

THE CHARLOTTE NEWS

Charlotte, North Carolina, Wednesday, February 23, 1949

Senate Group Cuts Scott Road Program In Half

SCOTT OPPOSES STATE-LOCAL

★★★★★
Final

26 Pages—Price Five Cents

Gas Levy, Bond Issue Are Linked

Group Also Hits Inspection Law

RALEIGH (AP)—The Senate Roads Committee voted today to cut Governor Scott's rural road program in half.

The Committee adopted amendments proposed by a subcommittee under which a $100,000,000 bond issue for rural roads would be submitted to the people instead of the $200,000,000 as asked by the Governor.

Before reporting the bond issue, the Committee adopted another amendment to make a proposed one-cent increase in the gasoline tax contingent upon approval of the bond issue by the people.

The Committee then gave a favorable report to a measure which would abolish the State's program of mechanical inspection of motor vehicles. This bill was passed overwhelmingly by the House last week.

The House Roads Committee members gave its blessing to a measure which would allocate to the State the proceeds from one cent of the six-cent gasoline tax. The funds would be used to build a new highway system.

The Committee also gave its approval to a measure calling for a one-cent increase in the gasoline tax to be levied on the State.

New legislation introduced today would:

1. Call for an action on a Constitutional amendment to increase the number of Senators from 10 to 15 for a term of 10 years. It was introduced in the House by Rep. R. L. Whitmore of Henderson.

2. Create a "state stream sanitation commission" to study and give it powers to reduce stream pollution. It was introduced in the House by Rep. W. T. Hatch of Henderson.

3. Amend the motor vehicle law so as to prohibit installation of television screens in front seats of motor vehicles, provide permanent license plates for publicly-owned vehicles, and give Highway Patrolmen the power to stop driving licenses when they are revoked or suspended. Rep. W. T. Hatch introduced the bill.

4. Provide for a "state retirement system" for teachers and state employees. It was introduced in the House by Rep. J. Frank Vance of Vance and in the Senate by Senator L. H. Fountain of Edgecombe.

5. Re-enact a 1933 law allowing the State to sue for any amount of damages in any suit against a teacher for one year for each year of neglect. It was introduced in the Senate by Rep. O. B. Moss of Raleigh.

The Senate Committee also adopted amendments which would amend the date of the bond election for Tuesday, June 28 and another which would speed up the date of the election to June 28, 1949.

The amendments were not adopted without opposition.

Senator J. C. Pittman of Lee said he did not believe the people of North Carolina will be satisfied if they are not given a chance to vote on the bond issue.

Senator L. H. Fountain of Edgecombe said he was not in favor of the bond issue because it would be a $100,000,000 bond issue alone is sufficient, it would cause discussion and hard feelings among the people who feel they are being discriminated against.

But Senator L. Richardson said the Legislature on page 12-A

Says Passport 'Snatched' 'Sassy' Takes Stand

By KARL B. BAUMAN
WASHINGTON (AP)—Mildred E. Gillars (Axis Sally) testified today in her treason trial that her passport was "snatched" from her by an American official in Berlin before this country entered the war.

She said she was given no explanation.

Mrs. Gillars testified that she made an appointment to see Vice Consul Vaughn (not further identified) in order to have her passport renewed.

"He just snatched it from me," Mrs. Gillars told the jury. "His manner was very gruff, and unkind."

GIVEN RECEIPT
She said Vaughn gave her a receipt for the passport, and this was the only receipt she had for the passport. She said she had no other receipt.

James J. Laughlin, Miss Gillars' attorney, spent much time going over the passport incident with the 44-year-old Maine-born defendant.

In his opening statement to the jury, Laughlin had said that after Miss Gillars lost her passport she could not have left Germany.

She testified that just before she was arrested, she was told by a man who said he was a "straitlaced announcer," mistress of ceremonies and played in a band.

She testified that just before she was arrested, she was told by a man who said he was a "straitlaced announcer," mistress of ceremonies and played in a band.

She testified that just before she was arrested, she was told by a man who said he was a "straitlaced announcer," mistress of ceremonies and played in a band.

She testified that just before she was arrested, she was told by a man who said he was a "straitlaced announcer," mistress of ceremonies and played in a band.

She testified that just before she was arrested, she was told by a man who said he was a "straitlaced announcer," mistress of ceremonies and played in a band.

