

Charlotte	17-200 North	144
Asheville	18-100 West	144
Greenville	19-100 West	144
Spartanburg	20-100 West	144
Rock Hill	21-100 West	144
Sumter	22-100 West	144
York	23-100 West	144
Greenville	24-100 West	144
Asheville	25-100 West	144
Charlotte	26-100 West	144

ESTABLISHED DEC. 8, 1888

TOP DEMOCRATS IN CAMPAIGN Huddle

Governor Adlai Stevenson (right), Democratic Presidential nominee, and his running mate, Senator John Sparkman (center), are pictured here as they conferred with President Truman in his White House office yesterday.

Lathernecks Hold Hill

Marines Hurl Back Red Attack

By WILLIAM C. BARNARD
SEATTLE, Wash. (U.S. Marine Corps) tonight threw back a strong third Chinese counter attack against the Bunker Hill on the Korean Western Front.

A Marine spokesman said for an hour and 20 minutes 750 Red troops battled ferociously but failed to penetrate positions of the marines charged up the slope. Marines met them from prefabricated bunkers.

Flares dramatically lit the sky. Marine and Communist artillery rained through the darkness.

Chinese mortar and artillery fire began building up at dusk. It reached its peak at 9 p. m. Five minutes later the Red troops charged up the slope. Marines met them with a hail of rifle and machine-gun blasts.

CAPTURED TUESDAY
Marines captured the ridge early yesterday morning. Last night the Chinese threw 400 men against the Leathernecks.

Early this morning a Red battalion, about 750 men, hit the hill again. The assault was broken at dawn. The marines said Chinese losses were "very heavy."

A Chinese Red broadcast from Peiping said the U. S. 45th Division had taken the ridge. The Choson Front on the Central Front "after losing over 8,000 men." There was no immediate confirmation by U. S. Eighth Army Headquarters.

The commander of the marines in the Bunker Hill fight, Maj. Gen. John T. Seiden, said the strategic ridge overlooking the Panmunjom truce talks site "is a strategic territory now—we certainly are going to hang onto it."

There was no indication the Chinese had given up hopes of retaking the position. In mid-afternoon today a Marine spokesman reported that Communist artillery and mortar fire was falling on Bunker Hill.

The Navy said its carrier planes struck a heavy blow yesterday against major Red supply and troop concentrations south of Wonsan, heavily battered East Coast port. The Navy said 40 bombs, including barrages, were flung, including barrages, were flung with heavy casualties to Red forces.

FOE SHELLS L'LAND
Communist shore guns near Wonsan shelled Yodo Island, about 15 miles northeast of Wonsan, hitting the small repair ship USS Grapple. The Navy said damage was slight and that there were no casualties.

The U. S. Fifth Air Force said fighter-bombers ranged across the front today in support of ground troops but concentrated mainly in the Bunker Hill region. The report they destroyed 21 mortar bunkers, six mortar positions, and 100 Red troops.

Partly cloudy and continued hot and humid today, tonight and tomorrow. Widely scattered afternoon thunderstorms. Expected high today 93 degrees. Low 72 degrees.

Highest yesterday 91 degrees. Lowest this morning 71 degrees. Sunrise, 5:41 A. M.; sunset, 7:14 P. M.

More Weather Data on Page 13-A.

More Weather Data on Page 13-A.

More Weather Data on Page 13-A.

More Weather Data on Page 13-A.

NUDISTS TRUST TERRIER TO CATCH PEEPING TOM

FINCHAMPTON, England.—The Heritage Nudist Club put a fierce bull terrier out last night to nip its catch Peeping Tom.

Club members had been frightened by a tall, unburied nudist hiding in the surrounding woods. Despite the similarity of undies, the members insist he is not one of their group.

The intruder has been able to outrun every chase since the nudists always stop to don clothes—a necessary preliminary in case the pursuit goes beyond the club boundaries.

But club members were betting on Patch, the bull terrier, to nab the pest.

"Patch knows how to grab by the seat of the pants," one said confidently. "He will be as good as effective with an intruder wearing no pants."

After the nudist was caught, the club members were betting on Patch, the bull terrier, to nab the pest.

"Patch knows how to grab by the seat of the pants," one said confidently. "He will be as good as effective with an intruder wearing no pants."

After the nudist was caught, the club members were betting on Patch, the bull terrier, to nab the pest.

"Patch knows how to grab by the seat of the pants," one said confidently. "He will be as good as effective with an intruder wearing no pants."

