

FORCE STILL ISSUE NEEDS PRESENT NEW PW PLAN

By OLEN CLEMENTS MUNSAN, Korea... The story of the visit of the Queen of Sheba to King Solomon...

Allied troops Repulse Sharp Enemy Attack

By STAN CARTER MUNDUNG VALLEY, Eastern Korea... The story of the visit of the Queen of Sheba to King Solomon...

Board Recommends Railway Union Shop

WASHINGTON—(AP)—A Presidential emergency room recommended today that the nation's railroads accept a demand by non-operating workers for a union shop clause in their contracts.

Civilian Rule Of UMT Urged

WASHINGTON—(AP)—The American Legion today urged Congress to lighten "civilian control" over the United Mine Workers.

OUR WEATHER

Cloudy and mild with showers today. Partly cloudy and cooler tonight and Friday.

Without Judge Waring Court Will Hear S.C. School Case

South Carolina's controversial Negro school segregation case will be reheard by a special Federal Court early next month and Judge J. Waties Waring, outspoken foe of segregation, will not sit on the court, it was learned today.

Was Cabbage Worth More Than Cabbage?

OAKLAND, Calif.—(AP)—This gunman takes "cabbage" with him today over an investigation of Internal Revenue Bureau tax scandals.

Over Tax Bureau Probe House Group, Treasury Clash

WASHINGTON—(AP)—A Congressional committee and the Treasury Department clashed openly and bitterly today over an investigation of Internal Revenue Bureau tax scandals.

Propeller Trouble Bamed For Fatal Elizabeth Crash

ELIZABETH, N. J.—(AP)—The Civil Aeronautics Board today indicated that trouble in the right propeller caused the crash of the National Airlines plane here Monday that took 52 lives.

EMBALLT NEWARK AIR PORT IS GRIM AND SILENT

The Newark, N. J. airport is silent and almost deserted after being closed for several days by a crash in the field which caused the death of 28 people.

EVENING PRAYER

Almighty God, we lift our hearts to Thee, knowing that in Thee alone is security, peace and contentment.

Truman Says Decision 'Difficult'

WASHINGTON—(AP)—President Truman said today the question of whether to run for re-election confronts him with a difficult decision.

IDENTIFIES EX-NAZI DOCTOR

Janina Iwanska, 27, of Boston, who was subjected to medical and gas gangrene experiments while confined to a Nazi concentration camp during World War II, looks at a photo of a man she identifies as a doctor who was connected with human experiments on political prisoners.

President Not Yet Ready To Announce Plans

WASHINGTON—(AP)—President Truman said today the question of whether to run for re-election confronts him with a difficult decision.

Truman To Ask Subpoena Power For Cleanup Chief

WASHINGTON—(AP)—President Truman said today he will ask Congress to give Newbold Morris, his Government cleanup man, power to subpoena people and documents.

GEORGE FINDS WAY TO STOP PETTY PILFERING

CHAPPAQUA, N. Y.—(AP)—George Williams, station-master at this suburban railroad depot, was only $12.50—short in his newspaper collections this month.

WHAT'S INSIDE

Classified Want Ads... Crossword Puzzle... Editorials... Radio Program... Sports... Women's Pages

Truman Says Decision 'Difficult'

WASHINGTON—(AP)—President Truman said today the question of whether to run for re-election confronts him with a difficult decision.

IDENTIFIES EX-NAZI DOCTOR

Janina Iwanska, 27, of Boston, who was subjected to medical and gas gangrene experiments while confined to a Nazi concentration camp during World War II, looks at a photo of a man she identifies as a doctor who was connected with human experiments on political prisoners.

President Not Yet Ready To Announce Plans

WASHINGTON—(AP)—President Truman said today the question of whether to run for re-election confronts him with a difficult decision.

Truman To Ask Subpoena Power For Cleanup Chief

WASHINGTON—(AP)—President Truman said today he will ask Congress to give Newbold Morris, his Government cleanup man, power to subpoena people and documents.

GEORGE FINDS WAY TO STOP PETTY PILFERING

CHAPPAQUA, N. Y.—(AP)—George Williams, station-master at this suburban railroad depot, was only $12.50—short in his newspaper collections this month.

WHAT'S INSIDE

Classified Want Ads... Crossword Puzzle... Editorials... Radio Program... Sports... Women's Pages