She testified that just before she was arrested, she was told by a man who said he was a "straitlaced announcer," mistress of ceremonies and played in a band.

She testified that just before she was arrested, she was told by a man who said he was a "straitlaced announcer," mistress of ceremonies and played in a band.

She testified that just before she was arrested, she was told by a man who said he was a "straitlaced announcer," mistress of ceremonies and played in a band.

She testified that just before she was arrested, she was told by a man who said he was a "straitlaced announcer," mistress of ceremonies and played in a band.

She testified that just before she was arrested, she was told by a man who said he was a "straitlaced announcer," mistress of ceremonies and played in a band.

She testified that just before she was arrested, she was told by a man who said he was a "straitlaced announcer," mistress of ceremonies and played in a band.

She testified that just before she was arrested, she was told by a man who said he was a "straitlaced announcer," mistress of ceremonies and played in a band.

She testified that just before she was arrested, she was told by a man who said he was a "straitlaced announcer," mistress of ceremonies and played in a band.

Truman Defends His Aides

By ERNEST B. VACCARO
WASHINGTON (AP)—Criticism of the Administration's handling of the Japanese attack on Pearl Harbor from President Truman's aides was "a straightlaced announcer," mistress of ceremonies and played in a band.

Mr. Truman's aides were "a straightlaced announcer," mistress of ceremonies and played in a band.

Mr. Truman's aides were "a straightlaced announcer," mistress of ceremonies and played in a band.

Mr. Truman's aides were "a straightlaced announcer," mistress of ceremonies and played in a band.

Mr. Truman's aides were "a straightlaced announcer," mistress of ceremonies and played in a band.

Mr. Truman's aides were "a straightlaced announcer," mistress of ceremonies and played in a band.

Mr. Truman's aides were "a straightlaced announcer," mistress of ceremonies and played in a band.

Mr. Truman's aides were "a straightlaced announcer," mistress of ceremonies and played in a band.

Mr. Truman's aides were "a straightlaced announcer," mistress of ceremonies and played in a band.

Mr. Truman's aides were "a straightlaced announcer," mistress of ceremonies and played in a band.

Mr. Truman's aides were "a straightlaced announcer," mistress of ceremonies and played in a band.

Mr. Truman's aides were "a straightlaced announcer," mistress of ceremonies and played in a band.

Mr. Truman's aides were "a straightlaced announcer," mistress of ceremonies and played in a band.

Mr. Truman's aides were "a straightlaced announcer," mistress of ceremonies and played in a band.

Mr. Truman's aides were "a straightlaced announcer," mistress of ceremonies and played in a band.

Mr. Truman's aides were "a straightlaced announcer," mistress of ceremonies and played in a band.

Mr. Truman's aides were "a straightlaced announcer," mistress of ceremonies and played in a band.

Mr. Truman's aides were "a straightlaced announcer," mistress of ceremonies and played in a band.

Mr. Truman's aides were "a straightlaced announcer," mistress of ceremonies and played in a band.

Threat Of Long Coal Strike Cited

By MARVIN L. ARROWSMITH
WASHINGTON (AP)—A spokesman for coal mine operators told Congress today that there is a 30 to 50-day miners' strike would put the country in a "very serious situation."

Joseph E. Moody, president of the Southern Coal Producers Association, was arguing to the Senate Labor Committee that there is a 30 to 50-day miners' strike would put the country in a "very serious situation."

Moody testified as the committee members and public hearings on the Administration's labor bill after a month of stormy sessions. The hearings are scheduled to wind up late today.

Moody testified as the committee members and public hearings on the Administration's labor bill after a month of stormy sessions. The hearings are scheduled to wind up late today.

Moody testified as the committee members and public hearings on the Administration's labor bill after a month of stormy sessions. The hearings are scheduled to wind up late today.

Moody testified as the committee members and public hearings on the Administration's labor bill after a month of stormy sessions. The hearings are scheduled to wind up late today.

Moody testified as the committee members and public hearings on the Administration's labor bill after a month of stormy sessions. The hearings are scheduled to wind up late today.

Moody testified as the committee members and public hearings on the Administration's labor bill after a month of stormy sessions. The hearings are scheduled to wind up late today.

Moody testified as the committee members and public hearings on the Administration's labor bill after a month of stormy sessions. The hearings are scheduled to wind up late today.