After the nudist was caught, the club members were betting on Patch, the bull terrier, to nab the pest.

"Patch knows how to grab by the seat of the pants," one said confidently. "He will be as good as effective with an intruder wearing no pants."

After the nudist was caught, the club members were betting on Patch, the bull terrier, to nab the pest.

"Patch knows how to grab by the seat of the pants," one said confidently. "He will be as good as effective with an intruder wearing no pants."

After the nudist was caught, the club members were betting on Patch, the bull terrier, to nab the pest.

"Patch knows how to grab by the seat of the pants," one said confidently. "He will be as good as effective with an intruder wearing no pants."

After the nudist was caught, the club members were betting on Patch, the bull terrier, to nab the pest.

"Patch knows how to grab by the seat of the pants," one said confidently. "He will be as good as effective with an intruder wearing no pants."

After the nudist was caught, the club members were betting on Patch, the bull terrier, to nab the pest.

"Patch knows how to grab by the seat of the pants," one said confidently. "He will be as good as effective with an intruder wearing no pants."

After the nudist was caught, the club members were betting on Patch, the bull terrier, to nab the pest.

"Patch knows how to grab by the seat of the pants," one said confidently. "He will be as good as effective with an intruder wearing no pants."

Largest Afternoon Newspaper in The Carolinas

Charlotte, North Carolina, Wednesday, August 13, 1952

40 Pages—Price Five Cents

Stevenson's Capitalism

Republicans Charge Link With Truman

Chance To Carry Some States

Take Ahead Of Party In South

By ASSOCIATED PRESS
Gov. Adlai E. Stevenson's White House visit stirred a political storm today.

1. GOP Nominee Dwight D. Eisenhower questioned the propriety of President Truman's having military and security leaders "brief" the Democratic nominee on the international situation.

2. In what amounted to a reply, Sen. John J. Sparkman, the Democratic Vice-Presidential nominee, suggested the Truman administration should give Eisenhower complete information on international affairs.

3. Eisenhower's chances in the deep South are not bright at this opening stage of the campaign.

4. He runs so far ahead of his party that he may have a good chance to carry some of the border states such as Kentucky, Tennessee, Oklahoma and Virginia.

5. A survey of Southern voting sentiment just completed by the Institute shows:

6. Eisenhower's chances in the deep South are not bright at this opening stage of the campaign.

7. He runs so far ahead of his party that he may have a good chance to carry some of the border states such as Kentucky, Tennessee, Oklahoma and Virginia.

8. A survey of Southern voting sentiment just completed by the Institute shows:

9. Eisenhower's chances in the deep South are not bright at this opening stage of the campaign.

10. He runs so far ahead of his party that he may have a good chance to carry some of the border states such as Kentucky, Tennessee, Oklahoma and Virginia.

11. A survey of Southern voting sentiment just completed by the Institute shows:

12. Eisenhower's chances in the deep South are not bright at this opening stage of the campaign.

13. He runs so far ahead of his party that he may have a good chance to carry some of the border states such as Kentucky, Tennessee, Oklahoma and Virginia.

14. A survey of Southern voting sentiment just completed by the Institute shows:

15. Eisenhower's chances in the deep South are not bright at this opening stage of the campaign.

16. He runs so far ahead of his party that he may have a good chance to carry some of the border states such as Kentucky, Tennessee, Oklahoma and Virginia.

17. A survey of Southern voting sentiment just completed by the Institute shows:

18. Eisenhower's chances in the deep South are not bright at this opening stage of the campaign.

19. He runs so far ahead of his party that he may have a good chance to carry some of the border states such as Kentucky, Tennessee, Oklahoma and Virginia.

20. A survey of Southern voting sentiment just completed by the Institute shows:

21. Eisenhower's chances in the deep South are not bright at this opening stage of the campaign.

22. He runs so far ahead of his party that he may have a good chance to carry some of the border states such as Kentucky, Tennessee, Oklahoma and Virginia.

23. A survey of Southern voting sentiment just completed by the Institute shows:

24. Eisenhower's chances in the deep South are not bright at this opening stage of the campaign.

25. He runs so far ahead of his party that he may have a good chance to carry some of the border states such as Kentucky, Tennessee, Oklahoma and Virginia.

By GEORGE GALLUP
Director, American Institute of Public Opinion

PRINCETON, N. J.—One of the most vital questions of the Presidential campaign is whether the Eisenhower-Nixon ticket will be able to carry any of the border states or to "crack" the solidly Democratic deep South.

