TRYGVE LIE'S DECISION

ONE CAN hardly blame U. N. Serollary Oscardi Trypev Lie for gatting fed up with its General Trypev Lie for gatting fed up with its General Trypev Lie for gatting fed up with
its General Trypev Lie for gatting fed up with its General Trypev Lie for gatting fed up with its General Trypev Lie for gatting fed up with its General Lie for gatting fed up with its gatting wastr, he has deggedly steered the U.N. through or around one crisis after the other. The burden of Korea-has weighed heavily upon him. The Sovict Union has simped on him even more than usual lately, coulling him a tool of American impertalism.
On the other hand, the McCarran subcomnatises his critical him for not being suit Committed sounded—the pride of any sood administrator—carved up by the Budget Committee.

Mr. Lie, In resigning, expressed the hope that his action "may halp the United Nations to save the pseck." That we doubt. The peace may not be saved whether or not he says in office. But prospects for peace will affect the ability and persistence of the men who are attempting to negotiast it, and in Purthermore, when the prospect of restacing him is faced, there is no one on the sorticen who would be acceptable to both East and West-and the Secretary General shis term were caught out of the Square. The Soviet Union has not recognized Mr. Lie as Secretary-General since his first five-year carm expired last year.

It is almost certain to the possible as firmly committed to the U.N. position in Kores as is Mr. Lie.

After the Russian refused to recognize Mr. Lie as Secretary General his term was renewed for three years by the veto-fres General Assembly. Perhaps it could, in like manner, choose an administration of the country consended did not recommend a candidate, the Charter

HARBINGERS OF IKE'S ADMINISTRATION

HARBINGERS OF IKE'S ADMINISTRATION

REPUBLICANS and Democrats alike will heartily applaud General Eisenhower's selection of the first two officials to serve as liaison agents with the departing Truman Administration

TIME FOR ANOTHER KIND OF CHANGE

E FOR ANOTHER KIND OF CHANGE

DEMOCRAT who, on hearing of, Litelinbuver's plan to go to Korea, alarm lest some accident befall like ave Senator Nikon in the President befall like ave like in street of the senate have a readtively obscure post. His only official function are street of senate have been because they are detail and these because they are detail and the because he was from the South, and because he was from the South, and the six record on dementic and free revening was sufficiently liberal to statisfy the awas considered for the President, sand was considered for the President, sand was considered for the President Bard details. Nicon was chosen by the Repubbecause he was from the key state of this, because he had a record of fighthead.

THE GOOD LOSER

Twelve Senators Will Head Committees For First Time

ATORS with service as brief two to eight years will climb overed Committee Chairman in the new Strd Congress. Republicans outst the Democramentees, four GOP Sencommittees, fo People's Platform Letters should be brief. The writer's name and address must be given, but may be withheld a publication in the discretion of the Editors. The News reserves the right to condense.

'Hey - Looka Me!"

The Changing Democratic Party

Ike Will Need Democrats

Editors, Ter News:

IKE others I have held my own postmenten on the election and have encubled that the result represents the all represents the election and have encubled that the result represents the result represents the result of the result of the result of the result of the result represents the result of the result of

Drew Pearson's Merry-Go-Round

News Blackout Urged For Ike's Korea Trip

1932-1952

New Palace Guard