CLOSE CALL FOR JONES

CHARLOTTE newspapers have companied, had more funds and put up the mented on the fact that Representative Hamilton C. Jones had a close call in Tuesday's election, when he emerged with a majority of only about four thousand out of a total vote of nearly sixty thousand ballots cast in the Tenth Congressional District.

The Record feels that Mr. Jones did remarkably well, as we see the results, because the Republicans were better Greenelle (S. C.J Piedmont.)