Moody testified as the committee members and public hearings on the Administration's labor bill after a month of stormy sessions. The hearings are scheduled to wind up late today.

Moody testified as the committee members and public hearings on the Administration's labor bill after a month of stormy sessions. The hearings are scheduled to wind up late today.

Moody testified as the committee members and public hearings on the Administration's labor bill after a month of stormy sessions. The hearings are scheduled to wind up late today.

Moody testified as the committee members and public hearings on the Administration's labor bill after a month of stormy sessions. The hearings are scheduled to wind up late today.

Moody testified as the committee members and public hearings on the Administration's labor bill after a month of stormy sessions. The hearings are scheduled to wind up late today.

Moody testified as the committee members and public hearings on the Administration's labor bill after a month of stormy sessions. The hearings are scheduled to wind up late today.

Moody testified as the committee members and public hearings on the Administration's labor bill after a month of stormy sessions. The hearings are scheduled to wind up late today.

Moody testified as the committee members and public hearings on the Administration's labor bill after a month of stormy sessions. The hearings are scheduled to wind up late today.

Moody testified as the committee members and public hearings on the Administration's labor bill after a month of stormy sessions. The hearings are scheduled to wind up late today.

Moody testified as the committee members and public hearings on the Administration's labor bill after a month of stormy sessions. The hearings are scheduled to wind up late today.

Local Option Argued At Liquor Hearing

By PETE McKNIGHT
Charlotte News Staff Writer
RALEIGH (AP)—Proponents of the county option for voting on the legal sale of alcoholic beverages turned out in large numbers here yesterday to register a strong protest against two State liquor referendum bills now before the General Assembly.

The big crowd, variously estimated between 1,000 and 2,500 persons, forced the Joint House and Senate committees on Provisions and Grievances to move the hearing from the hall of the House of Representatives to Raleigh's Spacious Municipal Auditorium.

There they overflowed chairs and bleachers set up for a basketball game. A battery of ABC system speakers who represented an Association of ABC counties in the state were the first to speak.

Moody testified as the committee members and public hearings on the Administration's labor bill after a month of stormy sessions. The hearings are scheduled to wind up late today.

Moody testified as the committee members and public hearings on the Administration's labor bill after a month of stormy sessions. The hearings are scheduled to wind up late today.

Moody testified as the committee members and public hearings on the Administration's labor bill after a month of stormy sessions. The hearings are scheduled to wind up late today.

Moody testified as the committee members and public hearings on the Administration's labor bill after a month of stormy sessions. The hearings are scheduled to wind up late today.

Moody testified as the committee members and public hearings on the Administration's labor bill after a month of stormy sessions. The hearings are scheduled to wind up late today.

Moody testified as the committee members and public hearings on the Administration's labor bill after a month of stormy sessions. The hearings are scheduled to wind up late today.

Moody testified as the committee members and public hearings on the Administration's labor bill after a month of stormy sessions. The hearings are scheduled to wind up late today.

Moody testified as the committee members and public hearings on the Administration's labor bill after a month of stormy sessions. The hearings are scheduled to wind up late today.

Moody testified as the committee members and public hearings on the Administration's labor bill after a month of stormy sessions. The hearings are scheduled to wind up late today.

Moody testified as the committee members and public hearings on the Administration's labor bill after a month of stormy sessions. The hearings are scheduled to wind up late today.

Moody testified as the committee members and public hearings on the Administration's labor bill after a month of stormy sessions. The hearings are scheduled to wind up late today.

Moody testified as the committee members and public hearings on the Administration's labor bill after a month of stormy sessions. The hearings are scheduled to wind up late today.

Moody testified as the committee members and public hearings on the Administration's labor bill after a month of stormy sessions. The hearings are scheduled to wind up late today.

Moody testified as the committee members and public hearings on the Administration's labor bill after a month of stormy sessions. The hearings are scheduled to wind up late today.

Moody testified as the committee members and public hearings on the Administration's labor bill after a month of stormy sessions. The hearings are scheduled to wind up late today.

Moody testified as the committee members and public hearings on the Administration's labor bill after a month of stormy sessions. The hearings are scheduled to wind up late today.

Wallace Says, S. Losing 'Cold War'

By DOUGLAS B. CORNELL
WASHINGTON (AP)—Henry A. Wallace said today that the United States is losing the "cold war" and the Communist attack was a "pushing toward bankruptcy" and a "pushing toward bankruptcy."