A survey of Southern voting sentiment just completed by the Institute shows:

1. Eisenhower's chances in the deep South are not bright at this opening stage of the campaign.

2. He runs so far ahead of his party that he may have a good chance to carry some of the border states such as Kentucky, Tennessee, Oklahoma and Virginia.

3. A survey of Southern voting sentiment just completed by the Institute shows:

4. Eisenhower's chances in the deep South are not bright at this opening stage of the campaign.

5. He runs so far ahead of his party that he may have a good chance to carry some of the border states such as Kentucky, Tennessee, Oklahoma and Virginia.

6. A survey of Southern voting sentiment just completed by the Institute shows:

7. Eisenhower's chances in the deep South are not bright at this opening stage of the campaign.

8. He runs so far ahead of his party that he may have a good chance to carry some of the border states such as Kentucky, Tennessee, Oklahoma and Virginia.

9. A survey of Southern voting sentiment just completed by the Institute shows:

10. Eisenhower's chances in the deep South are not bright at this opening stage of the campaign.

11. He runs so far ahead of his party that he may have a good chance to carry some of the border states such as Kentucky, Tennessee, Oklahoma and Virginia.

12. A survey of Southern voting sentiment just completed by the Institute shows:

13. Eisenhower's chances in the deep South are not bright at this opening stage of the campaign.

14. He runs so far ahead of his party that he may have a good chance to carry some of the border states such as Kentucky, Tennessee, Oklahoma and Virginia.

15. A survey of Southern voting sentiment just completed by the Institute shows:

16. Eisenhower's chances in the deep South are not bright at this opening stage of the campaign.

17. He runs so far ahead of his party that he may have a good chance to carry some of the border states such as Kentucky, Tennessee, Oklahoma and Virginia.

18. A survey of Southern voting sentiment just completed by the Institute shows:

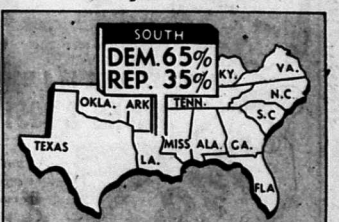

19. Eisenhower's chances in the deep South are not bright at this opening stage of the campaign.

20. He runs so far ahead of his party that he may have a good chance to carry some of the border states such as Kentucky, Tennessee, Oklahoma and Virginia.

21. A survey of Southern voting sentiment just completed by the Institute shows:

22. Eisenhower's chances in the deep South are not bright at this opening stage of the campaign.

23. He runs so far ahead of his party that he may have a good chance to carry some of the border states such as Kentucky, Tennessee, Oklahoma and Virginia.

A Gallup Poll of Southern political sentiment finds 65 per cent of the South's voters favoring the Republican Party, 35 per cent the Democratic. This represents a gain of approximately 5 per cent for the GOP in the South since the 1948 Presidential race.

How to see who the Republican or the Democratic Party will win in the above table is a definite reference to or expressed a "leaning" toward one of the other is as follows:

Democratic	65%
Republican	35%
Undecided	0%

Assuming that the undecided group in the above table will vote in about the same way

As the others, the Democratic Party figures would be 65 per cent to 35 per cent for the Republicans.

This represents a 5 percentage point gain for the GOP when compared with the 1948 election figure in the South of 59.7 per cent, or roughly 30 per cent.

CANDIDATE POPULARITY
The second question in the survey was this:

"If the Presidential election were held today, would you vote for Eisenhower or Truman?"

See IKK AHEAD on page 13-A

Independent S. C. Slate

Byrnes Signs Petition For Ike

COLUMBIA, S.C.—Gov. James B. Byrnes, a Democrat, today became one of the mounting number of South Carolinians putting their names on a petition for an independent slate of presidential electors pledged for Gen. Dwight Eisenhower, the Republican candidate.

Byrnes said last week that the petition would not be signed by him, but he said he would support it if it reached the State Democratic Convention.

The petition signed by Byrnes is one of the many being circulated by the "South Carolina for Eisenhower" group.

Byrnes said last week that the petition would not be signed by him, but he said he would support it if it reached the State Democratic Convention.

The petition signed by Byrnes is one of the many being circulated by the "South Carolina for Eisenhower" group.

Byrnes said last week that the petition would not be signed by him, but he said he would support it if it reached the State Democratic Convention.

The petition signed by Byrnes is one of the many being circulated by the "South Carolina for Eisenhower" group.

