

Charlotte News Staff Writer
Established Dec. 8, 1888.

Charlotte, North Carolina, Monday, November 2, 1953

22 Pages—Price Five Cents

HOBGOBLINS' HAUL

Girls first took by the Trick-or-treaters local children's treats. The Eastover children saved the treats, brought them in this morning so others could enjoy them.

Switch On 'Trick Or Treat': Tricksters To Treat Others

By TOM FESPERMAN
Charlotte News Staff Writer
A couple of days late, youngsters at five local children's centers got Halloween treats today without having to threaten any outlandish tricks.

Alexander Home.
Oaklawn Community Center, and Double Oaks Community Center.
The Eastover children apparently had got through the weekend — exactly how, some of them weren't sure — without gorging themselves on the lollipops, chocolate drops, jelly beans, Tootsie Rolls and cookies they had received on their house-to-house prowling as goblins.

Only 3 American POWs Thought To Be Real Reds

PANMUNJOM (AP) — A reliable source said tonight that only three of the 22 American war prisoners who have refused to return home.
The other three, he said, are confirmed Communists who are dominating the little group of Americans who stayed behind.

rated "very reliable." Virtually no information has been made public on the camp.
Twenty-three Americans originally were turned over by the Reds to the Neutral Nations Repatriation Commission in September. The Reds said had refused repatriation.
One, Cpl. Edward S. Dickenson of Cracker's Creek, Va., returned to the Allies last month by his own choice. Three South Koreans also have returned.

U. S. to Store Bombs in Spain

MADRID, Spain.—The U. S. Air Force eventually will have supplies of atomic bombs stored in Spain for use against "a common enemy," U. S. Air Force Secretary Harold E. Talbott declared here today.
Talbot told a news conference the atomic base for the Strategic Air Force will be established only with the approval of the Spanish government.

He painted a bleak, gray picture of the neutral zone camp where the 22 Americans are held with 1 British and 322 South Koreans—
A handful of deceived, bewildered and frightened men, afraid to remain behind but more fearful of going home because they believe home means death.

Markets To Be Closed Tuesday For Elections
NEW YORK (AP)—All financial and commodity markets in New York will be closed election day, Tuesday, Nov. 3, except the New York Produce market.
Grain markets throughout the U. S. will operate as usual as well as other commodities.

OUR WEATHER

Fair and mild today and Tuesday. Rather cool again tonight.
Low temperature this morning, 45 degrees.
High temperature expected tonight, 42 degrees.
High temperature yesterday, 73 degrees.
High temperature expected today, 78 degrees.
Sunset, 6:54 a.m.; sunset, 6:29 p.m.
More Weather Data on Page 5-A

Secretary Defies Critics In Congress

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary Benson today ordered his controversial reorganization plan for the Agriculture Department be put into immediate effect.
Benson told a news conference that President Eisenhower approved the plan.

Red Efforts To Woo POWs Bugged Down

PANMUNJOM (AP)—The erratic Communist program to woo back anti-Red Chinese and Korean prisoners floundered in uncertainty tonight after a Red dispute with the Indian command, which guards the 24,000 POWs.
The Communists called off today's scheduled interviews with 500 Koreans after the Indians refused to let the Reds make loud-speaker broadcasts to the POWs awaiting interviews.
The U. N. Command said late in the afternoon it had been told officially the Reds would interview more Koreans Tuesday, but a South Korean spokesman said later he believed the Reds would not hold the explanations.

End To School Segregation 'Suicide', Talmadge Says

By JACK BELL
HOT SPRINGS, Va., (AP)—Gov. Herman E. Talmadge of Georgia declared today that a Supreme Court decision to end racial segregation in Southern schools would be "nothing less than a major step toward national suicide."
Talmadge, chairman of the Southern Governors Conference, said any such "political decision" by the high court would involve "the most foolishly sociological calamity in our national history."

John Kieselhorst, 16, of St. Paul, Minn., tells Sheriff George Fort of Winona, Minn., how he held a finger in the wound in his hand of a hunting companion, Martin Larson, 15, for 26 hours after Larson was wounded in a hunting accident. The youth later died in a hospital despite Kieselhorst's efforts. (AP Wirephoto)

Gov. Theodore B. McKelدين Still Not Strong In Dixie

HOT SPRINGS, Va., (AP)—Dixie Democratic governors agreed today in saying the Republicans are a long way from establishing their party firmly in the South.
But they were somewhat divided on President Eisenhower's popularity. A majority said it dipping largely because of unrest among farmers.
Gov. Theodore B. McKelدين of Maryland, sole Republican steno-

PILOT OF 91 DECLARES JET FLIES EASIEST

SAN DIEGO (AP)—Ninety-one-year-old James W. "Dad" Montee of Los Angeles found it easier to pilot a 500 m.p.h. jet than either a twin-engine transport or a 1929-style monoplane.
He flew all three yesterday at a celebration of the 50th anniversary of powered flight. After a 10-mile spin in a P-53 jet trainer, accompanied by Air Force Maj. John R. McCombs, "Dad" remarked that the jet was the easiest to fly.

Miss McGuire's Husband Denied Leave From Korea

NEW YORK (AP)—Singer Julius La Rosa and the woman he loves, Dorothy McGuire, are maintaining strict silence on latest developments concerning her husband, Sgt. John Brown.
Brown's managers said last night he had "absolutely no comment" to make on the Army's refusal to let Brown return to the United States from Korea on emergency leave.
The Army spokesman for Army Far East Headquarters announced yesterday that Brown's request for emergency leave had been turned tells you all about a longer-lasting, more natural-looking home permanent in Wednesday's Grocery News

Betty Boyer

Advertisement for Betty Boyer cosmetics, featuring a portrait of Betty Boyer and text describing the product.