craft Tied Up By Work Stoppage

NEW YORK—(AP)—An embargo on loading of freight consigned to foreign ports in American ships "probably" will be put into effect at 3 P. M. (EST) today because of the CIO seamen's stoppage which has tied up hundreds of vessels, George C. Randall, manager of port traffic here for the association of American Railroads announced.

Measure Goes To Senate

House Accepts Rent Bill Terms

WASHINGTON—(AP)—The House accepted today a joint Congressional committee's recommendations on the terms of a measure to extend rent control until Feb. 29, 1948.

Lynching Trial

Greenville Case May Be Reopened

WASHINGTON—(AP)—Justice Department officials said today they are considering Federal prosecution of persons connected with mob violence during which Willie Earle, Greenville, S. C., Negro, lost his life in February.

Cultural Service Probe Considered

WASHINGTON—(AP)—Senator Vandenberg, Republican, Michigan, said today a proposal by Senator Rife, Democrat, New Mexico, for an investigation of the operations of the Cultural Service is being given serious consideration by the Senate Foreign Relations Committee.

Iowa Area Hit By Hail Storm

FORT DODGE, Ia.—(AP)—A 45-minute hail storm hit this northern Iowa section early today and drove two high winds reported to have blocked roads in some places.

Prompted By Recent Disasters Five Experts Hand-Picked By Truman Begin Air Safety Study

By JAMES J. STREIB Associated Press Aviation Reporter WASHINGTON—(AP)—Five experts hand-picked by President Truman today begin an air safety study prompted by 146 deaths on commercial airlines since May 29.

Weather

Partly cloudy; little change in temperature today and tonight; slightly warmer Wednesday.

Originate In California

'Draft Henry Wallace For President' Boom Starts

WASHINGTON—(AP)—A "draft Henry Wallace for President" movement began to take shape today as the former Vice-President availed himself of a radio broadcast to call for Truman-Stalin meeting in Berlin to settle Soviet-American differences.

Measure Goes To Senate

House Accepts Rent Bill Terms

WASHINGTON—(AP)—The House accepted today a joint Congressional committee's recommendations on the terms of a measure to extend rent control until Feb. 29, 1948.

Lynching Trial

Greenville Case May Be Reopened

WASHINGTON—(AP)—Justice Department officials said today they are considering Federal prosecution of persons connected with mob violence during which Willie Earle, Greenville, S. C., Negro, lost his life in February.

Cultural Service Probe Considered

WASHINGTON—(AP)—Senator Vandenberg, Republican, Michigan, said today a proposal by Senator Rife, Democrat, New Mexico, for an investigation of the operations of the Cultural Service is being given serious consideration by the Senate Foreign Relations Committee.

Iowa Area Hit By Hail Storm

FORT DODGE, Ia.—(AP)—A 45-minute hail storm hit this northern Iowa section early today and drove two high winds reported to have blocked roads in some places.

Prompted By Recent Disasters Five Experts Hand-Picked By Truman Begin Air Safety Study

By JAMES J. STREIB Associated Press Aviation Reporter WASHINGTON—(AP)—Five experts hand-picked by President Truman today begin an air safety study prompted by 146 deaths on commercial airlines since May 29.

Weather

Partly cloudy; little change in temperature today and tonight; slightly warmer Wednesday.

Originate In California

'Draft Henry Wallace For President' Boom Starts

WASHINGTON—(AP)—A "draft Henry Wallace for President" movement began to take shape today as the former Vice-President availed himself of a radio broadcast to call for Truman-Stalin meeting in Berlin to settle Soviet-American differences.

Measure Goes To Senate

House Accepts Rent Bill Terms

WASHINGTON—(AP)—The House accepted today a joint Congressional committee's recommendations on the terms of a measure to extend rent control until Feb. 29, 1948.

Lynching Trial

Greenville Case May Be Reopened

WASHINGTON—(AP)—Justice Department officials said today they are considering Federal prosecution of persons connected with mob violence during which Willie Earle, Greenville, S. C., Negro, lost his life in February.

Cultural Service Probe Considered

WASHINGTON—(AP)—Senator Vandenberg, Republican, Michigan, said today a proposal by Senator Rife, Democrat, New Mexico, for an investigation of the operations of the Cultural Service is being given serious consideration by the Senate Foreign Relations Committee.

Iowa Area Hit By Hail Storm

FORT DODGE, Ia.—(AP)—A 45-minute hail storm hit this northern Iowa section early today and drove two high winds reported to have blocked roads in some places.

Prompted By Recent Disasters Five Experts Hand-Picked By Truman Begin Air Safety Study

By JAMES J. STREIB Associated Press Aviation Reporter WASHINGTON—(AP)—Five experts hand-picked by President Truman today begin an air safety study prompted by 146 deaths on commercial airlines since May 29.

Weather

Partly cloudy; little change in temperature today and tonight; slightly warmer Wednesday.

House Fails To Override President's Disapproval

Two Votes Short Of Two-Thirds

WASHINGTON—(AP)—The House today upheld President Truman's veto of the $4,000,000 truck tax reduction bill, thus killing it finally and completely.

Measure Goes To Senate

House Accepts Rent Bill Terms

WASHINGTON—(AP)—The House accepted today a joint Congressional committee's recommendations on the terms of a measure to extend rent control until Feb. 29, 1948.