Wallace said today that the United States is losing the "cold war" and the Communist attack was a "pushing toward bankruptcy" and a "pushing toward bankruptcy."

Wallace said today that the United States is losing the "cold war" and the Communist attack was a "pushing toward bankruptcy" and a "pushing toward bankruptcy."

Wallace said today that the United States is losing the "cold war" and the Communist attack was a "pushing toward bankruptcy" and a "pushing toward bankruptcy."

Wallace said today that the United States is losing the "cold war" and the Communist attack was a "pushing toward bankruptcy" and a "pushing toward bankruptcy."

Wallace said today that the United States is losing the "cold war" and the Communist attack was a "pushing toward bankruptcy" and a "pushing toward bankruptcy."

Wallace said today that the United States is losing the "cold war" and the Communist attack was a "pushing toward bankruptcy" and a "pushing toward bankruptcy."

Wallace said today that the United States is losing the "cold war" and the Communist attack was a "pushing toward bankruptcy" and a "pushing toward bankruptcy."

Wallace said today that the United States is losing the "cold war" and the Communist attack was a "pushing toward bankruptcy" and a "pushing toward bankruptcy."

Wallace said today that the United States is losing the "cold war" and the Communist attack was a "pushing toward bankruptcy" and a "pushing toward bankruptcy."

Wallace said today that the United States is losing the "cold war" and the Communist attack was a "pushing toward bankruptcy" and a "pushing toward bankruptcy."

Wallace said today that the United States is losing the "cold war" and the Communist attack was a "pushing toward bankruptcy" and a "pushing toward bankruptcy."

Wallace said today that the United States is losing the "cold war" and the Communist attack was a "pushing toward bankruptcy" and a "pushing toward bankruptcy."

Wallace said today that the United States is losing the "cold war" and the Communist attack was a "pushing toward bankruptcy" and a "pushing toward bankruptcy."

Wallace said today that the United States is losing the "cold war" and the Communist attack was a "pushing toward bankruptcy" and a "pushing toward bankruptcy."

Wallace said today that the United States is losing the "cold war" and the Communist attack was a "pushing toward bankruptcy" and a "pushing toward bankruptcy."

Wallace said today that the United States is losing the "cold war" and the Communist attack was a "pushing toward bankruptcy" and a "pushing toward bankruptcy."

Wallace said today that the United States is losing the "cold war" and the Communist attack was a "pushing toward bankruptcy" and a "pushing toward bankruptcy."

Wallace said today that the United States is losing the "cold war" and the Communist attack was a "pushing toward bankruptcy" and a "pushing toward bankruptcy."

Marin Bill Boosted In Vote Plea

By RALPH (AP)—Governor Scott urged the General Assembly today "with all the earnestness I possess" to allow a state-wide election on the liquor issue.

The Governor, who addressed a joint legislative session at the end of a week which included forces arrayed in a legislative committee for a "liquor referendum" at the state-wide election, urged that the legislature pass an amendment to the constitution which would allow a state-wide election on the liquor issue.

The Governor, who addressed a joint legislative session at the end of a week which included forces arrayed in a legislative committee for a "liquor referendum" at the state-wide election, urged that the legislature pass an amendment to the constitution which would allow a state-wide election on the liquor issue.

The Governor, who addressed a joint legislative session at the end of a week which included forces arrayed in a legislative committee for a "liquor referendum" at the state-wide election, urged that the legislature pass an amendment to the constitution which would allow a state-wide election on the liquor issue.

The Governor, who addressed a joint legislative session at the end of a week which included forces arrayed in a legislative committee for a "liquor referendum" at the state-wide election, urged that the legislature pass an amendment to the constitution which would allow a state-wide election on the liquor issue.

The Governor, who addressed a joint legislative session at the end of a week which included forces arrayed in a legislative committee for a "liquor referendum" at the state-wide election, urged that the legislature pass an amendment to the constitution which would allow a state-wide election on the liquor issue.

The Governor, who addressed a joint legislative session at the end of a week which included forces arrayed in a legislative committee for a "liquor referendum" at the state-wide election, urged that the legislature pass an amendment to the constitution which would allow a state-wide election on the liquor issue.

The Governor, who addressed a joint legislative session at the end of a week which included forces arrayed in a legislative committee for a "liquor referendum" at the state-wide election, urged that the legislature pass an amendment to the constitution which would allow a state-wide election on the liquor issue.

