

Thursday, Dec. 8, 1950
Date of 1950 was a memorable date in television, writes Column. ... mentioned. Turn to Page 15-A.

ESTABLISHED DEC. 8, 1888

LITTLE MISS JUNKET

Deciding to do something about the promise that she could go see her grandmother, five-year-old Shirley Ann Norcia packed her clothes and bags and set out by herself. She traveled from her home on Chesapeake Street to her parents' home on the North Side before police found her. Her parents claimed her at the police station. (Acme Telephoto.)

Louisiana Court Accused At Senate Crime Hearing

NEW ORLEANS—Sen. Keith Fuller, chopping at the protective covering on gambling and vice in this move center of crime, heard testimony today directed at Louisiana's Supreme Court. ... The Supreme Court reversed itself on the same point of law using the same brief, the same attorneys and the same case, McCain testified.

Our Weather

Fair and cold today and tonight. Expected low tonight is 35 degrees. Saturday, partly cloudy and warmer, followed by showers Sunday. Sunrise, 7:35 A. M.; sunset 5:45 P. M.

Drastic Intentions to Form New Government in France

By CARL L. DAVIDSON
PARIS—France made an historic move today to muster the soldiers of Europe who have spilled each other's blood for centuries, into one army, under one commander-in-chief against one enemy—Communism. ... The French plan: 1. There would be a single European defense minister, a civilian of international status, to handle the recruitment, training and equipping of the single European Army.

France Calls Parley to Compromise Peace Plan

By A. I. GOLDBERG
LAKE SUCCESS—(AP)—Canada offered a six-point compromise. ... The Canadian plan differed from the Arab-Asian resolution in specifying that a cease-fire must precede any other discussion, and that it should be limited to the Korean peninsula.

Absentee Ballot Measure Offered

RALPH—Legislation to permit absentee balloting in general elections is being introduced in the State Senate today. ... The board of elections is asking for legislation to permit absentee balloting in general elections so that it would be the cause of most elections squabbles.

East Shivers, Southwest Warm

By ASSOCIATED PRESS
January's key weather cliché called the Eastern two-thirds of the nation cold. It will be a warm blanket in the Southwest.

Vatican Leaves Question Of Rotary Club To Bishops

By FRANK BRUTTO
VATICAN CITY—L'Osservatore Romano said today Roman Catholic bishops must decide whether to withdraw from the ranks of the Rotary Club. ... The Vatican newspaper said that in some countries, in practice, Rotary had shown itself to be "tolerant" with respect to religious activities.

Nations Hit Spots Red Position

By OLEN CLEMENS
TOKYO—(Saturday)—(AP)—Strong elements of two American corps slammed northward within fifteen miles of Seoul on the Korean eastern front Friday against spot to minor Red opposition. ... A special U. S. Eighth Army summary called it "a limited objective attack."

MacArthur Marks 71st Birthday

By RUSSELL BRINES
TOKYO—(General MacArthur celebrated his 71st birthday today with work as usual. ... For the Chinese Reds, he intervened in the Korean war when it was almost won, the top United Nations commander provided "a bloody nose" if they press on further into South Korea.

Coliseum Report Is Postponed

By RALPH
—A special committee investigating advantage of the State Coliseum through construction of a $1,200,000 coliseum at the site of the State House postponed its report until Tuesday. ... The committee had planned to make its report to the State House and State Senate today.

Guerrillas Raid Town

TAIPEI, Formosa—(AP)—The Chinese soldiers through with conventional guerrillas raided the Chinese town of Tainan today, killing more than twenty Reds, and withdrew with more than 60 prisoners.

What's Inside

Classified Want Ads... 15-16
Classified... 15-16
Editorials... 15-16
Markets... 15-16
Special... 15-16
Sports... 15-16
Whisper Wall... 15-16