

THOMAS L. ROBINSON, Publisher; J. E. DOWD, General Manager; B. A. GRIFFITH, Executive Editor; C. McKNIGHT, Editor

Pitcher of the Press Westbrook Pegler

(This is the first of three articles on Westbrook Pegler from the Providence, R. I., Journal's "Pitcher of the Press" column, reprinted by permission of the Journal Editors, The News.)

TIME FOR ACTION ON TRUCK PLAN

IN JANUARY of this year, Traffic Engineer H. J. Hoese sent to City Manager Henry Yancy and the City Council his improvement plan for trucking operations in the City of Charlotte. The plan was drawn up...

Westbrook Pegler—I

WESTBROOK JAMES PEGLER writes a newspaper column that is read each day, according to the Hearst syndicate that owns the column. By 4,000,000 copies each, this column is called Far Enough in some papers but in others, as Pegler says...

WOW! WHAT AN ADVERTISEMENT!

A STORY in a recent Wall Street Journal may be of some interest to the Charlotte Council as it pertains to the spending of $3,500 for a survey of the parking problem here.

Stinkols (Continued)

F. C. Wilson, R. G. Jonesboro Heights Station farmer, told the story about the minister who was called on to officiate at the funeral of a stranger...

IN THE MINDS OF MEN

IT IS A BIT far-fetched, as one was observed, to think that 50,000 people will ever assemble on a college campus to watch four debaters hurl scintillating syllogisms at each other...

Quote, Unquote

While the choir sang a hymn, the minister beckoned to a mourner, pointing to the casket and saying: "Brother or sister?"

WAR IS EVITABLE

THE English language and use of the press "in" and "un" poses many silly questions. Example: "war is inevitable" (precisely the same thing). None, to our thinking, is more absurd or more awkward than the tendency to emphasize the negative in such phrases as "war is inevitable."

Franklin Roosevelt as a Communist

By TOM SCHLESINGER, Charlotte News Special Contributor. "BUREAUCRAT" is a word that is beginning to start, "smile when you say it," as the Politician who led the "bureaucrat" as a thing with horns, a forked tail and an insatiable desire to make life difficult for the poor taxpayer.

FROM THE TWIN-CITY SENTINEL

FBI 3,000; MCCARTHY 0

THERE is an advantage in checking the loyalty of Government employees, not only in uprooting and exposing subversive agents and getting them out of the Government, but likewise in forcing out of the Government those not yet caught but in danger of being caught.

Stinkols

Stinkols (Continued) F. C. Wilson, R. G. Jonesboro Heights Station farmer, told the story about the minister who was called on to officiate at the funeral of a stranger...

FROM THE TWIN-CITY SENTINEL

FBI 3,000; MCCARTHY 0

THERE is an advantage in checking the loyalty of Government employees, not only in uprooting and exposing subversive agents and getting them out of the Government, but likewise in forcing out of the Government those not yet caught but in danger of being caught.

Stinkols

Stinkols (Continued) F. C. Wilson, R. G. Jonesboro Heights Station farmer, told the story about the minister who was called on to officiate at the funeral of a stranger...

FROM THE TWIN-CITY SENTINEL

FBI 3,000; MCCARTHY 0

THERE is an advantage in checking the loyalty of Government employees, not only in uprooting and exposing subversive agents and getting them out of the Government, but likewise in forcing out of the Government those not yet caught but in danger of being caught.

Stinkols

Stinkols (Continued) F. C. Wilson, R. G. Jonesboro Heights Station farmer, told the story about the minister who was called on to officiate at the funeral of a stranger...

FROM THE TWIN-CITY SENTINEL

FBI 3,000; MCCARTHY 0

THERE is an advantage in checking the loyalty of Government employees, not only in uprooting and exposing subversive agents and getting them out of the Government, but likewise in forcing out of the Government those not yet caught but in danger of being caught.

Stinkols

Stinkols (Continued) F. C. Wilson, R. G. Jonesboro Heights Station farmer, told the story about the minister who was called on to officiate at the funeral of a stranger...

FROM THE TWIN-CITY SENTINEL

FBI 3,000; MCCARTHY 0

THERE is an advantage in checking the loyalty of Government employees, not only in uprooting and exposing subversive agents and getting them out of the Government, but likewise in forcing out of the Government those not yet caught but in danger of being caught.

Stinkols

Stinkols (Continued) F. C. Wilson, R. G. Jonesboro Heights Station farmer, told the story about the minister who was called on to officiate at the funeral of a stranger...

News From The Capitol

By TOM SCHLESINGER, Charlotte News Special Contributor. "BUREAUCRAT" is a word that is beginning to start, "smile when you say it," as the Politician who led the "bureaucrat" as a thing with horns, a forked tail and an insatiable desire to make life difficult for the poor taxpayer.

Stinkols

Stinkols (Continued) F. C. Wilson, R. G. Jonesboro Heights Station farmer, told the story about the minister who was called on to officiate at the funeral of a stranger...

Stinkols

Stinkols (Continued) F. C. Wilson, R. G. Jonesboro Heights Station farmer, told the story about the minister who was called on to officiate at the funeral of a stranger...

Stinkols

Stinkols (Continued) F. C. Wilson, R. G. Jonesboro Heights Station farmer, told the story about the minister who was called on to officiate at the funeral of a stranger...

Stinkols

Stinkols (Continued) F. C. Wilson, R. G. Jonesboro Heights Station farmer, told the story about the minister who was called on to officiate at the funeral of a stranger...

Stinkols

Stinkols (Continued) F. C. Wilson, R. G. Jonesboro Heights Station farmer, told the story about the minister who was called on to officiate at the funeral of a stranger...

Stinkols

Stinkols (Continued) F. C. Wilson, R. G. Jonesboro Heights Station farmer, told the story about the minister who was called on to officiate at the funeral of a stranger...

Stinkols

Stinkols (Continued) F. C. Wilson, R. G. Jonesboro Heights Station farmer, told the story about the minister who was called on to officiate at the funeral of a stranger...

Stinkols

Stinkols (Continued) F. C. Wilson, R. G. Jonesboro Heights Station farmer, told the story about the minister who was called on to officiate at the funeral of a stranger...

Stinkols

Stinkols (Continued) F. C. Wilson, R. G. Jonesboro Heights Station farmer, told the story about the minister who was called on to officiate at the funeral of a stranger...