The Governor, who addressed a joint legislative session at the end of a week which included forces arrayed in a legislative committee for a "liquor referendum" at the state-wide election, urged that the legislature pass an amendment to the constitution which would allow a state-wide election on the liquor issue.

The Governor, who addressed a joint legislative session at the end of a week which included forces arrayed in a legislative committee for a "liquor referendum" at the state-wide election, urged that the legislature pass an amendment to the constitution which would allow a state-wide election on the liquor issue.

The Governor, who addressed a joint legislative session at the end of a week which included forces arrayed in a legislative committee for a "liquor referendum" at the state-wide election, urged that the legislature pass an amendment to the constitution which would allow a state-wide election on the liquor issue.

The Governor, who addressed a joint legislative session at the end of a week which included forces arrayed in a legislative committee for a "liquor referendum" at the state-wide election, urged that the legislature pass an amendment to the constitution which would allow a state-wide election on the liquor issue.

The Governor, who addressed a joint legislative session at the end of a week which included forces arrayed in a legislative committee for a "liquor referendum" at the state-wide election, urged that the legislature pass an amendment to the constitution which would allow a state-wide election on the liquor issue.

The Governor, who addressed a joint legislative session at the end of a week which included forces arrayed in a legislative committee for a "liquor referendum" at the state-wide election, urged that the legislature pass an amendment to the constitution which would allow a state-wide election on the liquor issue.

The Governor, who addressed a joint legislative session at the end of a week which included forces arrayed in a legislative committee for a "liquor referendum" at the state-wide election, urged that the legislature pass an amendment to the constitution which would allow a state-wide election on the liquor issue.

The Governor, who addressed a joint legislative session at the end of a week which included forces arrayed in a legislative committee for a "liquor referendum" at the state-wide election, urged that the legislature pass an amendment to the constitution which would allow a state-wide election on the liquor issue.

The Governor, who addressed a joint legislative session at the end of a week which included forces arrayed in a legislative committee for a "liquor referendum" at the state-wide election, urged that the legislature pass an amendment to the constitution which would allow a state-wide election on the liquor issue.

The Governor, who addressed a joint legislative session at the end of a week which included forces arrayed in a legislative committee for a "liquor referendum" at the state-wide election, urged that the legislature pass an amendment to the constitution which would allow a state-wide election on the liquor issue.

The Governor, who addressed a joint legislative session at the end of a week which included forces arrayed in a legislative committee for a "liquor referendum" at the state-wide election, urged that the legislature pass an amendment to the constitution which would allow a state-wide election on the liquor issue.

Committees To Vote On Bills

By RALPH (AP)—Governor Scott urged the General Assembly today "with all the earnestness I possess" to allow a state-wide election on the liquor issue.

The Governor, who addressed a joint legislative session at the end of a week which included forces arrayed in a legislative committee for a "liquor referendum" at the state-wide election, urged that the legislature pass an amendment to the constitution which would allow a state-wide election on the liquor issue.

The Governor, who addressed a joint legislative session at the end of a week which included forces arrayed in a legislative committee for a "liquor referendum" at the state-wide election, urged that the legislature pass an amendment to the constitution which would allow a state-wide election on the liquor issue.

The Governor, who addressed a joint legislative session at the end of a week which included forces arrayed in a legislative committee for a "liquor referendum" at the state-wide election, urged that the legislature pass an amendment to the constitution which would allow a state-wide election on the liquor issue.

The Governor, who addressed a joint legislative session at the end of a week which included forces arrayed in a legislative committee for a "liquor referendum" at the state-wide election, urged that the legislature pass an amendment to the constitution which would allow a state-wide election on the liquor issue.

The Governor, who addressed a joint legislative session at the end of a week which included forces arrayed in a legislative committee for a "liquor referendum" at the state-wide election, urged that the legislature pass an amendment to the constitution which would allow a state-wide election on the liquor issue.

The Governor, who addressed a joint legislative session at the end of a week which included forces arrayed in a legislative committee for a "liquor referendum" at the state-wide election, urged that the legislature pass an amendment to the constitution which would allow a state-wide election on the liquor issue.

The Governor, who addressed a joint legislative session at the end of a week which included forces arrayed in a legislative committee for a "liquor referendum" at the state-wide election, urged that the legislature pass an amendment to the constitution which would allow a state-wide election on the liquor issue.

