

Fair and colder tonight, low near 34, Thursday, partly cloudy and...

Established Dec. 8, 1888

THE CHARLOTTE NEWS
Largest Afternoon Newspaper in The Carolinas
Charlotte, North Carolina Monday, January 16, 1950
20 Pages—Price Five Cents

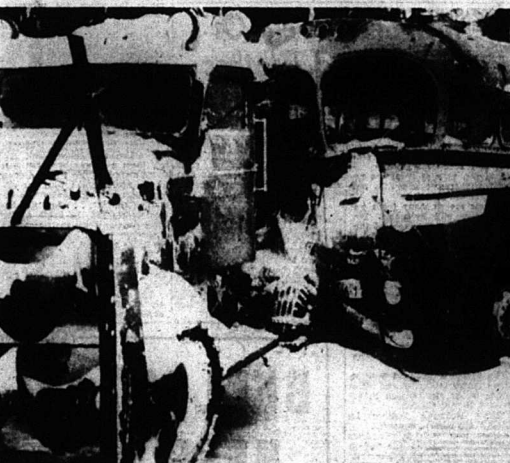

House Rules Change Proposed By Truman

WASHINGTON—(AP)—President Truman proposed urgent legislative leaders today to oppose vigorously a proposed change in the House Rules which threatens his "Fair Deal" program...

Move Made In Protest On Chinese Snub Of Little Assembly Goes On

LAKE SUCCESS—(AP)—Soviet bloc delegations walked out of another United Nations body today in protest over the continued presence of Chinese Nationalists and said they would expand their boycott to all U.N. organs...

Bus Plows Into Snow Plow

Eighteen of the nineteen passengers aboard were injured when this inter-state bus plowed into the back of a rotary snow plow near Government Camp, Ore., during a blinding blizzard...

Lewis Work Suggestion Is Defied No Official Explanation Given

PITTSBURGH—(AP)—At least 64,600 soft coal miners in six states today refused to obey John L. Lewis' suggestion they return to work after a one-week strike...

Baptists Meet Here To Talk Seminary

Convention which will consider seminary sites. An invitation to establish the Southern Baptist Seminary in Charlotte will be made...

George Urges Spending Cut

WASHINGTON—(AP)—A $3,000,000 spending budget was proposed today by Sen. George D. Aiken...

Court Upholds Ban On Aliens

WASHINGTON—(AP)—The Supreme Court today upheld the Government's right to exclude without hearing the property of aliens denied to be poor citizens...

Defense Rests In Hiss Case

NEW YORK—(AP)—The defense rested its case today in the second preliminary trial of Alger Hiss, former high State Department official...

Once Over Lightly

CLAUDE B. CROSS, Hiss' counsel, attacked the Government's case today in the second preliminary trial of Alger Hiss...

Death Toll Now 52 In Storm's Blasts

WASHINGTON—(AP)—The death toll in the blizzard that struck the Northeast today rose to 52...

President Would Avert Rubber Shortage In War

WASHINGTON—(AP)—President Truman asked Congress today to pass a new, 10-year law to insure against a rubber shortage in the event of a war...

Rossellini Property Settlement Completed

MILAN, Italy—(AP)—Attorneys for Roberto Rossellini and Ingrid Bergman today announced that the settlement of their property has been completed...

About 200 In Initial Batch First GI Insurance Checks Here

Charlotte News Staff Writer... About 200 GI insurance checks were distributed here today...

Northeast Plains Hard Hit

The snowing storm which hammered the Northeast today has swept over northern Indiana and Michigan early today...

Post Office Gun Battle Fatal

ROBINSON, Ill.—(AP)—A Post Office employee died and two injured in a wild gun fight in the Robinson Post Office today...

Carson And Warner's Parting Of Ways

HOLLYWOOD—(AP)—Warner Brothers Studio today announced its contract with comedian Jack Carson has been dissolved by mutual agreement...

Mayo Most Beautiful Of '46—Yep, Of '46

HOLLYWOOD—(AP)—The Hollywood chess group today named Virginia Mayo the most beautiful girl of 1946...

Carson And Warner's Parting Of Ways

HOLLYWOOD—(AP)—Warner Brothers Studio today announced its contract with comedian Jack Carson has been dissolved by mutual agreement...