

Keeping Our Liberty... Raymond Moley traces the beginning of a series of developments that have resulted in the ever larger government in the second of his articles on "How to Keep Our Liberty" which you will find on the editorial page.

Bobbitt Will Oppose Parker In Second Race... Wants Voters To Name Associate Justice... By TOM FESPERRMAN... Charlotte News Staff Writer Judge William H. Bobbitt of Charlotte announced today that he will call for a second primary contest for the State Supreme Court.

led the field of six candidates for a regular eight-year term on the court of the first primary voting last Saturday... With all but 221 North Carolina precincts reporting, official tallies showed Judge Parker got 118,899 votes, Judge Bobbitt got 65,377, and the other four candidates got 210,000 among them.

Senator Says Tax Debtor Got Huge Sum From U. S. WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. William (D-De) today said nearly half a million dollars from the government through various methods... He named the man as Jack Udell and said he fled to Miami in New York City, Frankford, Del., and Miami Beach, Fla.

OUR WEATHER... Partly cloudy and continued today, tonight and Wednesday with chance of afternoon thundershowers... High temperature yesterday 83 degrees. High temperatures expected today 82 to 85 degrees.

FORECASTING TURTLES... Ever heard of forecasting the weather with turtles? A man in Indio, Calif., has a herd of turtles which he says predict temperature changes in the surrounding desert country... The turtles predict the temperature expected to be 82 to 85 degrees.

IN WEST BERLIN BRITISH BESIEGE SOVIET POW POS... By RICHARD KASICHKE... BRITAIN — British military police three barbed wire barricades around Russian-operated Radio Berlin today and besieged that Communist station in the western section of the divided city... The surprise dawn action caught a guard about the barbed wire barricade announced to both Russian and German civilian station personnel that anybody inside the building could come out.

ALL-GIRL BAGPIPE BAND CAUSES SCOTS TO WAIL... ABERDEEN, Scotland — The outraged town council slammed the city gate today again on all-girl bagpipe band from the University of Iowa.

Senator Says Tax Debtor Got Huge Sum From U. S. (Continued)... He said he fled to Miami in New York City, Frankford, Del., and Miami Beach, Fla. The Williams case was the first to be argued verbally before the Delaware superior court.

OUR WEATHER (Continued)... Partly cloudy and continued today, tonight and Wednesday with chance of afternoon thundershowers... High temperature yesterday 83 degrees. High temperatures expected today 82 to 85 degrees.

Riflemen Test U. N. Defenses... SEOUL, Korea — Eight groups of Chinese riflemen pecked at United Nations defenses along a five-mile sector of the Korean front in a pre-dawn darkness today.

Only One Confederate Veteran At Reunion... JACKSON, Miss. — Only 106-year-old William Townsend of Olla, La., showed up today for the 100th anniversary reunion of Confederate veterans.

The Calls For Strong American Air Forces

More Delegates Being Chosen In 3 Primaries... Taft, Ike Backers Battle For S. D. No. 1... By The Associated Press... Primaries in three states and a political backdrop today as Gen. Dwight Eisenhower swapped his military career for a chance to be President.

Truman Ponders Steel Plans... WASHINGTON (AP) — President Truman pondered today the steel industry's offer to accept a 10 percent wage increase in exchange for a 10 percent reduction in production.

Congressman Looks At TV Finds Necklines Higher... WASHINGTON (AP) — Rep. Gathings (D-Ark) noted today that the necklines on the dresses of delegates attending the convention are higher since the industry adopted a TV code this Spring.

Tapping Sounds Lift Hope For Five Trapped Miners... IRONWOOD, Mich. — Rescue workers cautiously burrowing ahead in search of five entombed miners today a reported hearing faint tapping sounds from the mine's 20th or main level.

WHAT'S INSIDE... Classified Want Ads... Comics... Crossword Puzzle... Feature Page... Sports... Tables... Theaters... Wishing Well... Women's Page