

U. S. Judges All Branches in Korea

SHE SEES THEM COME AND GO IN TIDES OF WAR

An aged Korean woman stands in the snow and watches an Allied convoy moving north of Chongju. The shifting tides of war have made the sight a familiar one to her. She has seen U. N. forces moving northward on the offensive and southward in retreat. (AP Wirephoto.)

Closed, Union Shop Ban Repeal Offered

RALEIGH — Legislation to repeal North Carolina's law banning the closed shop and the union shop was introduced in the General Assembly today. Ben Clyde A. Shreve of Guilford and Rep. Oscar Baker of Durham were joined by several other legislators in sending forward the bill in the House. It was referred to the committee on manufacturing and labor.

Coliseum Probe Voted By House

RALEIGH — The House today passed a resolution calling for an investigation of the construction of the coliseum at the State Fairgrounds. The resolution is expected to come up in the Senate for final action tomorrow.

Development of Area Around Capitol Urged

RALEIGH — Drafting of a master plan for future development of the area around the State Capitol was proposed to a legislative committee today. After a hearing on the subject the Joint Committee on State Buildings and grounds named a subcommittee to study the problem of future expansion around the Capitol.

One Killed As Italian Servs Protest Eisenhower Visit

By C. E. BRUSINI
ROME — One man was killed and nearly 100 persons injured in Italy and Sicily last night and yesterday when Italian Communist labor demonstrators struck against Eisenhower's visit. Several Italian officials told the joint group a major plan would be introduced in the Senate by Senator Luther Barthard of California. The bills were recommended by the General Statutes Commission. One of the measures would give a husband the right to sue his wife for personal injuries.

Our Weather:

Clouds and warm today and tonight with scattered showers this afternoon. Friday partly cloudy. Forecast low 45 degrees.

150,000 Men Affected Air Force Calling Up Reserves

WASHINGTON — The Air Force announced today it is immediately calling up a major portion of its 150,000 reserve units. The call involves about 150,000 men and is designed to increase Air Force manpower to 971,000 as soon as possible. The Air Force said it will call up 150,000 additional National Guard wings, 21 Air Reserve Training Wings, most of the ground-supporting units and a large number of unassigned reserve personnel. The Air Force has already ordered into active duty 4 reserve wings and 50,000 individual officers and enlisted reservists.

President Says Case Being Pushed Other Nations Cool To Proposal

By MAX HURRELL
LAKE SUCCESS — (AP) — The United States is ready today to call on the United Nations for an indictment of Communist China as an aggressor in Korea. In Washington, President Truman told his news conference the United States is ready to bring pressure to bear on the Chinese Communist aggressors. Some countries, however, may try to delay action until they have had a chance to discuss the proposal. India was expected to oppose the plan strongly, along with the Soviet bloc.

Truman Says Controls Speeded

WASHINGTON — President Truman said today the Government will bring prices and wages under control just as rapidly as it can. He told his news conference that he could not attempt to pin down the date of a price-wage freeze. He said that the ceilings will be imposed as soon as practicable.

Linberger, Textile Manufacturer, Dies Here

Archibald Caleb Linberger, 50, of Belmont, nationally known textile manufacturer, died at 9:30 P. M. yesterday in a hospital at Charlotte after a three-day illness. Funeral services will take place at 2 P. M. tomorrow at the home of Mrs. M. Main here in Belmont. Officiating at the services will be the Rev. C. W. Johnson, pastor of the North Carolina Baptist Church of the Good Shepherd at Mount Holly. Burial will be in the Mt. Zion Baptist Cemetery, near Gastonia.

Coal Miners To Get Pay Boost

By D. HAROLD OLIVER
WASHINGTON — President Truman today said he would approve a 15 percent pay increase for coal miners. The increase would be effective immediately. A news conference was scheduled for this afternoon. The United Mine Workers 200-man policy committee will meet in Lewis. The agreement, to be initiated by Harry M. Moses, chief negotiator for the miners, will be signed by the independent of the North and West. This puts the pressure on the coal miners. The miners were meeting to consider the raise in a strike. The pay raise appears certain to be followed by a price increase of approximately five percent for coal.

U. N. Force Encounters Enemy Units Attempted Trap Smashed By G's

By OLEN CLEMENTS
TOKYO — (AP) — Tanked Allied troops battled two companies of Chinese Reds tonight in a brief but fierce local clash on the Korean Western front. The U. N. patrol, under air cover, then smashed out of a threatened enemy envelopment. The commanders expected a general Communist offensive may come at any time. The U. N. raiders, one of several, were probing the strength of enemy troops massed all along the battle front. The U. N. force, 25 miles southeast of Seoul. The commander of the Allied motorized patrol said he met strong resistance in Kumyungang. The force, which included a tank company, was broken up when it appeared his troops were being fought. But after 90 minutes of tough fighting he said with his patrol units had safely withdrawn from the area. Press Correspondent Jim Becker reported.

Won't Set Exact Date Truman Says Controls Speeded

WASHINGTON — President Truman said today the Government will bring prices and wages under control just as rapidly as it can. He told his news conference that he could not attempt to pin down the date of a price-wage freeze. He said that the ceilings will be imposed as soon as practicable.

Linberger, Textile Manufacturer, Dies Here

Archibald Caleb Linberger, 50, of Belmont, nationally known textile manufacturer, died at 9:30 P. M. yesterday in a hospital at Charlotte after a three-day illness. Funeral services will take place at 2 P. M. tomorrow at the home of Mrs. M. Main here in Belmont. Officiating at the services will be the Rev. C. W. Johnson, pastor of the North Carolina Baptist Church of the Good Shepherd at Mount Holly. Burial will be in the Mt. Zion Baptist Cemetery, near Gastonia.

Takes Newspapers To Task Truman Reasserts His Authority To Send U. S. Troops To Europe

By D. HAROLD OLIVER
WASHINGTON — President Truman today reasserted his authority to send U. S. troops to Europe. He said he would not be bound by Congressional action. He said he would not be bound by Congressional action. He said he would not be bound by Congressional action. He said he would not be bound by Congressional action.

What's Inside

Classified Want Ads	13B-15B
Classified	14A
Classified	14B
Classified	15A
Classified	15B
Classified	16A
Classified	16B
Classified	17A
Classified	17B
Classified	18A
Classified	18B
Classified	19A
Classified	19B
Classified	20A
Classified	20B
Classified	21A
Classified	21B
Classified	22A
Classified	22B
Classified	23A
Classified	23B
Classified	24A
Classified	24B
Classified	25A
Classified	25B
Classified	26A
Classified	26B
Classified	27A
Classified	27B
Classified	28A
Classified	28B
Classified	29A
Classified	29B
Classified	30A
Classified	30B
Classified	31A
Classified	31B
Classified	32A
Classified	32B
Classified	33A
Classified	33B
Classified	34A
Classified	34B
Classified	35A
Classified	35B
Classified	36A
Classified	36B