'PROJECT LINCOLN' PROBED

McCarthy Group Hunting Reds In Hush-Hush Defense Project

WASHINGTON (AP)—An aide to the chairman McCarthy (R-Wis.) says today that he has been raised about Project Lincoln, a supersensitive study of how to keep America safe from atomic attack, is being probed for subversives by the Senate investigations subcommittee.

The Boston Post, in a copy-righted story, reported that such an investigation was under way. Francis P. Carr, executive staff director of McCarthy's committee, confirmed last night that Project Lincoln is among defense establishments in the Boston area under investigation.

Mediators Seek To Avert Strike

CHICAGO (AP)—Federal mediators today will try to avert a threatened strike by the AFL Air Line Pilots Assn. against Piedmont Airlines.

Wage talks between company and union representatives were delayed several hours, however, because two members of the National Mediation Board, who will meet with them, worked into the morning hours on another case.

The union, which represents some 100 Piedmont pilots, yesterday postponed a strike scheduled for 3 a.m. (EST) today, pending mediators' efforts to settle their wage dispute.