Lynching Trial

Greenville Case May Be Reopened

WASHINGTON—(AP)—Justice Department officials said today they are considering Federal prosecution of persons connected with mob violence during which Willie Earle, Greenville, S. C., Negro, lost his life in February.

Cultural Service Probe Considered

WASHINGTON—(AP)—Senator Vandenberg, Republican, Michigan, said today a proposal by Senator Rife, Democrat, New Mexico, for an investigation of the operations of the Cultural Service is being given serious consideration by the Senate Foreign Relations Committee.

Iowa Area Hit By Hail Storm

FORT DODGE, Ia.—(AP)—A 45-minute hail storm hit this northern Iowa section early today and drove two high winds reported to have blocked roads in some places.

Prompted By Recent Disasters Five Experts Hand-Picked By Truman Begin Air Safety Study

By JAMES J. STREIB Associated Press Aviation Reporter WASHINGTON—(AP)—Five experts hand-picked by President Truman today begin an air safety study prompted by 146 deaths on commercial airlines since May 29.

Weather

Partly cloudy; little change in temperature today and tonight; slightly warmer Wednesday.

Strike Cuts Store Trade

Truman Asks For Training

WASHINGTON—(AP)—President Truman apparently tripled his original estimate of the amount of money the Government will have left over a year hence.

Measure Goes To Senate

House Accepts Rent Bill Terms

WASHINGTON—(AP)—The House accepted today a joint Congressional committee's recommendations on the terms of a measure to extend rent control until Feb. 29, 1948.

Lynching Trial

Greenville Case May Be Reopened

WASHINGTON—(AP)—Justice Department officials said today they are considering Federal prosecution of persons connected with mob violence during which Willie Earle, Greenville, S. C., Negro, lost his life in February.

Cultural Service Probe Considered

WASHINGTON—(AP)—Senator Vandenberg, Republican, Michigan, said today a proposal by Senator Rife, Democrat, New Mexico, for an investigation of the operations of the Cultural Service is being given serious consideration by the Senate Foreign Relations Committee.

Iowa Area Hit By Hail Storm

FORT DODGE, Ia.—(AP)—A 45-minute hail storm hit this northern Iowa section early today and drove two high winds reported to have blocked roads in some places.

Prompted By Recent Disasters Five Experts Hand-Picked By Truman Begin Air Safety Study

By JAMES J. STREIB Associated Press Aviation Reporter WASHINGTON—(AP)—Five experts hand-picked by President Truman today begin an air safety study prompted by 146 deaths on commercial airlines since May 29.

Weather

Partly cloudy; little change in temperature today and tonight; slightly warmer Wednesday.

German Woman On Treason Trial Stand

BOSTON—(AP)—A blonde, red-checked German housewife testified in Federal court today that Douglas Clyde Schindler, a close Harvard writer on trial for treason, had complained about the manner the Nazi radio had handled the "Paul Revere" talks beamed at the United States.

Chandler Case

MARGARET STITLER, a native of London, said that while she and her husband were visiting at Chandler's Berlin home he complained of the technical nature of his programs. He had said, she told the jury, he wanted a good announcer for his talks and some high-spirited music at the beginning and end of each broadcast.

Weather

Partly cloudy; little change in temperature today and tonight; slightly warmer Wednesday.

RECOURT OBTAINED

When that court turned up on the roll call, Republican Leader Hiram Boren of Oklahoma demanded and obtained a recount, but no votes were changed.

Measure Goes To Senate

House Accepts Rent Bill Terms

WASHINGTON—(AP)—The House accepted today a joint Congressional committee's recommendations on the terms of a measure to extend rent control until Feb. 29, 1948.

Lynching Trial

Greenville Case May Be Reopened

WASHINGTON—(AP)—Justice Department officials said today they are considering Federal prosecution of persons connected with mob violence during which Willie Earle, Greenville, S. C., Negro, lost his life in February.

Cultural Service Probe Considered

WASHINGTON—(AP)—Senator Vandenberg, Republican, Michigan, said today a proposal by Senator Rife, Democrat, New Mexico, for an investigation of the operations of the Cultural Service is being given serious consideration by the Senate Foreign Relations Committee.

Iowa Area Hit By Hail Storm

FORT DODGE, Ia.—(AP)—A 45-minute hail storm hit this northern Iowa section early today and drove two high winds reported to have blocked roads in some places.

Prompted By Recent Disasters Five Experts Hand-Picked By Truman Begin Air Safety Study

By JAMES J. STREIB Associated Press Aviation Reporter WASHINGTON—(AP)—Five experts hand-picked by President Truman today begin an air safety study prompted by 146 deaths on commercial airlines since May 29.

Weather

Partly cloudy; little change in temperature today and tonight; slightly warmer Wednesday.

How North Carolina Legislators Voted

WASHINGTON—(AP)—Here's how North Carolina legislators voted today in the House action which would extend the retroactive effect of the tax reduction bill.

How South Carolina Lawmakers Balloted

WASHINGTON—(AP)—Here's how South Carolina representatives voted today in the House action which would extend the retroactive effect of the tax reduction bill.

Negro Dies In Georgia Chair

REIDSVILLE, Ga.—(AP)—James Brown, 25-year-old Negro, died in a three-hour trial at Reidsville, Ga. May 29. He was also charged with the rape of a white woman.

Weather

Partly cloudy; little change in temperature today and tonight; slightly warmer Wednesday.