SEN MORSE IS PRAISED BY TRUMAN

Lawmaker Lauded For Refusal To Help Eisenhower

By ERNEST B. VACCARO

ABOARD TRUMAN TRAIN (U—) President Truman voiced praise today for Republican Sen. Wayne Morse of Oregon for refusing to work for Dwight D. Eisenhower after the general "surrendered to Sen. Taft."

And he declared another Republican senator, William E. Langer of North Dakota, had done him this week "he doesn't owe the Republican Party anything."

The President told a trainload crowd at Klamath Falls, Ore., that Morse can "see through the five-star glitter to the sad fact underneath, that the Republican candidate is the captive of the Old Guard."

TO CALIFORNIA Moving through Oregon enroute to whistle stops in California and an inspection of Shasta Dam near Redding, Truman declared: "Republican progressivism used to be strong, but now it is being driven to the wall by the Old Guard."

Morse, praised by the President as "one of the finest men and best liberals I have ever known," worked, Truman said, for the nomination of Eisenhower, "thinking he was a liberal."

"Just a few weeks after the Republican convention the candidate surrendered to Senator Taft—and gave in to the Old Guard on every issue—from public power to the national defense," the President continued in his typical "give 'em hell" form.

SAYS BILL OFFERED In his Klamath Falls appearance, Truman said a bill has been introduced in Congress, by a Republican, to study all federal projects to find out how many could be turned over to local governments or private firms.

"And a new plan has been devised to sell all the power plants of the United States, and the public would have much to say about it."

"On this trip I have been cross," he said.

Crazed Gunman Shoots Officer

AUSTIN, Tex. (U—) An escaped inmate of the Austin State Hospital today shot down an Austin police officer and wounded hundreds of persons before he was killed by police after a running battle.

The completely nude gunman shot Policeman R. K. McFarland in the windpipe and shoulder with the .44 caliber pistol he carried. McFarland was critically hurt.

McFarland tangled with the escapee about 7:30 A. M. in a fashionable residential area. How the patient managed to get the officer's pistol was not known.

The man, reported by the hospital to be a 28-year-old Negro named Claude Jackson, snatched McFarland's gun and headed south. He zig-zagged down sidewalks and straps brandishing the pistol as residents fled in terror.

Police and sheriff deputies poured into the area. Alarmed residents flooded the police station with calls as the crazed gunman sped toward the Colorado River. Shooting shots with pursuing officers.

Still carrying the pistol, he plunged into the river and swam toward the south bank.

Police with revolvers fired hundreds of shots at the swimming figure. In mid-stream he apparently drowned, the man paused to hide behind a string of boulers in the water.

Three officers rode out in a boat to his rock position. The body was crantically snatched at a shotgun in the boat and wildly stacked the officers. As he was struggling, one of the detectives shot him dead.

Dispite Differences Ike Says His Goal, McCarthy's Same

By DON WHITEHEAD ABROAD EISENHOWER SPECIAL (U—) Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower opened his presidential campaign in Wisconsin today by declaring he has differences with Sen. Joseph R. McCarthy (R-Wis.)—but both have the same goal of riding the government of subversives.

Eisenhower voiced appreciation that McCarthy was among those who had come to welcome him in Wisconsin—and was among those aboard his special train.

"Eisenhower said the difference between him and McCarthy were well-known—to everyone—and he had discussed these differences with McCarthy. He said differences were inevitable in a political party. He said, however, that both he and McCarthy had the same goal of riding the government of disloyal and subversive elements.

As Eisenhower appeared on the rear platform of his train, some reporters called for McCarthy, but the shouts, McCarthy did not appear.

SURPRISE CONFERENCE The Wisconsin senator, running for re-election, climbed aboard the Eisenhower special in Peoria, Ill., last night after a surprise conference with the GOP presidential nominee.

"We had a pleasant talk," was all McCarthy would say to reporters. They caught him in a hotel hallway as he emerged from the surprise meeting with Eisenhower and GOP National Chairman Arthur Summerfield of Michigan.

A detailed program of Eisenhower's activities for the day is listed on the general's train last night made no mention of McCarthy's name in any of the ceremonies.

NO POSITION OF POSITION Eisenhower gave no indication after the meeting what his position would be.

