

THOMAS L. ROBINSON, Publisher
J. E. DOWD, General Manager
B. S. GRIFFITZ, Executive Editor
C. A. MCKNIGHT, Editor

WEDNESDAY, MAY 31, 1950

THE TWIG IS BENT

CHILDREN of another era might find it curious... even assuming that so many of us in the West are getting up about the Freie Deutsche Jugend (Free German Youth)...

THESE 300,000 (more or less) youngsters who took part in the rain-soaked Whitman parade in the Soviet zone of Berlin caused no trouble... They did not, as some observers had predicted, overflow into West Berlin with a shriek of joy...

A GOOD DAY FOR GOOD GOVERNMENT

THE race for the U. S. Senate got most of the public attention over the weekend... That was expected. Before the election grows cold, however, a word or two about some of the other races is in order...

NO GRUBBERS WERE

WE QUOTE from the scrupulously editorial W page of the Fair-City Sentinel: "Mr. Smith predicted that he would receive 60 per cent of the vote cast... but he was wrong... that has happened to expert pollsters, such as Dr. Gallup..."

From The Raleigh News & Observer

JP JUSTICE
THE matter of bad check cases... It is apparent that many Justice of the Peace courts have been used as debt collection agencies and instruments for the abuse of credit...

"Here they are as one remembers them in 1933—the same staid and gawky when the band played, the same air of importance, the same... waiting to be molded into anything the master sculptor dictates..."

Pleasers? Yes, we can feel pity for these children robbed of childhood... Children? Yes, but boys become men and men become soldiers; girls become women and women become workers in munitions factories or airplane factories...

"HERE is little that we can do for the Freie Deutsche Jugend... The 'Y for America' might help by reminding them that tyranny can be ended that they need not sacrifice themselves in another war..."

WILLIS SMITH today finds himself in substantially the same position that Kerr Scott occupied two years ago... He is highly probable that Smith will get practically all of the Bob Reynolds vote...

Smith Stands Where Scott Was Two Years Ago

THE Atlanta Journal
FRANK GRAMM holds a place in the esteem of his fellow citizens that is unique among the personalities of the nation and their homelands...

North Carolina Veers To The Right

Such a man stands high in the affection and faith of a great number of his fellow citizens... Because of the uniqueness of his personal stature and the high regard in which he is held...

North Carolina's Ordeal Has Been Prolonged

AND there was a definite trace of conflict between Scott and anti-Scott interests in the campaign... Although unembellished figure was Jonathan Daniels, the late pastor of Raleigh, who is the state's national committeeman...

Drew Pearson's Merry-Go-Round

NEUTRAL Japan—One inside reason for Secretary Johnson's trip to Tokyo is Army and Navy opposition to the State Department's policy of neutrality...

What Other Papers Say

Political Tactics We Can Do Without
(The Durham Herald)
A review of some of the political campaigns preliminary to Saturday's primary reveals a characteristically liberal attitude on the part of the State and its localities...

The Voting In North Carolina

(The Spartanburg Herald)
NORTH CAROLINA has been voting ground in the Senatorial race between Governor Graham and Mr. Willis Smith... The result of the first primary in which Senator Graham polled 30,000 votes more than Mr. Smith...

Smith Stands Where Scott Was Two Years Ago

(The Fayetteville Observer)
WILLIS SMITH today finds himself in substantially the same position that Kerr Scott occupied two years ago... He is highly probable that Smith will get practically all of the Bob Reynolds vote...

North Carolina Veers To The Right

Such a man stands high in the affection and faith of a great number of his fellow citizens... Because of the uniqueness of his personal stature and the high regard in which he is held...

North Carolina's Ordeal Has Been Prolonged

AND there was a definite trace of conflict between Scott and anti-Scott interests in the campaign... Although unembellished figure was Jonathan Daniels, the late pastor of Raleigh, who is the state's national committeeman...

Reports From Moscow May Raise False Hopes Of Peace

WASHINGTON
TRYGVE LIE, Secretary-General of the United Nations, said he was concerned over the prominence given to reports of what he regarded as a further advance to unity might be attained...

North Carolina Just Doesn't Belong In Dixiecrat Group

(The Greensboro Daily News)
EVERYBODY who has followed the progress of the Dixiecrat movement in the South knows that North Carolina is not a Dixiecrat State...

North Carolina Veers To The Right

Such a man stands high in the affection and faith of a great number of his fellow citizens... Because of the uniqueness of his personal stature and the high regard in which he is held...

North Carolina's Ordeal Has Been Prolonged

AND there was a definite trace of conflict between Scott and anti-Scott interests in the campaign... Although unembellished figure was Jonathan Daniels, the late pastor of Raleigh, who is the state's national committeeman...

Drew Pearson's Merry-Go-Round

NEUTRAL Japan—One inside reason for Secretary Johnson's trip to Tokyo is Army and Navy opposition to the State Department's policy of neutrality... The talks started in March when Jesus Ortega, a Cuban agent of the Soviet Government, was in Washington...