

Table with 2 columns: Section, Page Number. Includes Classified, Business, Sports, etc.

ESTABLISHED DEC. 8, 1888.

MR. WARREN GOES TO WASHINGTON

Earl Warren, his resignation as governor of California left behind on his Sacramento desk, is shown by two of his daughters, Dorothy (left) and Nina, as he boarded a plane in San Francisco.

Board Slated To Report

Action Due In Dock Strike

NEW YORK (AP)—Anticipated U. S. government action today brings a quick end to an economy-crushing strike of longshoremen from Maine to Virginia.

Big asks Ahead In Dealing With Bonds

RALPH (AP)—State officials prepared today to begin work on $50-million dollar school building and 22 million dollar bonds.

FBI May Take Hand In Greenlease Kidnap Case

By AL DOPKING KANSAS CITY (AP)—The wealthy parents of 6-year-old Bobby Greenlease still cling today to the hope he would be returned safely as the kidnaping case entered its second week with the possibility the FBI may step in officially.

OUR WEATHER

Fair and mild today. Partly cloudy and mild tonight. Thursday, cloudy and cooler with a high in the 60's.

men Sworn In Chief Justice

After Long Delay Beginning Of POW Explanations Sought

BY GEORGE MCARTHEE PANAMAJON (AP)—The Neutral Nations Repatriation Committee moved today to get underway the long-delayed explanations to some 22,000 anti-Red prisoners who they should return home.

Deeper Cuts Reported In Federal Payroll

WASHINGTON (AP)—A Congressional study group today reported deeper economy cuts in the federal payroll, but kind of surprises in store when the number of foreigners hired overseas is disclosed.

Army May Feel Axe Hardest In Next Budget

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Army may be hardest hit of the three armed forces when budget makers start putting down appropriation recommendations for the fiscal year starting next July 1.

Countess Of Harewood Is Mother Of Son

LONDON (AP)—The Countess of Harewood gave birth today to a son who became 14th in line of succession to Britain's throne.

Evening Prayer

Our most grateful heavenly Father, we are grateful for Christ who has appeared for the salvation of all men. Help us to live godly lives. Help us to show forth Christlike love toward others.

California Takes Oath; Ike Watches

WASHINGTON (AP)—Earl Warren became the 14th chief justice of the United States at 12:06 p. m., (EST) today.

Turkey, Brazil, New Zealand Win U. N. Spots

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP)—U. S.-backed Turkey beat off Russian-supported Poland for a seat on the U. N. Security Council today.

Chivalry Dead?

Queen Juliana of the Netherlands lifts her skirt as she plays through red waters during a visit to Schoorwa Island.

Seats Self

Warren then seated himself in the high backed chief justice's chair at the center of the court bench.

Boys' Gave

At 12:57 p. m. the President and Mrs. Eisenhower had their luncheon in the room as the justices and the audience stood.

Boys' Gave

They had been in the court room a total of 11 minutes.

Boys' Gave

The President was dressed in a morning brown suit and wore a brown tie with small figures in the center of the top.

Boys' Gave

Mrs. Eisenhower wore a state blue suit, a gray fur shoulder piece and a flat hat of red and gray with silver dots.

Boys' Gave

The court crier, George E. Hutchinson, gavied the audience a copy of the Constitution.

Boys' Gave

At 1:05 p. m. the President and Mrs. Eisenhower had their luncheon in the room as the justices and the audience stood.

Boys' Gave

At 1:15 p. m. the President and Mrs. Eisenhower had their luncheon in the room as the justices and the audience stood.

Boys' Gave

At 1:25 p. m. the President and Mrs. Eisenhower had their luncheon in the room as the justices and the audience stood.

Boys' Gave

At 1:35 p. m. the President and Mrs. Eisenhower had their luncheon in the room as the justices and the audience stood.

Boys' Gave

At 1:45 p. m. the President and Mrs. Eisenhower had their luncheon in the room as the justices and the audience stood.

Boys' Gave

At 1:55 p. m. the President and Mrs. Eisenhower had their luncheon in the room as the justices and the audience stood.

Famed Sub-Killer

LONDON (AP)—The death was announced today of Vice Adm. Gordon Campbell, famous British submarine commander in World War I.

Parents See Two Babies Die In Locked Automobile

SOUTH HILL, Va. (AP)—An Army sergeant and his wife saw two babies die in a locked automobile.

Give Baby a Treat!

The dessert that 9 out of 10 doctors recommend.

Betty Boyer

tells you the easy way to feed baby in

Wednesday's

Grocery News

A man who wouldn't strike a woman with his bat on.

7th Hurricane Moves Little

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—Hurricane Gull hung almost stationary far west over the Atlantic today, nearly 2,500 miles southeast of the Florida mainland.

Boys' Gave

At 1:55 p. m. the President and Mrs. Eisenhower had their luncheon in the room as the justices and the audience stood.

Boys' Gave

At 2:05 p. m. the President and Mrs. Eisenhower had their luncheon in the room as the justices and the audience stood.

Boys' Gave

At 2:15 p. m. the President and Mrs. Eisenhower had their luncheon in the room as the justices and the audience stood.

Boys' Gave

At 2:25 p. m. the President and Mrs. Eisenhower had their luncheon in the room as the justices and the audience stood.

Boys' Gave

At 2:35 p. m. the President and Mrs. Eisenhower had their luncheon in the room as the justices and the audience stood.

Boys' Gave

At 2:45 p. m. the President and Mrs. Eisenhower had their luncheon in the room as the justices and the audience stood.