The Governor, who addressed a joint legislative session at the end of a week which included forces arrayed in a legislative committee for a "liquor referendum" at the state-wide election, urged that the legislature pass an amendment to the constitution which would allow a state-wide election on the liquor issue.

The Governor, who addressed a joint legislative session at the end of a week which included forces arrayed in a legislative committee for a "liquor referendum" at the state-wide election, urged that the legislature pass an amendment to the constitution which would allow a state-wide election on the liquor issue.

The Governor, who addressed a joint legislative session at the end of a week which included forces arrayed in a legislative committee for a "liquor referendum" at the state-wide election, urged that the legislature pass an amendment to the constitution which would allow a state-wide election on the liquor issue.

The Governor, who addressed a joint legislative session at the end of a week which included forces arrayed in a legislative committee for a "liquor referendum" at the state-wide election, urged that the legislature pass an amendment to the constitution which would allow a state-wide election on the liquor issue.

The Governor, who addressed a joint legislative session at the end of a week which included forces arrayed in a legislative committee for a "liquor referendum" at the state-wide election, urged that the legislature pass an amendment to the constitution which would allow a state-wide election on the liquor issue.

The Governor, who addressed a joint legislative session at the end of a week which included forces arrayed in a legislative committee for a "liquor referendum" at the state-wide election, urged that the legislature pass an amendment to the constitution which would allow a state-wide election on the liquor issue.

The Governor, who addressed a joint legislative session at the end of a week which included forces arrayed in a legislative committee for a "liquor referendum" at the state-wide election, urged that the legislature pass an amendment to the constitution which would allow a state-wide election on the liquor issue.

The Governor, who addressed a joint legislative session at the end of a week which included forces arrayed in a legislative committee for a "liquor referendum" at the state-wide election, urged that the legislature pass an amendment to the constitution which would allow a state-wide election on the liquor issue.

The Governor, who addressed a joint legislative session at the end of a week which included forces arrayed in a legislative committee for a "liquor referendum" at the state-wide election, urged that the legislature pass an amendment to the constitution which would allow a state-wide election on the liquor issue.

The Governor, who addressed a joint legislative session at the end of a week which included forces arrayed in a legislative committee for a "liquor referendum" at the state-wide election, urged that the legislature pass an amendment to the constitution which would allow a state-wide election on the liquor issue.

The Governor, who addressed a joint legislative session at the end of a week which included forces arrayed in a legislative committee for a "liquor referendum" at the state-wide election, urged that the legislature pass an amendment to the constitution which would allow a state-wide election on the liquor issue.

Once Over Lightly

By WALTER SCOTT
The Senate Committee on Education and Labor today passed a bill to amend the Federal Education Act of 1946, which would allow the State to sue for any amount of damages in any suit against a teacher for one year for each year of neglect.

Red Marshal Alerts Army Against U. S. 'Aggression'

By THOMAS F. WHITNEY
MOSCOW (AP)—Marshal Nikolai A. Bulganin, Minister of the Armed Forces, alerted Russian troops today in an order of the day to maintain "constant vigilance" against the United States.

The order called for the firing of 200 million rounds of ammunition to celebrate the 31st anniversary of the Soviet Army.

Bulganin's words were echoed by editorialists in Pravda and Izvestia, the Soviet Union's leading newspapers.

"The ruling circles of the United States which seek to establish their policy of aggression and of unbridled imperialism in every way," said the Order of the Day.

Egypt And Israel Will Sign Pact

By L. B. CHAKALAKIS
RHODES (AP)—Israel and Egypt will sign an armistice agreement today, ending their war in Palestine and opening the way for an overall peace between the Jewish state and the Arab world.

The Egyptian delegation which negotiated for 42 days with the Israeli delegation in Cairo today signed the armistice agreement.

The agreement, already accepted by the Israeli cabinet, will end the military training to widen their knowledge of its national economy, Bulganin said.

"In these conditions the Soviet armed forces must definitely maintain constant combat readiness on a high level."

Red Marshal Alerts Army Against U. S. 'Aggression'

By THOMAS F. WHITNEY
MOSCOW (AP)—Marshal Nikolai A. Bulganin, Minister of the Armed Forces, alerted Russian troops today in an order of the day to maintain "constant vigilance" against the United States.