Byrnes said last week that the petition would not be signed by him, but he said he would support it if it reached the State Democratic Convention.

The petition signed by Byrnes is one of the many being circulated by the "South Carolina for Eisenhower" group.

Byrnes said last week that the petition would not be signed by him, but he said he would support it if it reached the State Democratic Convention.

The petition signed by Byrnes is one of the many being circulated by the "South Carolina for Eisenhower" group.

Byrnes said last week that the petition would not be signed by him, but he said he would support it if it reached the State Democratic Convention.

The petition signed by Byrnes is one of the many being circulated by the "South Carolina for Eisenhower" group.

Byrnes said last week that the petition would not be signed by him, but he said he would support it if it reached the State Democratic Convention.

The petition signed by Byrnes is one of the many being circulated by the "South Carolina for Eisenhower" group.

Byrnes said last week that the petition would not be signed by him, but he said he would support it if it reached the State Democratic Convention.

The petition signed by Byrnes is one of the many being circulated by the "South Carolina for Eisenhower" group.

Ross Tried to Hide Red Past, Paper Says

WINSTON-SALEM.—Myron Howard Ross, top man in the city's class at the University of North Carolina Law School, was barred from taking the State bar examination because he "tried to hide his Communist past," the Winston-Salem Journal said today.

The paper said that the State Board of Examiners did not rule on Ross's record, but that he had been a Communist or was active in a Communist party.

Ross, who is from Greensboro, was in his early 30's, was not available for comment. Ross has been active in labor unions. He ran for Congress in 1948 as a Progressive Party candidate and also served as party secretary.

The letter, released by the board's secretary, Edward L. Cannon of Raleigh, stated that Ross appeared before the board on Aug. 4, the day before the examination began. He was told then that he would not be permitted to take the examination, the letter added.

The Winston-Salem Journal, in a copyright article by Chester S. Davis, cited the following as "evidence":

Quoting a "confidential informant's report" made in 1941 to William C. Coker of the Winston-Salem Police Dept., Reporter Davis said that Ross informed the informant that he was a Communist in 1941.

Ross claimed to have set up there, "people" of the party in 1941 at Graham Memorial Hall in Chapel Hill at which Ross spoke, urging an overthrow of "capitalist wolves and imperial warmongers," according to the report.

Present at this meeting were Bart Hunter Logan, official Communist secretary for the two Carolinas at the time; Julius Scales, former Communist leader for the

Sen. Willis Smith Received By Pope

CASTEL GANDOLFO, Italy (AP)—Pope Pius XII received three members of the U. S. Senate Judiciary Committee in special audience today.

The Americans—Alexander Wiley (R-Wis.) Robert C. Hendrickson (R-N.J.) and Willis Smith (D-C.)—spent about 20 minutes with the Pontiff.

The Senators arrived in Rome at night to confer with Italian officials on immigration and problems connected with political refugees.

See ROSS on page 13-A

Umstead Wants Jordan Kept In As Party Chief

DURHAM.—(AP)—William B. Umstead, Democratic gubernatorial candidate, today recommended the reappointment of R. Everett Jordan of Saxapahaw as chairman of the State Democratic Executive Committee.

Umstead said that Jordan has been a "valuable asset" to the party and that he has been "very helpful" in the campaign of Raleigh.

Umstead said that Jordan has been a "valuable asset" to the party and that he has been "very helpful" in the campaign of Raleigh.

Umstead said that Jordan has been a "valuable asset" to the party and that he has been "very helpful" in the campaign of Raleigh.

Umstead said that Jordan has been a "valuable asset" to the party and that he has been "very helpful" in the campaign of Raleigh.

Evening Prayer

God, we're living in an age when the material progress in terms of machines and industrial output. Turn their thoughts to spiritual matters that they may come to measure progress in terms of character and its output for Christ.

Everett Jordan of Saxapahaw has served with distinction as chairman of the State Democratic

Umstead said that Jordan has been a "valuable asset" to the party and that he has been "very helpful" in the campaign of Raleigh.

Umstead said that Jordan has been a "valuable asset" to the party and that he has been "very helpful" in the campaign of Raleigh.

Comic Dictionary

IMPUNITY
The best thing to commit crimes

Umstead said that Jordan has been a "valuable asset" to the party and that he has been "very helpful" in the campaign of Raleigh.

Umstead said that Jordan has been a "valuable asset" to the party and that he has been "very helpful" in the campaign of Raleigh.