

Weather

Partly cloudy and continued warm today and Thursday with scattered afternoon and evening thundershowers.

More Weather Data on Page 14-A

ESTABLISHED DEC. 8, 1888

Largest Afternoon Newspaper in The Carolinas
Charlotte, North Carolina Wednesday, July 26, 1950

28 Pages—Price Five Cents

THE CHARLOTTE NEWS

Civilian Sacrifices For Defense

Baruch Urges All-Out Economic Home Front Controls

By EDWIN B. HARRINGTON
WASHINGTON, July 26.—Elder Statesman Bernard Baruch today called for all-out economic mobilization of the United States with a quick freeze on prices, wages and rents.

Navy To Place Additional Ships Into Active Service

WASHINGTON, July 26.—The Navy is putting 48 more warships at sea, including three large and six light aircraft carriers, two cruisers, 22 destroyers and 40 submarines.

World Peace as Pope's Plea

By FRANK BRUTTO
VATICAN CITY, July 26.—Pope XII today issued an encyclical reminding the world that war "brings nothing but ruin, death and all kinds of misery" and imploring peoples and their rulers to strive for peace.

Once Over Lightly by THE OLD SHAVER
Remember when everybody used to hang calendars in the living room... The Old Shaver... 25c

Economic Report Sent To Congress Urges Expansion Of Production

By STERLING F. GREEN
WASHINGTON, July 26.—President Truman today summoned the nation to "some sacrifice" of its civilian plenty. He declared himself ready to call for "complete economic mobilization" if the demands of freedom require.

Britain Will Send Troops

LONDON, July 26.—Britain announced today she has decided to send ground troops into Korea. The British admiralty earlier disclosed plans to put the Pacific Fleet on "full scale war footing" immediately.

President Signs Arms Aid Bill

WASHINGTON, July 26.—President Truman signed today a $1,222,500,000 military aid bill with a warning to "those bent on aggression" that the United States will stand together to preserve their freedom.

Murray Apparent Oklahoma Winner

OKLAHOMA CITY, July 26.—John Murray apparently had won Oklahoma's Democratic nomination for governor on the basis of nearly-complete, unofficial returns from Tuesday's primary runoff election.

TREATMENT FOR WOUNDED IN TAEJON FIGHT

Lt. Howard Jacobs from Charleston, S. C., has been wounded in the fighting around Taejon in South Korea, and now is getting medical treatment on the field. The wound is on his face. It is being dressed by Capt. Earl Lundberg of Akron, Iowa. (AP Photo.)

SOUTH KOREA AFTER MONTH OF WAR

Here is the geography after a month of fighting in South Korea. It was one month ago, June 25, that the Communist forces control about two-thirds of the area south of the 38th parallel. This map shows the relative size of the southeast area, where U. S. forces are fighting, with the location to the entire Korean peninsula. (AP Wirephoto Map.)

Secretary Johnson Hits Back At Critics

By ELTON C. FAY
WASHINGTON, July 26.—Secretary of Defense Johnson today said that the country's overall fighting position "is greater at the outbreak of the Korean war than at any time since America demobilized after World War II."

Steps Taken In Southeast

TOKYO (Thursday)—(AP)—Outnumbered American and South Korean troops clung stubbornly to defense positions Wednesday in the face of "heavy pressure" along all fronts, General MacArthur's headquarters said today.

Fresh American Units In Action

Fifth Air Force Headquarters in Korea.—Fresh United States troops in relatively small numbers apparently were in action today to halt the North Korean southward drive toward Pusan.

U. S. Prisoners Shot By Reds

By HAL BOYLE
AN ADVANCE AIRBORNE IN KOREA.—A tall young tank corporal said today North Koreans forced him and two other bound American prisoners to lie face down under a tree and then machine-gunned them.

Secretary Johnson Hits Back At Critics

By ELTON C. FAY
WASHINGTON, July 26.—Secretary of Defense Johnson today said that the country's overall fighting position "is greater at the outbreak of the Korean war than at any time since America demobilized after World War II."

See DEFENDERS on page 14-A