At a banquet in Denver, Colo., the general was asked in a news conference if he intended to support McCarthy, who in a Senate speech linked Gen. George C. Marshall—Eisenhower's old friend and Army commander—with a "conspiracy" aimed at weakening the United States and strengthening Russia.

"I will support him as a member

Before Chicago Convention Nixon Used Franked Mail For GOP Poll

WASHINGTON (U—) The campaign manager for Sen. Richard M. Nixon, GOP candidate for vice president, said today Nixon used the franking privilege early this summer in conducting a poll on whom Californians wanted the Republicans to nominate for president.

Murray Chotiner said he was not Nixon's manager at the time of the poll, so did not know if the letters had been reported that 23,000 letters were sent out under frank.

His franking privilege, accorded to members of Congress and to federal agencies, allows letters using the frank to be mailed postage free.

The letters were reportedly sent to Californians prior to the Republican nominating convention in July. Nixon was member of the California delegation which was supporting California's Gov. Earl

Italians Lift Ban On Church

ROME (U—) The Italian government today lifted its ban against operations of 146 American-sponsored Church of Christ in Italy.

The U. S. Embassy, announcing the decision, said it followed discussions between the embassy and the Italian government.

The denomination's 22 churches and one orphanage will be permitted to operate as usual during the period while their application for permanent permission is being acted on by the government.

Eldridge Dubrow of Los Angeles, minister consul of the embassy, passed on formal notification of the decision to Cline R. Paden, head of the American-led church here.

Last Sunday Italian police permitted the Church of Christ to hold its first public services in three weeks.

Paden, of Brownfield, Tex., said at the time that it was only a "temporary concession."

The Church of Christ, the Assembly of God and the Pentecostal Church have protested to the U. S. State Department against police interference with their services.

Adlai Links Ike To 'New Isolationism'

By DOUGLAS W. CORNELL CINCINNATI (U—) Gov. Adlai Stevenson chose Robert A. Taft's home town today to accuse the Ohio Senator and the Republican "Old Guard" of fostering a new isolationism that could lead to national tragedy.

The Democratic presidential nominee said Republican candidate Dwight D. Eisenhower "is supporting a policy of isolationism that could lead to national tragedy."

In an address prepared for a Democratic luncheon rally, Stevenson said the results could parallel those of the 1920 campaign when the League of Nations was an issue, Warren G. Harding was elected, and there were "terrible consequences in a blood and disaster."

"The new isolationism," Stevenson said, "has put on some new clothes and uses some new words, but it is just as dangerous in 1952 as the old isolationism was in 1920. The new isolationism is designed to cut taxes while strengthening our armed forces and our allies."

"They are entitled to their night-mare," Stevenson said. "And we are entitled to our dreams."

"We know that we live in the happiest, most prosperous and vigorous country in all history."

After recommending to Ohio voters the candidates of Franklin D. Roosevelt for U. S. governor and former Price Administrator Michael V. D'Salle for the Senate, the Illinois governor gave

Voter Neglect Scored In Get-Out-Vote Letters

"It seems so very strange," writes James E. Fitzgerald of Charlotte, Rouse's "that we, a nation whose foundations are laid on the principles of freedom and the rights of the individual, should so carelessly neglect the very key to our liberty, the right to choose our own leaders."

"When the citizens of a community, or a nation, fail to qualify of vote in an election," writes T. F. Watts of 246 Victoria Ave., "they immediately irk wrongness in that community, and that nation."

"We are morally obligated to give our address and name to you for the best man available," writes James H. Best of 2219 Crescent Ave.

"These are excerpts from letters written on the subject, 'Why People Should Register and Vote,' sent to the Vote Contest Editor of The News.

The News is conducting the contest this week in co-operation with the Get-Out-The-Vote Campaign, which is aimed at making Mecklenburg the most patriotic county in America."

The contest is open to residents of Charlotte and Mecklenburg County. Two $25 bonds are offered, one for the best letter on the subject by an adult and the other for the best by a school student.

"The Illinois governor fired away at Eisenhower as operating in a shabby fog, as 'not talking sense to the American people' in promoting another term as governor and our armed forces and our allies."

Over and over, Stevenson took back-handed slaps at Taft, through use of the old guard device, but he said that at least you know where Sen. Taft stands and what he thinks about most things, which is more than I can say for the general."
