

POP SLEPT THROUGH THE REUNION

It was a joyful homecoming for Monte Mathison, 13, (left) and his mother, Mrs. David Wagner after the lad had been missing after running away from his Minneapolis home for two days, but his step-father (background) slept through the whole thing. Pop hadn't slept for two days while the search was on, and had fallen on the bed in exhaustion just a little while before police officers recognized Monte and brought him home. (Acme Telephoto).

Grand Jury 'Leak' Laid to Caudle By 'Insider'

JUN Committee Invites Germans to Join Debate

PARIS.—Over united Russian objections, the United Nations special political committee voted to accept representatives of East and West Germany to take part in its debates on all-German elections.

FOUR IN ONE DAY

Major George A. Davis Jr. of Lubbock, Texas, was Korea air-war history when he shot down one MIG-15 jet and three TU-2 twin engine bombers in one day. Three days before he had shot down two MIGs, and his latest jet kill represented the 100th enemy jet shot down by his outfit. (U. S. Air Force photo via Acme Telephoto).

Ford Testifies As Inquiry Is Pushed

WASHINGTON.—(AP)—Peyton Ford, former deputy attorney general, testified today he "procured" T. Lamar Caudle was "making" grand jury information on an Alabama tax fraud case to a Congressman in 1950.

Teams Disagree On Four Points Of Negotiation

MUNSAN, Korea.—(AP)—Communist negotiators insisted today on four points of negotiation for a truce in Korea. The Allies objected to all four.

DEATH TOLL MOUNTING

Philippines Volcano Erupts; Hundreds Are Feared Killed

MANILA.—(AP)—Hibok Hibok volcano in the central Philippines erupted today, killing at least 141 villagers.

Action Taken Over Russian Objection

PARIS.—Over united Russian objections, the United Nations special political committee voted to accept representatives of East and West Germany to take part in its debates on all-German elections.

Commandos Strike Far Back Of Lines

By JOHN RANDLE. SEOUL, Korea.—British and American Marines ripped through Red defenses 150 miles behind the front in the most powerful hit-and-run Commando raid of the Korean War, the Allies announced today.

Storm Warnings Up Along Carolina Coast

MIAMI, Fla.—(AP)—Small craft should avoid the outer edge of a storm system that is moving up the Atlantic coast, the Weather Bureau predicted.

Irish Argue Over Land's Greatest Cultural Needs

DUBLIN, Ireland.—(AP)—The new science (or is it art?) of Irishness—the propagation of manners, culture and a refined type of blarney among the Irish, that is—got a big bankroll today and a haul of ideas on how to spend it.

POLITE PISTOL-HOLDER LEAVES WITHOUT CASH

PHILADELPHIA.—(AP)—John H. Mallon, a real estate agent, told police that as he sat in his office last night a stranger entered, held a courtly manner. "How are you?" and snatched a pistol.

U. S. Demands Fliers' Release

BUDAPEST, Hungary.—(AP)—The United States demanded today the release of four American aviators forced down in their plane by Soviet fighters in Western Hungary.

Western NC Gets 4-Inch Drenching

ASHEVILLE.—(AP)—Rain ranging up to more than four inches fell on Western North Carolina today.

OUR WEATHER

Partly cloudy tonight and almost clear. Wednesday partly cloudy and mild. Expected low tonight, 45 degrees. High, 71 1/2. A. M. sunset, 5:11 P. M.

3 Killed In Crash

DERRY, Colo.—(AP)—A United States DC-3 training plane crashed on the Federal reservation of the Rocky Mountain area today, killing all three men aboard.

CLIMATIC CAPERS

In the weather expert in Alaska is frequent. In the course of a year, the temperature reaches 90 degrees or over on more days in central Alaska than it does in Panama. It might surprise you to know that the average January temperature in St. Louis is the same as that of southern Iceland; and that winter temperatures in Washington average the same as in Sitka, Alaska.

Fire, Water Damage Heavy

Investigation Started into VMI Riot

LEXINGTON, Va.—(AP)—A sweeping investigation was underway today into a riot and destructive uprising by students at Virginia Military Institute.

Fire, Water Damage Heavy

There was little disagreement that the side got out of hand for more than half an hour.

WHAT'S INSIDE

- Classified West Ads... 22-23
Comics... 23
Crossword Puzzle... 23
Daily News... 23
Radio Program... 23
Social Story... 23
Sports... 23
Theater... 23
Winning Well... 23
Woman's Page... 23-24

WHAT'S INSIDE

- Classified West Ads... 22-23
Comics... 23
Crossword Puzzle... 23
Daily News... 23
Radio Program... 23
Social Story... 23
Sports... 23
Theater... 23
Winning Well... 23
Woman's Page... 23-24

17 SHOPPING DAYS TO CHRISTMAS