

ON THE INSIDE

Table with 2 columns: Section, Page Number

THE CHARLOTTE NEWS-OBSERVER

ESTABLISHED DEC. 8, 1888

Charlotte, North Carolina, Monday, September 22, 1952

26 Pages—Price Five Cents

AFL Hears Democratic Candidate

Proposes Changes in Labor Dept. NEW YORK (AP)—Gov. Adlai E. Stevenson declared today that the Taft-Hartley labor law must be repealed because it is "oppressive" and he denied a claim by his Republican rival that he favors compulsory arbitration of labor disputes.

Truman Tour Plans Given

By ERNEST B. VACCARO WASHINGTON (AP)—The White House today made public the itinerary for President Truman's 26-day campaign tour of the West. Truman will move off on his whistle-stop special Saturday night, Sept. 27, at 11:30 p.m. from Washington to Salt Lake City.

OUR WEATHER

Rain today, tonight and Tuesday, and not much change in temperatures. High temperature yesterday, 76 degrees. Low temperature expected today, 72 degrees.

THE VOTERS SPEAK: I Eisenhower Getting Support From Former HST, FDR Fans

Sam Labell is remembered by North Carolinians for his Saturday Evening Post story about Charlotte, but his national recognition extends beyond the limits of slick paper publications. His book on "The Future of American Politics," won the Woodrow Wilson Foundation as the best of the field of government and democracy, and his interest in grass roots opinion of the Presidential campaign is boundless.

TWO BONDS OFFERED Why Vote? Is Contest Topic

Two prizes for the best letters after your address the word "today" in the subject, "Why Vote?" were offered today by The News. A $25 bond will be awarded to the author of the best letter on the subject. Another $25 bond will be given to the school student (grades one through twelve) whose letter on the same topic is adjudged the best.

REDS KILL OWN PILOT TO STOP IDENTIFICATION

TOKYO (AP)—Maj. Frederick O. Blesse, America's top jet ace in Korea, said today he didn't know if Russians were flying jets in Korea but the Communists once killed one of their own pilots to keep him from being captured.

Pilots Damage 4 MIGs Allies Recapture Eastern Front Hill

By GEORGE A. MCARTHUR SEOU, Korea, (AP)—Allied troops, advancing behind a curtain of tanks, today recaptured an Eastern Front hill after 15 hours of continuous fighting.

OUR WEATHER

Rain today, tonight and Tuesday, and not much change in temperatures. High temperature yesterday, 76 degrees. Low temperature expected today, 72 degrees.

GETTING UP THE LIST

Donna Smith, Pasadena, Calif., attorney, and his secretary, Juanita Mason, finish preparing the list of names of people who contributed to the special expense fund for Richard Nixon's controversial U.S. Presidential campaign. A breakdown of the expenses has been made and Nixon is expected to make a full statement soon.

Investigators To Check FB Files

WASHINGTON (AP)—Congressional investigators take a look at hitherto secret FBI files today to determine whether they warrant an expanded probe of the Justice Department that might lead to testimony from Supreme Court Justice Tom Clark.

Costly Blaze Hits City in Connecticut

NEW BRITAIN, Conn. (AP)—A general alarm fire wrecked a number of offices and two court rooms in New Britain's five-story city hall today.

Revenue Bureau Told to Explain Stevenson's Campaign Funds Are Questioned

WASHINGTON (AP)—House investigators said today they are asking the Internal Revenue department to explain why most of the top jobs in a big reorganization of the bureau include competitive civil service examinations.

Senator To Bare Personal Finances

By MORRIS LENSBERG PORTLAND, Ore.—(AP)—Sen. Richard Nixon, in the strongest sign yet that he will stay on as the Republican candidate for Vice President, announced plans today for a dramatic radio-television report to the voters of America on his finances—personal and political.

Nixon's Chances Of Staying On Ticket Better

By JACK BELL ABOARD EISENHOWER TRAIN (AP)—The pendulum appeared swinging toward Sen. Richard M. Nixon today after Dwight D. Eisenhower talked to vice presidential running-mate by telephone last night.

Truman Tour Plans Given

By ERNEST B. VACCARO WASHINGTON (AP)—The White House today made public the itinerary for President Truman's 26-day campaign tour of the West.

Broadcast To Cost $75,000

WASHINGTON (AP)—Republican National Chairman Arthur W. Summerfield announced today the purchase of more than 450,000 hours of radio-TV time for Sen. Richard M. Nixon's explanation of his $18,000 expense fund from a Chicago group.